

KLAMATH FALLS Women of the Moose Chapter 467 held installation ceremonies at Moose Hall June 26. Installing Officers are: From left, Guide, Nancy Yancey, Chaplain, Clair Packer; Regent, Erma GoRue; Pianist, Ninon Nyback and Chairman, Irene Hamel.

COMMITTEE . . . in charge of refreshments for installation of new Officers of the Women of the Moose held at Moose Temple, June 26, are: From left Nancy Yancey, Pat McManus; College of Regents, Francis Waits; Chairman, Irene Hamel; College of Regents, Blanche Dixon, Clair Packer; College of Regents, Ruby Bell; and Arvilla Johnson.

NEW CHAIRMEN of the Women of the Moose Chapter 467, appointed by Senior Regent, Ruth Chapel, to serve for the ensuing year, with their Chapter building Committees are: From left: Homemaking, Lea Fulton; Child Care and Training, Lucille Waits; College of Regents, Ruby Bell; Publicity, Lucille Caley; Senior Regent, Ruth Chapel; Membership, Vivian Wenzel; Friendship, Virginia Fuller; Ritual, Mildred Eklund; and Social Service, Wilma Starbuck. Chairmen not appearing in the photograph are: Mooseheart Alumni, Hazel Hillman; Mooseheart, Patricia Hescok; Library, Ollie Holtzgang; Moosehaven, Ethel Morton and Hospital Guild, Virginia McGaughy.

Fort Klamath

By MYRTLE WIMER

Lawrence Smith, USN, is a frequent visitor here while enjoying a furlough from San Diego, July first until the 16th. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Noah, Fort Klamath, and the son of Mrs. Maurice Benedict, Klamath Falls. At the expiration of his leave, the young sailor is due to be sent to the East coast.

Another young navy man, Vernon Braham, Radar man second class, is also on furlough until July 16 while his ship, the USS Yarnell, is in dry dock at Mare Island for repairs. He is a brother of Mrs. James Van Wornor of Fort Klamath, and is a veteran of ten years of service. Enlisting in 1943, he spent two and a half years in the U.S. Army cavalry in the Philippines, and has to date served seven and a half years in the navy, having seen duty in Japan, China, and Formosa waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Stanley, Judy and Lorna, have moved for the summer from Eagle Point to their ranch north of Fort Klamath. Visiting here for the first time since leaving eight years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller, Roseburg, looked up old friends in Fort Klamath Saturday. Of interest is the fact their son Kenneth is now stationed in Germany with the U.S. Army Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Redden and three small sons spent Saturday night in Klamath Falls, visiting his brother and family and other relatives. Elnora Hescok left Sunday to attend the Devil Indian Soda Springs southern Oregon Methodist camp, for the week of July 11-18, during which a suitable camping program for high school girls will be held.

Also on Sunday, a group of six scouts of Fort Klamath troop 34 left for a week's outing at Camp

Makuals, Crescent Lake, where they will enjoy a week of boating, swimming, archery, etc. Going from here were Eagle Scout Wyn Hescok, boy scouts Richard Nicholson, Jim and Ted Veitch, Lawrence Kendall and Douglas Van Wornor, accompanying them as supervisor in charge of the boys was Lee Whitlock, Fort Klamath.

Visiting here one week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ober Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sykes and Anne, of Ginton, Iowa. Mrs. Sykes is a sister of Mrs. Leo Morstad, Klamath Falls, and before coming here, the group took a trip along the coast. Leo Morstad is Mrs. Brown's son, and during the Sykes' stay here, the Morstad family visited several times at the Brown home.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Richter were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brethaupt and three children; his mother and her granddaughter, Mrs. Mary E. Brethaupt and Cherry, also Virginia Kane and son Johnny, the group all having from the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Floyd, David and Donald, have enjoyed company also at their home at the Oreum ranch, when the following came from Gallup, New Mexico, for a visit: his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Floyd and two children; his mother, Mrs. Frances Floyd, Mrs. Floyd's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grandall and their daughter Nancy. The group spent the weekend at the Floyd home before returning to New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strahan vacationed over the long fourth of July weekend at their Diamond Lake cabin. Visiting over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Engle were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Barnes and three children, Ashland, on going back home, they took Erma Jean Engle for a week's stay, leaving their son Timothy here with the Clifford Engles for a similar visit.

Caroline Reich, Orange, California, is a summer visitor at the homes of her uncles, Carl and Richard H. Wilson, at the Wilson Cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bronson and Carson spent the weekend at their Fort Klamath residence from Canyonville, which is their permanent address.

Audrey Varnum has been transferred to the Portland office of the Southern Pacific Railway, and was taken there this past weekend by her mother, Mrs. Richard O. Varnum, Audrey, a 1954 graduate of KUBS, was previously employed by the S.P. in Klamath Falls.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Ellery Echlin, Dravin, visited friends Monday. He was pastor of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church before being transferred last year, to his new pastorate at Dravin.

MERRILL

By ROBERTA DEWEY

MERRILL - Several hundred cars were parked around the Merrill athletic field last Sunday evening to see the annual fireworks display, put on by the Merrill fire department. Merchants and organizations in Merrill helped financially.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Chapman are spending two weeks visiting in Parma, Idaho, and in Port Angeles, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald enjoyed a 10 day motor trip through parts of Utah, Idaho, Montana, and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garratt and young daughter have moved to Klamath Falls to reside. Their home in Greenmeier addition has been purchased by the Dwight Chapmans. Mr. and Mrs. Ursal Snapp and

BRIGHT EYED . . . three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Stafford, 2510 Shasta Way is pictured here. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Casper, 2043 Applegate and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Worrall, 214 Girard Drive, Medford. —Photo by Guderian

EASTSIDE

By MRS. MERLE O'NEIL

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Cornett and family returned home Tuesday after visiting in Prineville with Elgin's relatives. Mrs. Delphia Nelson accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Van Leuwen and children, Salem, arrived home Thursday. Mrs. Nelson had spent two weeks at Salem visiting her daughter. Mrs. Van Leuwen is planning to spend several days here visiting relatives and friends.

While her mother was away Ivy Nelson stayed nights with Mr. and Mrs. Truman Hartzog. Mrs. Lee O'Neil accompanied by her brother Fred Taylor, motored to Klamath Falls, Thursday, where Fred caught a bus to return to his base at Fort Ord, California.

Sincere sympathy is extended the Carl Peay family of the Westside in their recent sorrow. Their little son passed away Monday at the Lakeview Hospital, surviving his birth by only a few hours.

Mrs. John Baxter enjoyed guests who called at her home July 12. They were Mrs. George Kasparian Sr. accompanied by her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Kasparian Jr., who are here visiting from Texas, where he is stationed with the military service. They are spending several days in Lakeview at the home of his parents and renewing acquaintances in this district.

Mrs. James Snider enjoyed a visit Friday from her two brothers and their families, the Bill and Robert Johnstones, Grangeville, Idaho.

From here they motored to Surprise Valley where they planned to visit with several other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kober and girls visited Sunday evening with her brother and family at the Homer Baldwin home in the Thomas Creek district.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil and Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neil drove to Lilly Lake up Pine Creek Canyon Sunday.

Myrtle Stephens and Mrs. Striplin, Lakeview, were calling on Mrs. Fred Longfellow Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and Pamela, arrived home Thursday to spend part of his furlough with his mother Julia Lightie and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kober and girls visited Sunday evening with her brother and family at the Homer Baldwin home in the Thomas Creek district.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil and Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neil drove to Lilly Lake up Pine Creek Canyon Sunday.

Myrtle Stephens and Mrs. Striplin, Lakeview, were calling on Mrs. Fred Longfellow Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and Pamela, arrived home Thursday to spend part of his furlough with his mother Julia Lightie and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kober and girls visited Sunday evening with her brother and family at the Homer Baldwin home in the Thomas Creek district.

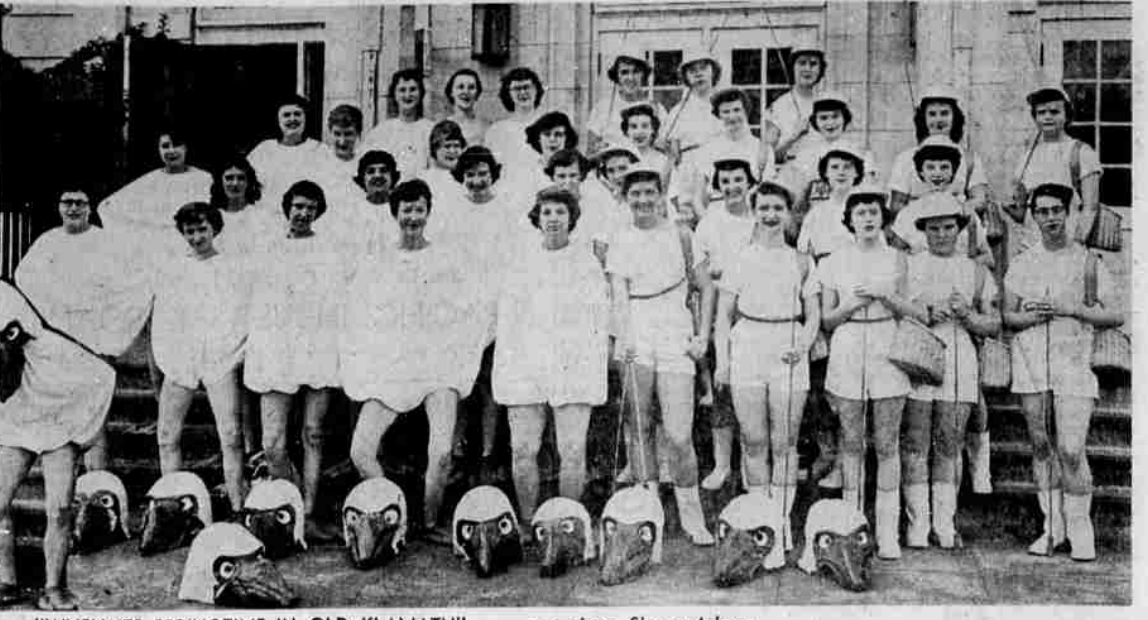

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil and Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neil drove to Lilly Lake up Pine Creek Canyon Sunday.

Myrtle Stephens and Mrs. Striplin, Lakeview, were calling on Mrs. Fred Longfellow Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and Pamela, arrived home Thursday to spend part of his furlough with his mother Julia Lightie and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kober and girls visited Sunday evening with her brother and family at the Homer Baldwin home in the Thomas Creek district.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil and Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neil drove to Lilly Lake up Pine Creek Canyon Sunday.

"WHEN ITS SPRINGTIME IN OLD KLAMATH" . . . a Fisherman and Pelican Drill of Bethel No. 6. They used the same drills at the State Session of Jobs Daughters in Salem in April. Drill director, Mrs. Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian of the state of Oregon, originated the theme and costumes for the drill team.

First row, left to right, Susan O'Hair, Deanna Vincze, Zelda Scoubes, Judy Clark, Julia Ann Brittain; Carolyn Boyd (Captain) Phyllis Dannelley, Sharon Thompson, Carolyn Gar-

risson, Sharon Adams. Second row same order, Neoma Parker, Phyllis Crabtree, Barbara Rotrock, Margie Harkins, Sharon Dewing, Nola Higdon, Janet Wigner, Clara Shaw, Pat Smith. Third row, same order, Royann Plass, Sally Soukup, Marilyn Hersey, Karen Totten, Myrna Heaton, Ann Calder, Sharon Taylor, Mary Lou Kerr, Janna Warren. Back row, same order, Sheila Kunz, Carolyn Fulton (musical) Mary Lou Craig, Marilee Whitlock, Norma Brallier, Florene Wamstad. —Photos by McEwan Salem

SOCIETY by Milly Ramsby

SCALLOPED FLATTERY

9022 14 1/2 - 24 1/2 by Marianne Martin

Wonderfully slimming frock designed especially for the shorter, fuller, half-size figure - simply framed about the bosom by the scalloped you adore! Slenderizing paneled skirt spells added height for you! Choose voile, nylon, or acetate. Sew now and save! Pattern 9022; Half Sizes 14 1/2, 16 1/2, 20 1/2, 22 1/2, 24 1/2. Size 16 1/2 takes 3 1/2 yards 39-inch. This easy-to-use pattern gives perfect fit. Complete illustrated Sew Chart shows you every step. Send thirty-five cents in coins for this pattern - add 5 cents for each pattern for 1st-class mailing. Send to Marianne Martin, care of Herald and News, Pattern Dept., P.O. Box 6740, Chicago 80, Ill. Print your name, address, zone, size, style number.

You can buy a 6 month's Auto Insurance policy at reduced rates from Haas Norland, 627 Pine St.

Bly Legion Auxiliary Meets

BLY - The Watts, Patzke and Griffin post and auxiliary No. 13, Bly, held a joint installation June 21 at the legion hall. Installing officer for the post was vice district commander, Harry Van, Klamath Falls, and Past District President Beatrice Getty, Lakeview. Installed the new auxiliary officers. Installed for the post were: Dale Smith, commander; Otis Osborne, post adjutant and finance officer; Wayne Smith, service officer; James Hall, chaplain; Virgil Berry, sergeant-at-arms. Installed for the unit were: Jaques Osborn, president; Ruth Hall, vice-president; Barbara Rentie, second president; Robbie House, secretary and treasurer; Eleanor Grimes, chaplain; Lauretta Smith, historian; Janet Ward, sergeant-at-arms.

A buffet lunch and refreshments were served. Eleanor and Perry Grimes wish to thank all the officers and members for their assistance during the past year and wish all the new officers the best of luck during the coming year.

KF Woman Visits Mountain Yearly

FORT KLAMATH - Visitor in Fort Klamath Wednesday, July 14, was Alice Hamilton, Klamath Falls, who went the previous Monday to Huckleberry Mountain, where she has set up a camp and intends to stay until fall, with occasional trips out to get necessary supplies. This is Mrs. Hamilton's 64th annual trip to Huckleberry mountain - she is now 71 years old, and has gone every year since she was seven. For the past ten years, her stays were somewhat curtailed, as she has been stationed during fire season as lookout atop Boudry Butte northeast of here, and could only go to her beloved mountain on her days off each week. This year, she was forced to quit her lookout job due to neuritis, and will be able to camp all summer.

On her visit here Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Hamilton was the bearer of good tidings to the lover of the luscious huckleberry, and for the information of those who have been inquiring recently as to crop conditions at the mountain this year, the bushes are loaded with fruit which should be ripening in mid-August, providing, of course,

TWIN SMILES FROM MICHAEL 5, and George 4, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dover, 146 Octavia Street. Michael's birthday is September 20 and George was four June 15. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schultz, Tulelake. —Photo by Floyd

FAREWELL LUNCHEON FOR MRS. JESSE LITWILLER

BONANZA - A farewell party was given at the Charles Roberts Sr. home on the evening of July 13 for Leon Roberts, who is leaving soon for the armed forces. Games were played and refreshments were served. Present were Leon, Charles, Ronald and Faye Roberts, Lois and that in the meantime, no hailstorms or unseasonal frosts occur to damage the berries. Mid-August is unusually early for huckleberries to be getting ripe, according to the veteran visitor to Huckleberry Mountain, who stated that it is very dry there this year, in comparison with other years.

Louise Hubble, Veda Rodgers, Nancy Givan, Wilma Hubble, Mary Anne Levitt, Ethel, Nancy, and Stella Perry, Ronald Ketchum, Cross Carl, Jim and Rex Porterfield, Gary Roberts, Joe Hoefler, Elwood Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hubble, Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin and daughter, Mrs. Ismael Dick, and Mrs. Charles Roberts.

People Do Read SPOT ADS - you are!

Advertisement for DANCE - Red Barn in Dorris, California. Features 'SAT.-NITE' dancing with Pee Wee Stidham and his Rainbow Melody Boys. Also mentions Jim Reeves and his Hayride Band performing on Wednesday, July 21st.

Advertisement for The Phalens at the Ponderosa Room of the Willard Hotel. Features Eddie Ricci and Lee Baron performing on Thursday, July 22nd.

Advertisement for Krysotalkote Album Prints Photofinishing, highlighting the 'CRYSTAL FINISH' and encouraging customers to receive their photoprints like this at their dealer.

Advertisement for PAINTING and PAPERHANGING services, calling Tim MacNann at phone 7-3852.

Advertisement for Air-Cooled Offices, located at Drews Manstore on Main Street.