Robinson Back In Old Type Role

By HUBBARD KEAVY
 (For Bob Thomas)
 HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Here we are again, Edward G. Robinson and I, where we started 25 years ago. He is playing a gangster and I am writing about glamor, gangsters and girls.
 "This is some coincidence, eh?" said Edward G. "We've been here about the same number of years and here you are, temporarily back on your old beat while I am temporarily back to my old racket—I mean, line."
 Edward G. says he feels the same as he did so many years ago when I assure him I am as spry as when I began this dodge. But we look at each other a little critically, and he sees my hair is thinning and I see his is too. But I am not wearing a scalp dolly because no one cares how I look except my wife and she is getting used to me.
 I will remember the filming of "Little Caesar," in 1931 (it was released in '30) because it was one of the most exciting sets to visit. Edward G. played the role to the hilt and was a pleasure to watch; and a set where there's gunfire always is interesting. That gangster film set the pace, made Edward G. a star and, for its producers, millions. But, being released now, in company with 1931's "Public Enemy," it will make even more millions than it did originally.
 Robinson tried to analyze the success of "Little Caesar."
 "That guy wanted to get ahead and he did it in his way," he said. "We all want to get ahead. Even though we despise his methods, we secretly applaud his desires. There's a little of Little Caesar in all of us—the urge to be big shots."
 This reunion of small significance has to be interrupted frequently by a director's demands. Robinson gets paid $60,000 per picture, I hear for acting so he must go into his jeer and talk out of the side of his mouth on order. In this one, called "Black Tuesday," he is a gangster about to die in the chair. He escapes and continues his killings. It is brutal stuff.

Vets' Home Loans Shown

SALEM (AP)—Veterans of World War II and Korea have borrowed 60 million dollars to acquire homes and farms in Oregon, the State Department of Veterans Affairs announced Tuesday.
 The loans have been made to 12,877 veterans. The loan program has been in effect since 1945.
 A new record was set in the year ended June 30, with 2,655 veterans borrowing $17,054,550. That is more than twice the previous high, established in the 1949-50 fiscal year.
 Of the 60 millions loaned, more than 16 millions in principal and 4 millions in interest has been repaid.
 The department has issued 53 millions in bonds to finance the loans. The maximum loans are $15,000 for farms and $9,000 for homes.

Church Women Plan Dinner

FORT KLAMATH — The annual church dinner of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church given by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will be held Saturday evening July 24. Only members of the society will be asked to contribute or help this year but any donations will be welcome.
 Serving will begin at 6 p.m. and continue until all are served. A choice of baked ham or roast beef, with all the accompanying good things will be included on the menu. The dinner will be served family style for the first time. Charges are $1.25 for adults and .75 for children, the proceeds to go into the society treasury.
 General chairman is Mrs. Ira F. Orem, with Mrs. Ray Loosley, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and Mrs. Stewart Nicholson assisting.

Anti-Red Agents Said Captured

TOKYO (AP)—Peiping radio said today nine Chinese Nationalist agents had been killed or captured when they tried to slip ashore to Sammen Bay on the east China coast.
 A broadcast heard here said the agents, "who landed from the sea, were equipped with rifles, pistols and radio sets."

Explosion Cause Of Job Loss

CHESTERTOWN, Md. (AP)—The main industry of this town of 2,000, shattered by a series of powder blasts last Friday, is dead.
 Eleven were killed and more than 40 injured. Now survivors among the Kent Manufacturing Co.'s 300 employes face unemployment.
 Philip G. Wilmer, company president, said yesterday: "There will be no operations in Kent County."

Test Of Foreign Aid Plan Asked

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee said yesterday he is going to test legality of the federal government's foreign aid program by bringing action before the U.S. Supreme Court.
 He asked the Utah attorney general to find what legal steps a citizen or a public official must take to prove that "it is a violation of our U.S. Constitution when our government gives our hard-earned money to foreign nations."

Police Arrest Young Robbers

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexican police have arrested the leader of a widely sought gang of robbers. He is 12 years old.
 The boy, Carlos Vaznet Reyes, confessed to leading a ring which has been burglarizing jewelry and other valuable articles from homes, police said.
 The young gangster refused to name his accomplices, saying, "I am the leader and I will not squeal on them."

Increased Social Security Benefits To Be Voted On

WASHINGTON (AP)—An increase of at least $5 a month in all social security payments moved a step nearer reality today as the result of Senate Finance Committee approval of the administration's big social security bill.
 Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) of the committee said the measure probably will be called up on the floor next week.
 Leaders in both parties said Congress would never adjourn without putting the increased benefits on the statute books.
 The Finance Committee, in okaying the bill unanimously late yesterday, approved not only bigger benefits but also more taxes to finance them and extension of coverage to nearly seven million additional persons.
 President Eisenhower would achieve under the Senate version almost exactly what he asked on benefits and taxes, but not on broadening coverage. He had suggested bringing 10 1/2 million more persons under the system. The bill as passed by the House came closer to meeting administration views on that score.

 Here are the main features of the bill as it comes to the Senate floor:
 Benefits — A minimum boost of $5 a month in all present and future checks. The five million aged now on the rolls would get an average $6 raise; the new average payment would be about $57 a month. The increases would begin in September or October. Future payments would go up as much as $35 a month.
 Taxes — The annual amount of wages subject to the present 2 percent levy each on employers and employees would go from $3,600 to $4,200, effective next Jan. 1. Thus the tax for anyone making $4,200 or more would be $84 next year as against $72 in 1954.

Coverage—Includes on a voluntary basis about 3 1/2 million state and local government workers and 260,000 ministers, and on a compulsory basis 2,600,000 additional farm hands, 250,000 domestic workers, 100,000 industrial home workers and 50,000 persons in the fishing industry.
 The Senate committee voted to eliminate coverage for 3,600,000 farm operators, 500,000 professional people and 150,000 federal government workers, all of whom the President asked be brought under the program.
 All these were included in the House bill except 150,000 doctors among the professionals. On the other hand, the Finance Committee approved coverage for the group of farm hands asked by the administration, while the House voted to bring in only 1,300,000 more.
