Rabjohn-Shoff Rites In Klamath Lutheran

Gladol and greenery illumina- ted with lighted tapers were used to decorate the Klamath Lutheran Church, for the June 26th wedding of DeLoris Shoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shoff, Stanley, North Dakota; to Gilbert Rabjohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rabjohn, Nashville, Arkansas. The candlelight service was read by the Rev. John Reicher of Hope Lutheran Church, at 2:30 p.m., and the bride was given in marriage by her father. Mary Ann Munsa, organist, accompanied vocal soloist, June James. The bride's gown was of white slipper satin with lace inserts; and she wore a fingertip veil of illusion edged with lace. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid. Her maid of honor, Hope Holbrook, wore a princess styled gown of sheer maize nylon, ankle length, and carried a nosegay arrangement of pink rosebuds, carnations and daisies. Flower girl, little Kathy Migliaccio, was dressed exactly as the maid of honor. Ring bearer was Steven Skinner. Gracie Rabjohn served as best man; and Jerry Nack and J. L. Rabjohn, ushers, also served as candlelighters. Mrs. Shoff chose a pink linen suit with blue accessories for her daughter's wedding. Bridegroom's mother was not here for the wedding and the newlyweds spent part of their honeymoon trip with his parents in Nashville. The reception was at the F. A. Skinner residence, 1436 Crescent Avenue. Vera Stillier and Marion Skinner poured; Vera Migliaccio cut the cake; Marge Nack and Vera Jamison assisted. For travel the new Mrs. Rabjohn wore a beige silk and wool worsted suit with white accessories. Upon their return they will be at home, 418 North Eleventh Street in Klamath Falls.

MR. AND MRS. JERE JACK CHOATE . . . married June 25 in the Jackson Avenue Church of Christ in Memphis, Tennessee, the Rev. Ralph K. Price of Muncie, Indiana, officiant.

Bride is the former Eileen Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glade G. Hoover, Memphis. She attended Harding College in Arkansas for two years. Bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dale Choate, 142 Riverside Drive, this city; and he also was a student at Harding for two years. He recently finished his course in X-ray technology at OTI, leaving immediately after graduation for Memphis to be married. They are making their new home at Goodman house in the same city, where he is employed at the Baptist Memorial Hospital.

AT THE F. A. SKINNER residence, 1436 Crescent Avenue, where wedding guests were received, the "just-weds" take a little time from the reception to admire some of their gifts.

Peggy Book-John Kelleher Exchange Nuptial Vows In Garden Setting June 26th

In a colorful garden setting before an arbor decorated with pink carnations entwined with honeysuckle and greenery, Peggy Book, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Frank Book, 2526 Shasta Way, became the bride of John (Jack) Kelleher, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kelleher, Helena, Montana, Saturday, June 26. Scene of the wedding was in the beautiful back yard of the bride's aunt Mrs. James Brownfield, 2520 Westland Avenue. Scheduled for 2 p.m., the service was postponed until 2:30 due to the delayed arrival of her brother-in-law, Gordon Walters, who couldn't get clearance for his plane from the Walla Walla airport because of a low ceiling. Mrs. Walters, bride's sister, Phyllis, arrived a week before the wedding. The Rev. Robert Larsen of the First Congregational Church read the double-ring service in the presence of close friends and relatives; and Peggy was given in marriage by her father. Sylvia Book attended her sister as maid of honor; and brother of the bridegroom, Vincent Kelleher, Fort Lewis, was best man. The reception was also in the garden. Mrs. C. F. (Bud) Kelleher Jr., cut the tiered cake which was decorated with a circle of swans on the bottom layer, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Arthur Smith and Mrs. Gordon Walters presided over the coffee service and punch bowl. Bridegroom's mother, Mrs. C. F.

Kelleher Sr., brother Bud; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Johnson and Mrs. Henry Latsch all came from Helena for the occasion; and other brother, Vincent, from Fort Lewis. For her summer wedding Peggy wore a white two-piece dressmaker suit with white accessories and a large single purple-throated orchid at her shoulder. The couple left after the reception for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, and returned to pack for the 10th July 9, to Helena, where they will live. He will be with the Montana State Highway Department. She is a graduate of KUHL; and Jack attended OTI, studying office technology. PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER Among before - the - wedding parties honoring the bride, was a shower given by Mrs. Graham Berry at the home of Mrs. James Brownfield.
