

THE PRESENT POSTOFFICE was dedicated in October of 1931 when this picture was taken showing the crowd that turned out. The band was on hand, and so was Captain Applegate. The address was given by Bert Hall, shown here looking up at the flag as it was being raised. John McCall was postmaster.

FORT ROCK

The Fort Rock Grange youth committee met at the grange hall Friday evening July 17, for a business meeting. They decided to purchase a volley ball set for both indoor and outdoor use.

The benefit dance for the Mattis family Saturday July 17, at the grange hall was well attended. Mrs. Maurice Ward, Teresa and Marilyn and Mrs. Buster Baughn returned home Thursday, July 15, from a weeks visit in Corvallis where they visited with the F. A. Jones family.

A fire was averted at Fort Rock Sunday morning, July 18, in the shop of Burton Brown where work was being done on a diesel log truck. A welding spark ignited a tub of gas which was being used to wash parts. Fred Wright was slightly burned on the face and arm when he tried to extinguish the blaze. Maurice Ward, Burton Brown and Andy Herzert assisted and there was very little damage. Fred extinguished the blaze with a new can of pyrene which he had purchased the day before. Had the fire taken hold it could have wiped out the town of Fort Rock as there was a strong south wind blowing at the time.

Mrs. Nick Klerk was a visitor at the Fort Rock Bible school Wednesday afternoon and treated the children to candy from Holland. She also showed some Dutch dolls and pictures from Holland. Her visit was very timely as the children are studying about the children from other parts of the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shaver, Bend, visited Saturday, July 17, with Mr. and Mrs. Chub Frazee and their son Sam who is spending the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mattis wish to thank everyone for their assistance, particularly the ladies who helped clean up the little cabin that was moved to Windmill by neighbors. The ladies scrubbed, painted and wallpapered the cabin.

The Fort Rock store and post office is being remodeled. The Herzerts have also installed an air conditioned vegetable bin. The store will be closed Sundays after 6 p.m. until further notice.

Ralph Webber spent the weekend of July 17-18 visiting with his daughter Beverly and family Mr. and Mrs. Jim Warren, Reno. Beverly is improving from her attack of polio and is allowed to go home evenings and returns each day for therapy treatments on her legs.
