FISH CATCHES A FISH BRAINER, Minn.—Mike Strand, 9, tied his stringer with a small walleye and a crappie to a dock.

The next morning he found that a seven-pound, two ounce walleye had fastened itself to the string by swallowing the crappie.

Dawson City Lures Tourists

DAWSON, Yukon (AP)—This once-famous gold rush center is now almost a ghost town, but its 500 residents are striving to keep the place alive by luring tourists.

perous and the penniless trekked out together.

The home in 1898 of 40,000 gold-hungry prospectors, dance hall girls and bartenders, it now is a collection of sagging, decaying buildings.

A second crushing blow came when the Alaska highway bypassed the town, establishing rival Whitehorse, 470 Payer miles south, as the territory's trading center. Finally, the federal government stripped the dying city of its status as capital of the territory and moved the administration to Whitehorse.

The old Floradora Dance Hall, Nugget Saloon and Royal Alexandra Hotel lean precariously as if ready to fall. Dozens of other famous old honky-tonks, hotels and amusement places have disappeared.

The big Yukon Consolidated Mining Co. is still employing crews and to comb through the panned-out creeks with giant modern dredges and some old-time prospectors make a living by conducting guided tours of the ruins.

Do FALSE TEETH Rock, Slide or Slip?

FASTEETH, an improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth more firmly in place. Do not slide, slip or rock. No gummy, goopy, pasty taste or feeling. FASTEETH is alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "white odor" (stenure breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

All steamboats coming down the Yukon River from Whitehorse this year will be greeted by quaintly costumed pioneers and their ladies. The Nugget Saloon, threadbare and torn, will rock again to the sound of big money gambling (with play money sold at the rate of $10,000 for a dollar) and hard drinking (of soft drinks at 25 cents a bottle).

But the colorful days Robert Service wrote about in verse will never be seen again in Dawson.

PA-PURRS! All about the hot weather! These three young business women hold their own, on their Herald and News beats downtown. It's an everyday job, come rain or shine during vacation from school. Right to left, Marilyn Miller, little daughter of Maurice Miller, circulation manager of the H & N, earns a few nickels while visiting her father. Mary Knapp and Alice Brown are "old hands."

SHARP-TAILED GROUSE, noted for their elaborate dances in the spring, are coming back to Oregon. Four were spotted this spring in the lower Powder River Valley east of Baker. This one is dancing vigorously to woo a lady grouse. These birds once were plentiful, but they disappeared several years ago. They like undisturbed land, and move out when the farmers move in.

Liquor Program Comments Urged
PORTLAND (AP)—Candidates for the State Legislature have been asked to comment on the Oregon Licensed Beverage Assn. legislative program, a spokesman for the organization said Sunday.

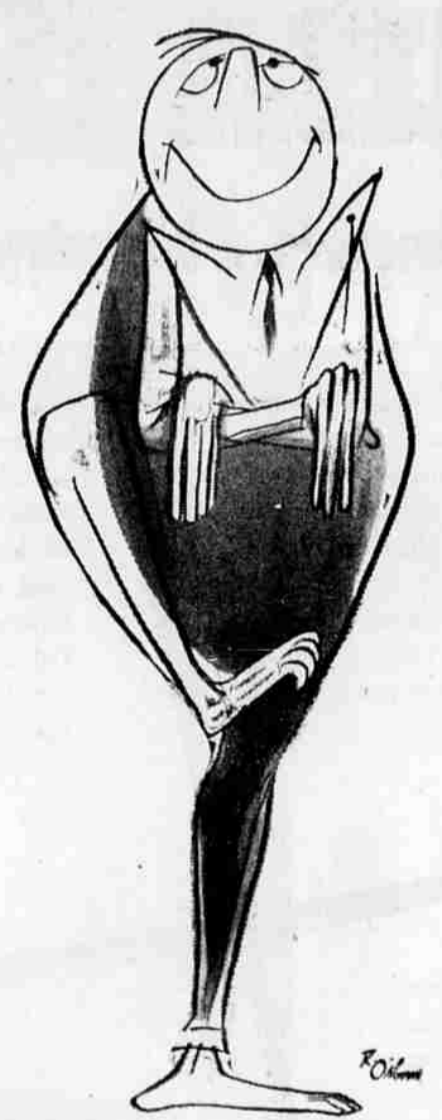

The program calls for: The unrestricted right to appeal decisions of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission to circuit courts; hiring a paid liquor commissioner to replace the present three-member, unpaid commission; issuance by the state of identification cards as proof of age; revision of state law to exclude non-profit clubs from the population limitation now set on the number of licenses granted in a community; and a trade discount on liquor purchased for resale by the drink.

THE STANDING PAT

has one leg to stand on—and figures that's enough!

The STANDING PAT is a manufacturer who begins things vigorously. That's all. Begins. He never finishes a race because his getaway looks good enough. And he won't dance the two-step because the one-step seems plenty. He uses a burst of newspaper advertising to introduce a product—then sits back complacently while his sales slow down to a walk. Fortunately, the STANDING PAT is a rare creature.

Most wise manufacturers who gain one success realize that continued use of newspapers will produce more of the same. Which is why newspaper advertising, a local power, has become a national habit among national advertisers. No wonder national advertising in newspapers showed a 12.8% gain over the year before! All business is local... and so are all newspapers!
