DISTRICT NEWS

The executive board of the Klamath District of Garden Clubs met Wednesday, July 21, at the home of Mrs. Scott McKendree, 1893 Del Moro, to lay plans for the fall meeting.

The Tulalake Garden Club will be hostess for the meeting, scheduled for September 21. Emphasis will be placed on birds of the Klamath Basin; speaker will be announced.

The following district chairmen were appointed: awards and scholarship, Mrs. Will Wood, Klamath Falls Garden Club; birds and wildflowers, Mrs. Noah Nyhart, Mt. Laki; conservation, Mrs. Chester Main, Tulalake.

Flower show judges, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Lost River; flower show school, Mrs. Scott McKendree, Lost River; horticulture, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Bonanza-Langell Valley; junior garden clubs, Mrs. Joe Schuh, Evergreen.

Program, Mrs. I. W. White, Mt. Laki; roadside, Mrs. B. C. Johnson, Northside; slides, Mrs. J. A. Overton, Juniper Branch of Evergreen; visiting gardens, Mrs. Crystal Cheyne, Mt. Laki.

Not present at the dessert-luncheon but appointed to chairmanships were: publicity, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Lost River; corsages,

Movie Starlet Has Trouble Finding Room For Wardrobe

By HUBBARD KEAVY
(For BOB THOMAS)

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—If you, young lady, were in Debbie Reynolds' shoes (any of her 142 pairs), you would have to have scads of closets, too. You would keep them in closets too small, in boxes under all of the beds in your tiny house and in the garage made into a guest room.

You would have four very formal gowns and at least 35 short-formals. You would wear your formal once a year, because as a movie starlet you couldn't let your admirers down by wearing the same outfit too often.

You'd wear a size five dress, but if you couldn't find five, you'd buy seven and have your mother alter them. You'd watch for sales and buy in quantity. For instance, the other day you would have bought 20 pairs of shoes (sizes 4 and 4½) because they were on sale. You'd have taken only 45 minutes for this sizeable purchase.

If you were Debbie you'd have "oh, a whole mess of cocktail dresses and suits—maybe 15 in all." And you'd remember what you wore each time you went out with Eddie Fisher, because if you were Debbie you'd be dating Eddie.

You'd have drawers full of slacks and pedal pushers, of shorts and T-shirts, boxes of sweaters (some not yet out of their factory wrappings) and a dozen swimming suits. "Funny thing," you'd say if you were this girl, "when I couldn't afford this stuff, I always had one faded one. Now that I can afford them, people give them to me."

In your wardrobe also would be 30 skirts and, I know because I counted them for you, 45 blouses. And an uncounted number of winter suits and jersey blouses which I couldn't count because they were in the cedar chest I was sitting on in Debbie's bedroom.

You wouldn't have too many furs because you don't like them too well. The demands of the business would require two: "a beaver coat for winter and a platinum mink stole are all I have." You'd have two dressy evening sweaters, both in white, one trimmed in white mink and one in gold leaf.

All of your $750 weekly salary wouldn't be spent on clothes, if you were Debbie. Only a very small portion of it, actually, because your mother would make more than half your dresses. And you'd keep on wearing things for years and years because your height and weight would stay the same.

Jewelry would be unimportant; a few pieces of costume jewelry. That's all that would be in your jewel box except an even dozen fraternity pins (no two alike) but "they're not jewelry—heck, they're—well, you know how fellas are."

You'd choose simple things in gay, happy colors. You wouldn't want stuff that is too frilly "because men don't like girls like me to be TOO feminine, do they? What I mean is, skip the txy-poo."

(I know about this interpretive writing, boss, but I'm a square—can't dig that txy-poo.)

Old Schoolmates Hold Reunion

Three long-time friends and schoolmates, Mrs. Abigail Ellwood, Visalia, California, Mrs. Pearl de Brauwere, Miami, Florida and their hostess, Mrs. Evelyn Waldron, postmaster at Oretch, are renewing friendships this week. Also a guest is Mrs. Mamie Boyd, Denver, aunt of Mrs. Ellwood, a teacher in the Visalia schools.

Mrs. Ellwood, Mrs. de Brauwere and Mrs. Waldron were born in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, started to the same school together, continued through grade and high school together and have since corresponded.

This is the first time the three have been together since 1915 when they graduated from high school.

Mrs. Ellwood and Mrs. Boyd will leave this week for Visalia and later Denver. Mrs. de Brauwere will spend the remainder of the summer at Oretch before going to Seattle enroute home.

You haven't got that much?

Too bad. Then they may attach your property—or even your income for years to come.

People sue for more, these days. That's true in case of automobile injuries and deaths, and for other accidents for which you may be liable.

But the comforting thing is, it costs surprisingly little to carry an America Fore policy to protect yourself against loss from damage suits. And it costs only a little more to cover yourself PLENTY while you're at it.

This is serious. Check with us on the cost of carrying liability limits high enough to give you COMPLETE protection.

Beginners' Swim Classes Started

Registrations are complete for beginners' swimming classes for the season starting Monday, July 26, according to Bob Honney, city park and recreation director.

There is still room for more in the intermediate swimming and life saving classes commencing on that date.

Beginners may register now for the class sessions starting August 9.
