

Pastor Plans New Services

The Rev. N. A. Winegard, interim pastor of Bible Baptist Church, has announced plans for a special feature at each Sunday evening service July 23 through August 15.

July 23 will be children's night. Special musical numbers will be presented by David Cassel, Patty Broyles and Levah Carter.

Children will be in charge of ushering. There will be Scripture reading, prayer and testimonies from several of the 20 campers who recently returned from the Rogue Union Baptist Bible Camp.

In keeping with the other special features of the evening, the pastor will speak on the subject, "Children of God."

August 1 is designated youth night. Youth of the church, directed by Ronald Robbins, will take charge of the entire program.

This program will include special musical selections and testimonies from some of the 30 who have returned from Youth Camp.

The pastor's sermon topic is "Meet My Friends," a unique portrayal of spiritual lessons from Werren Sallman's painting, "Christ at the Heart's Door."

August 8, women's night, will be under the supervision of Mrs. Carl Ewing.

Women will direct the entire service. The pastor will speak on "Women of God's Word."

Men's night will follow on August 15. Jerry Rhoads will be pianist; a special songleader, a male quartet and men's chorus are being arranged.

The sermon topic is "God's Tested Men."

Everyone is invited to attend each of these hour-length services, held at 7:30 p.m. each Sunday at the church, 2244 Ward.

Lakeview Ram Sale Planned

LAKEVIEW — The annual ram sale will be held here Monday, September 13, according to W. L. Lehmann Jr., president of the Fremont Sheepmen Association.

Col. Earl O. Walter, Filer, Idaho, will serve as auctioneer for the 14th consecutive sale here.

A large supply of reliable rams is offered this year to serve sheepmen in Southern Oregon, Northern Nevada and Northern California. More than 250 head of Ramboulets, Columbias, Panamas, Suffolks, Hampshires and Corriedales are consigned. Quality and convenience are the reasons Fremont Sheepmen sponsor the sale and support it, according to Lehmann.

Gun Club Plans Seed Harvest

The annual bitterbrush seed harvest will be held Saturday and Sunday, sponsored by the Mount Shasta Rod and Gun Club. The Klamath-Moore chapter of the Izak Walton League is cooperating in the harvest.

Approximately 200 Boy Scouts from the area are expected to participate in gathering the seed. A good turnout will insure an ample supply of seed for planting for the winter deer range.

After it is gathered, the seed is frozen and processed for planting later in the season, according to C. A. Wheeler, of Mount Shasta.

The seed harvest will be conducted just off Highway 97 near the Southern Pacific Andeate siding. Signs will be placed to mark the location.

BIG NIGHT — Princess Margaret came home with the milkmen and the chaps gave her a cheer Thursday morning after an all-night dance at the Savoy. It was just after 5 a.m. when the fun-loving princess called it quits at Lord Hambleton's gala. She had wound up the all-night do by dancing the Charleston.

Pennies Used To Pay for Marriage

BISBEE, Ariz. — For four years Joseph S. Santi saved his pennies. "This," he told Lydia Mae Lawson, holding a cloth bag crammed with coins, "will pay for our marriage license and the judge's fee."

The couple yesterday handed the 1,500 pennies to Superior Court Judge Frank Thomas. He kept 200 for the license, married Joseph and Lydia and handed back the rest as a wedding present.

Sunday School Study Planned

The Southern Baptist churches of the Klamath Basin will participate in a week of Sunday School study July 25 to 30. Meetings will be held each day beginning at 7 p.m. at First Baptist Church, Klamath Falls.

Classes will be offered for every department of a Baptist Sunday School; for boys and girls of the Training Unions there will be classes according to the ages.

Provision is made for all members of families, and a nursery will be provided every evening.

Churches represented are Dorris First Baptist, Calvary, Altamont and Stewart-Lennox Baptist, Tulelake First Baptist and First Baptist Church of Klamath Falls.

Efficient teachers have been provided for 11 classes. Teachers are from all the participating churches.

The Rev. Grady Estes, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, is moderator of the association; B. K.

Robinson is director of Sunday School work.

Church Observes Anniversary

Today, July 23, marks the 30th anniversary of the organization of Malin Community Presbyterian Church.

The occasion will be observed with a picnic this evening on the church lawn, to which all members and friends of the church are invited.

Sunday, July 25, at the regular morning service, the anniversary will be more formally observed.

Anyone who was a member during the early days of the church is urgently requested to be present at this service. Charter members will be given a special place in the sanctuary and suitable recognition.

All members and friends of the church are requested to help celebrate this important date.

The Rev. Carl C. DeMott is the present pastor.
