

Yankee-White Sox Series Could Be Decider

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The next 10 days can go a long way in deciding the American League pennant chances of the Chicago White Sox.

During that spell the Sox face the New York Yankees seven times, starting tonight in Yankee Stadium. The Yankees trail first-place Cleveland by half a game. The White Sox are another four lengths back.

It's going to be a long hard road for Paul Richards' Go-Go Boys, but their four-game sweep over the Indians just before the All-Star break convinced a lot of fans the Sox still are a big threat.

The Yankees are the big stumbling block. In 12 meetings so far the White Sox have come out on the short end eight times. Against every other team, including Cleveland, Chicago holds a winning edge.

SANDWICHED
Sandwiched in between the home-and-home series with Chicago, the Yankees meet Cleveland in a three-game set in New York over the weekend.

It could turn out that the recently revived Boston Red Sox will hold the immediate key to the first-place scramble. While the White Sox are playing the Yankees, the Indians will be meeting Boston. And when Cleveland switches to New York, Chicago goes to Boston.

The Indians and Yankees both won yesterday. Chicago had the day off. Cleveland defeated Washington, 4-3. New York whipped Detroit, 8-0. Boston won a pair from Baltimore 9-7 and 8-5.

In the National League, Harry Perkowski of Cincinnati pitched a 12-inning, three-hit shutout over the league-leading New York Giants, winning 1-0 on Hobbie Landrith's home run. Second-place Brooklyn also lost, 9-4 to Chicago. St. Louis beat Philadelphia 5-1 and Milwaukee defeated Pittsburgh 4-1.

The big thriller was in Cincinnati. Perkowski, a left-hander who had lost seven out of eight decisions this year, pitched brilliantly against the Giants. He walked five, struck out six two of them in the 12th inning, and was in danger of being scored upon only in the seventh when Monte Irvin led off with a double against the scoreboard. Irvin, however, was picked off second. Whitey Lockman doubled with two out in the second. Al Dark beat out an infield single in the 11th.

POOR FIELDING
Brooklyn put on one of its worst fielding performances of the season, committing five errors, in losing to the Cubs for the first time in 10 games.

Peace and quiet reigned at Busch Stadium in St. Louis, scene of Sunday's riot, as the Cardinals whipped the Phillies. Rookie Brooks Lawrence scattered 10 hits in winning his fifth game since joining the Redbirds less than a month ago.

In Milwaukee, Jim Wilson continued to defy the jinx that's supposed to dog no-hit pitchers, as he won his seventh straight game. He limited the Pirates to three hits. Allie Reynolds, back in action after a hip injury, stopped Detroit on three hits for his 10th in a row after losing his first decision. The Yankee attacked included Willie Miranda's second major league home run and Mickey Mantle's 19th homer of the season.

Cleveland had to struggle against the Senators. Manager Al Lopez employed three pitchers to check a Washington threat in the ninth. Dale Mitchell's pinch single in the seventh drove in the winning run. Home runs accounted for both Boston triumphs over Baltimore. In the first game Mickey Vernon Owen clinched a six-run rally in the ninth with a grand-slam drive. In the nightcap the Sox came from behind with five homers. Jackie Jensen hit a pair and Ted Williams, Milt Bolling and Jim Pier-sall hit one each.

San Diego In PCL Win Skein

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Diego has racked up its eighth straight series victory, with Portland the victim but still four full games behind the Hollywood Stars, pace-setters in the Pacific Coast League race.

Luke Easter, former Cleveland first sacker who really got his start with San Diego, hammered in two of the Padres' runs with a homer in the fifth inning Monday night as manager Lefty O'Doul's club whipped Portland, 5-1.

The win gave San Diego the series, three games to two. Easter's wallop carried 375 feet over the high-centerfield fence. It was his second in as many days. Portland's only run came in the eighth as Frankie Austin doubled and scored on two infield outs.

Sacramento outslugged Seattle, 14 hits to 12, but Seattle won the ball game, nevertheless, 8-7. It was the third straight win for the Rainiers and Van Fletcher, who came on the mound in the seventh, was the winner, Bud Daley, who relieved for Sacramento in the seventh, was charged with the loss.

Combining three singles and two walks for a 4-0 lead in the first inning, the Rainiers sent Sacramento starter Al Cicotte to the showers. After singletons in the second and third, Sacramento got four in the sixth inning and chased Lonnie Myers and Bill Evans, who had relieved Myers.

Seattle scored three runs in its half of the sixth. Daley took over from Milo Gandini, who had succeeded Cicotte. Sacramento's single score tied it up in the seventh and Seattle's third hurler, Vern Kindsvater, was replaced by Fletcher. The Rainiers' winning tally came in the last of the seventh.

Ed Wolfe pitched Hollywood to a 9-4 victory over Oakland. San Francisco blanked Los Angeles, 4-0, as Bill Bradford and Adrian Zabala held the Angels to six hits.

Graham Drops Decision

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — "When you get licked by a potato like that, it makes you think about quitting," Billy Graham, admitting he will be 33 at his next birthday in September, was a thoroughly disgusted man as he sat in his ring tocs last night after losing a split decision to Danish Chris Christensen.

"When a guy like this hits you, it makes you wonder what's wrong," he said. "You ask yourself, 'Why don't you counter?' Right now I feel let down. I thought I won the fight 6-4 but I am disgusted."

"I'll know in a few days about fighting again. After I sit down and have a talk with Irving (Irving Cohen, his manager)."

Graham looked rusty in his second fight in seven months. He was slow and missed often against the faster Dane, who kept pouring leather at him through the 10 rounds at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway. Christensen showed no solid power with his flailing punches, often resorting to a backhand right, but he was too quick and too busy for the New Yorker, who came within a whisker of winning Kid Gavilan's welter title back in 1951.

Referee Teddy Martin voted for Christensen 5-4-1 and Judge Dave Stewart, 6-3-1. The other judge, Bert Grant, scored it for Graham 5-4-1.

Graham weighed 150, Christensen, 148.

Al Andrews, who won a unanimous decision from Saaveur Chioeca of Corsica in the feature 10 at St. Nicholas Arena, headed back for his home town, Superior, Wis., for a vacation.

"He's tough to fight," said Andrews, who weighed 153 to Chioeca's 146. "He can lie you up on the inside and he throws a pretty good punch. I'd like to fight in Superior, but until I get someone to fight there, I'll do some roadwork and box with the amateurs."

Irv Noren Increases Batting Lead
NEW YORK (AP) — Irv Noren of the New York Yankees has increased his American League batting lead to sizable proportions and holds a 19-point margin over runner-up Bobby Avila of Cleveland.

Noren, a left-handed hitting outfielder in his fifth major league campaign, gained 16 points on an 11-for-22 performance last week. He's hitting .369 to Avila's .341. Bobby's mark remained the same as he produced nine hits in 26 at bats.

Minnie Minoos of the Chicago White Sox moved into third place at .322 with a nine point climb. Minoos, who leads the circuit in runs batted in with 72, had nine safeties in 20 trips.

In the National League, Brooklyn's Duke Snider dropped six points to .361, but he held onto the top spot as his closest competitors, Don Mueller of the Giants and Cincinnati's Gus Bell, also lost ground.

Miranda Might Hold Key To Yank Pennant
NEW YORK (AP) — Guillermo (Willie) Miranda walked gingerly from the shower and laughed as he headed for his locker in the New York Yankee dressing room.

"See," he said grinning, "you hit a home run and everybody waits to talk to you. There are more guys around here now than there have been all season."

This was yesterday, some minutes after the Yankees had blanked the Detroit Tigers 8-0 on Allie Reynolds' three-hitter. Two of the runs came off Miranda's first homer of the year and the second of his major league career.

"They all were kidding me in the dugout after I hit that one," he said. "They said, 'Are you weak or something. Why can't you hit it into the upper deck.'"

Actually, the blow was a solid one, traveling on a line about 350 feet into the lower left field seats. Willie, a switch-hitter, who resides in Havana and plays for Alameda in the Cuban League during the winter, has a lifetime big league batting average of .322.

Except for one start in the June 1 game against Boston, the 27-year-old Miranda has been used solely as a late-inning defensive replacement for shortstop Phil Rizzuto. That was until the first game of Sunday's double-header against Detroit when Manager Casey Stengel decided to give Rizzuto a much-needed rest.

Giles To Review Riot Case In S.L.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — National League President Warren Giles holds court here today on a free-for-all between the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies Sunday in a game the umpires forfeited to the Phils.

Giles arrived in town yesterday from Cincinnati but quickly made himself unavailable for comment. Giles suspended Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky, catcher Sal Yarns and pitcher Ellis (Cot) Deal of the Birds and first baseman Earl Torgesen of the Phils pending the hearing. He took no action against Phil Manager Terry Moore, who also was involved in the ruckus.

Coach Johnny Riddle directed the Cards as they defeated the Phils 5-1 last night in a game as quiet and orderly as the second game of the double-header Sunday was riotous.

Presumably the circumstances leading to the forfeiture of the game, as well as the fight, will be considered at the hearing. Giles notified the Cardinals of his action in a telegram yesterday after Redbird General Manager Dick Meyer asked the league president to come here for an on-the-spot investigation.

To be on hand for the hearing, Giles said, are Managers Stanky and Moore, their coaches, not more than three other representatives of each club, Yarns, Deal and Torgesen and the umpires.

The brawl started after Torgesen objected to close pitches by Deal and then got into a fight with Yarns. The two managers, enemies since Stanky fired Moore as a

The Northern California League will get back into action this Sunday after taking a week off for the annual league all-star game, which the North won by a 19-9 score last Sunday at Fort Jones.
