Recognition Of Red China; New Korean Talks Urged

MOSCOW (U.P.) — Pravda called today for new Korean negotiations and U.N. membership for Communist China as a follow-up to the Geneva agreement on Indochina.

The Soviet Communist party organ hailed the Indochina settlement as a great Communist victory and declared that Geneva had exposed the "bankruptcy" of American foreign policy.

The paper said in a three-column front-page editorial that "the U.S. delegation prevented" a peaceful solution in the earlier Geneva talks by reuniting Korea but public opinion "demands the governments concerned continue their efforts to revive the discussion."

As a result of Geneva, Pravda said, "it is now clear to all how bankrupt are attempts by American diplomacy to prevent the Chinese people from entering the international arena and taking the place due them among the great powers."

"The peoples demand that China should take its lawful place in the United Nations," the paper declared, "and it will take it however much certain thick-skulled American politicians, bound by material interest to Chiang Kai-shek, fight against it. If this does not take place, the United Nations will be unable to fulfill the tasks assigned it by its charter."

(The United States opposes admission of Red China to the U.N.)

on the ground it has never abandoned its role of the aggressor in Korea. The Western Allies broke off the Korean phase of the Geneva conference June 15 after the Communists refused to agree to U.N.-supervised elections to reunite the divided peninsula.)

Pravda's editorial was chiefly a blast at the United States. It mentioned Britain and France only briefly.

The editorial said the Geneva agreement banning foreign military bases in Viet Nam "deals a blow to the plans of American aggressive circles, which were counting on the inclusion of South Viet Nam plus Laos and Cambodia in an aggressive pact and creation there of military bases directed against the countries of the Democratic camp."

The paper claimed the United States was defeated in efforts to block future elections in Viet Nam and to prevent the inclusion of Poland among the truce supervisors.

"The collapse of attempts by U.S. ruling circles to impose their will on other countries is now clear," the newspaper asserted.

Pravda's demand that East-West negotiations on Korea be reopened echoed statements at the Geneva conference's closing session yesterday by Red China's Premier Chou En-lai and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Farm Field Day Planned

Field day on the Klamath Experimental Station will be held Monday July 26, starting at 1:30 p.m., according to A. E. (Gene) Gross, superintendent.

First on the tour of the experimental plots will be those on the main station, west of the Klamath Airport. Here will be shown experimental work on grasses and legumes in pasture mixtures, in hay trials and in observational tests. Crop rotation studies will be a part of this tour. Continuing experiments on alkali reclamation and new soil moisture studies will also be shown.

Later in the afternoon the tour will move to the muck soil experimental area near Warden where minor element and other fertilizer responses on peat soils will be observed. Here also will be shown additional experiments with grasses and legumes: cereal variety trials, sugar beets and peppermint.

Farmers and other interested persons are extended a cordial invitation to attend, Gross stated.
