Over 300 Witness Wedding of Erna Broyles to Robert Kriner

One of the last June Weddings was that of Erna Evelyn Broyles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Greydon Broyles, 2237 Gary Street; to Robert Lee Kriner Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Lee Kriner, Vale, Oregon; in Bible Baptist Church June 29.

The bride comes from a pioneer Basin family on the maternal side — she is the granddaughter of the late Lovla Lewis, who came here about 70 years ago; and the great-granddaughter of the late D. G. Brown, who also settled here about 70 years ago.

Three ministers participated in the ceremony — the Rev. Kriner, bridegroom's father, officiant, assisted by the bride's grandfather, the Rev. A. O. Broyles, and the Rev. K. P. Fields, former pastor of the Klamath Falls Church, now of Vale. In fact, it was noted that many in the wedding party were members of the two families. The bride's father and brother, Dick, sang, accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Sprague at the organ. Jewell Shannon played a violin solo.

Lighting the candles for the 8 p.m. service were Kathleen Broyles, sister of the bride; and Sandra Kriner, bridegroom's sister. Church decorations were pastel hued gladioli and chrysanthemums banded with fern.

In a white gown of lace satin and tulle, Erna was escorted down the aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage. The dress featured a lace over satin bodice, with scallop detail on the net yoke, small round lace collar, long lace sleeves with ruffle trim at the snug wrist.

The full skirt of satin with tulle overskirt had a bustle of tulle and lace, and a chapel train. A tiara of seed pearls held the fingertip veil of illusion; and she carried a small crescent arrangement of pale pink rosebuds.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Colleen Broyles. Her frock was of light blue net over taffeta; and she carried a heart-shaped bouquet of blue daisies tied with pink ribbons. Bridesmaids, Jewell Ann Larson and Marie Loban wore pink dresses identical in style to the maid of honor's, and carried pink bouquets with blue ribbons. Junior bridesmaid, also sister of the bride, wore light blue and carried a blue and pink bouquet in the same heart-shaped arrangement. All wore slippers to match their frocks.

Richard Howard was ring bearer, and flower girls were twin sisters, Jean and Joan Fields. They wore yellow net over tulle.

Ronny Kriner served his brother as best man; and Park Kriner (also brother), Bill Moak and bride's brother, Richard Broyles, ushered.

Mrs. Broyles chose a rose lace over taffeta dress for her daughter's wedding, and her corsage was of white carnations and yellow rosebuds.

The senior Mrs. Kriner wore a blue and white nylon ensemble and her corsage was of white carnations.

The more than 300 guests were received in Cassel Hall. Presiding at the punch bowl was bride's aunt, Mrs. Fred Lewis; Mrs. Mike Pozar, also aunt, cut the cake; another aunt, Mrs. Austin Lewis was at the gift table; and others assisting were Mrs. D. Rhoads, Eleanor Hurn, Peggy Shannon, LaVonne Yunk, Alice Waldo, Opal Fields played special music during the reception; Mrs. Harry Goeller was vocal soloist; the Rev. Keith P. Fields gave the bride and bridegroom a special message; and Mrs. Reuben Larson assisted as hostess. For going away, the new Mrs. Kriner wore a light green cashmere suit. They spent their honeymoon at Payette Lakes and McCall, Idaho.

Out-of-town guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Kriner and Ronny, Park and Sandra; the Rev. Keith P. Fields and family; the Rev. and Mrs. Richard (Dick) Madsen, LaGrande; Marie Loban, Carlton; Mrs. C. Leon Lewis, Mrs. Lowell Ager, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gregg and family, Madras; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, Alice Brown, Fort Klamath; Mrs. Carl Lyons and Mrs. Leona Cacha, Malin.

A WEDDING IN DORRIS... united Betty Jane Bonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Bonds; and Jerry Wayne Crutchfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Crutchfield, well known Butte Valley families. The wedding was June 11, in the Dorris Nazarene Church, with the Rev. James H. Peters, officiant; and was witnessed by over 100 relatives and friends. The couple's honeymoon was spent at various points of scenic interest in Oregon. —Photos by Guderian
