

Local Golf Club Names Pro To Replace Schneider

Clark Good has been hired by Reames Golf and Country Club to be the club's new pro, replacing Earl Schneider, who resigned July 1 to take another golfing position in California.

Good has been assistant pro at the Eugene Country Club for the past four years under Wendell Woods, and has built quite a reputation for himself in the junior golf program at the Eugene course.

The new pro is married and has two boys, age three and seven, both of whom are destined to be outstanding golfers like their father.

Good started golf as a caddy in his freshman year in high school at Eugene, where he gradually worked into a position with the country club before entering the service.

He served in the United States Army and then was transferred to the Air Force where he became a first lieutenant before being discharged.

Out of 27 entries in the Oregon State Junior Golf Tournament last June in Portland, nine of Good's golfers brought home trophies from the statewide meet.

A lesson program will be planned out in the very near future according to Good, who also handled a great deal of instruction at the Eugene course before coming to Klamath Falls.

Adult instruction as well as young golfer's lessons will be given, according to the club's new pro.

Schneider resigned to take a partnership in the Colma Driving Range, just north of San Francisco, after serving as the club pro for Reames for a period of four years.

TAKING OVER the job of club pro at Reames Golf and Country Club is Clark Good. Good has been assistant pro at the Eugene Country Club for the past four years and comes to Klamath with a very good reputation from his accomplishments in junior golf work at the Eugene course.

Harbert, Burkemo Finalists

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Chick Harbert and Wally Burkemo, two golfers who thrive on the kind of competition where you face the other fellow and try to beat him down, meet today in the final match of what may be the best postwar era.

It is the second man-to-man clash between these two, who live and work scarcely 10 miles apart in suburban Detroit.

In yesterday's grueling 36-hole semifinals, Burkemo, the defending champion, almost crushed Chick Harbert with one brief string of birdie shooting, let him get away and then came back to win on the 37th. Harbert, twice runner-up but never a winner in this tournament, had to go clear to the 36th green to down Tommy Bolt, 1 up.

Burkemo and Harbert clashed in the second round of the 1951 PGA at Oakmont, and the blonde, bright blue-eyed Burkemo won on the 19th hole. That was when Wally, playing his first championship, went all the way to the final before he took a 7 and 6 drubbing from Sam Snead.

That admirable strategy didn't work. Bolt matched the pars for seven holes, then, when it was a case of win or quit, he sank an almost unbelievable 48-foot putt—a birdie on the 35th. Both hit the final green in two shots and Harbert, the pressure now on him, ended the match by ramming a 12-footer into the cup.

Burkemo, starting the afternoon round, went from 1 down at the 20th to 3 up at the 25th by shooting birdies on four of five holes. But after the 30th he seemed to be tiring.

When Middlecoff rammed an approach stiff on the 36th green the match was square.

On the extra hole, however, Burkemo, outdriven by some 30 yards, laid his approach within nine inches of the cup for a sure birdie. Middlecoff couldn't match that.

GOLF

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Defending Champion Wally Burkemo beat former open champion Cary Middlecoff on the 37th hole of their overtime semifinal match and Chick Harbert turned in a 1-up victory over Tommy Bolt to gain the final of the PGA championship.

INDIANAPOLIS — Pat Lester of Seattle broke the qualifying record for the 54-year-old Women's Western Tournament with a 3-under-par 72.

RACING

CHICAGO — The Illinois Racing Board suspended jockey Eddie Arcaro for 10 days for "rough riding" aboard Royal Note in Saturday's Arlington Futurity.

CHICAGO — Black Main ($9.20) won the Delores Purse at Arlington Park.

NEW YORK — Count Flame ($11.30) captured the Kingsbury Classified Handicap at Jamaica.

BASEBALL

PITTSBURGH — Eddie Mathews is on an RBI rampage for the Milwaukee Braves. The slugging third baseman has batted in at least one run in his last eight games to bring his season's total to 62. Mathews knocked home two runs last night as the Braves edged the Pirates 3-1.

BROOKLYN — Duke Snider's 11-game hitting streak was at an end Tuesday. The Dodger outfielder, who leads the National League in batting with a .363 average, failed to hit in two official at bats last night as Brooklyn defeated the Giants 9-1. Earlier in the season Snider ran up a 17-game hitting skid.

Eagle Point, Gino's Win League Games

First place Gino's Motor Lodge and runner-up Eagle Point both turned in wins in last night's Girls' League Softball at Conger Field to stay atop the league standings.

Gino's won their ninth straight game by whipping Oregon Woolen 9-5. Five home runs aided pitcher Mickey Hayman to the win. Sandy Barron collected two circuit smashes, while Ruth Hagelstein and Hayman also counted with four baggers.

Eagle Point won two games as they played a doubleheader. In the first game the valley team whipped the Big Y by a 21-1 score with Doris Hickson and Barbara Conrad both hitting home runs.

The score of the second Eagle Point game was another lopsided affair, this time Main was the victim by a 23-5 count.

Roy Mack Denies Club Sale

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Roy Mack emerged in his own light today as the current strong man of the Philadelphia Athletics.

The normally quiet, unassuming executive vice president of the A's of the American League, stuck his neck out a country mile at the mid-summer baseball meet in New York yesterday and announced the A's are not for sale, a half a hundred rumors notwithstanding.

And if that wasn't plain enough talk, the eldest son of Connie Mack declared he was in the throes of a family squabble with his younger brother Earle to obtain complete control of the club and change the downtrodden Athletics into a pennant contender.

Several weeks ago, Manager Eddie Joost had a row with outfielder Gus Zernial over the big slugger's placement in the batting lineup. The argument was carried into Roy Mack's office.

When Zernial and Joost had departed, Roy was asked by sports writers what it was all about. His rather wistful comment:

"Nobody ever tells me anything."

Apparently something new has been added. Yesterday it was Roy doing the telling and in no uncertain terms. Admitting that he had discussed the future of the A's with a syndicate headed by Arnold Johnson of Chicago, who has been pushing Kansas City for a major league franchise, as well as several groups from points west, Roy said:

"When I say we are definitely not selling, I mean that. It's easy enough to kick a guy when he's down, but I'm not going to stay down."

"I'm going to battle for all-out control of this club, especially since the 'Save the A's' has got going."

This last was a reference to an effort by local civic and business leaders to retain the club in Philadelphia.

The A's stock is divided just equally among Connie Sr., Earle and Roy.

"Go ask Roy where he is going to get the money," was General Manager Earle's comment.

New York Giants' Lead Cut By Dodger Victory

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The possibility of a Giant collapse was pooh-poohed by Manager Leo Durocher today but New York fans had cause for alarm.

A humiliating 9-1 loss to Brooklyn last night stretched the slumped Giants' losing streak to five straight and chiseled their first-place lead over the Dodgers to only three.

"I'm not worried about a thing," Durocher said after last night's loss. "We're still in a great spot. They've still got to catch us."

"Sure, we're in a little slump. But I think the worst is over. We were due to level off a bit the way we were going before the All-Star Game. Now we're back home for a long spell and everything will be all right."

Bill's Place Blanks Elks

Bill's Place kept their hold on second place of the Men's Softball League last night by shutting out the Elks by a 7-0 score at Conger Field.

Cal Bonney limited the Elks to three hits while Leroy Coleman and Jim Brown connected home runs to pace Bill's to the win.

The other half of the evening's action was forfeited to Chevron since Chiloquin didn't show up for the league contest.

BOXSCORE

Bill's Place 7, Elks 0

Bonney and Derrah, Ashby and Kelly.

The Dodgers' 15-hit victory was their first over Sal Maglie at Ebbets Field. Maglie had whipped them 10 straight times in Brooklyn.

Milwaukee's Braves, whose dimmed pennant chances began to flicker anew after their three-game sweep of the Giants over the past weekend, made it five in a row with a 3-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

Gene Conley, Milwaukee's 6-foot-8 rookie right-hander, doled out four hits while Billy Bruton and Eddie Mathews were providing the offensive spark to move the third-place Braves to within 10 1/2 games of the Giants.

Bruton opened the game with a triple off loser Bob Purkey and scored on a single by Mathews. In the third, Bruton singled, stole second and scored on Mathews' second single. Doubles by Joe Adcock and Adny Palko in the sixth accounted for Milwaukee's third run.

All other clubs had an off day as they girded themselves for the busy schedule today. The spotlight is on Chicago, where the second-place New York Yankees and third-place White Sox meet in the first of a three-game series, Cleveland, which leads the Yankees by a game and a half, is host to Boston's Red Sox, whom they've beaten 13 times in 14 meetings.

The Dodgers, who were scheduled to meet Chicago's Cubs this afternoon, made short work of Maglie last night, blasting him for 11 hits before sending him to the showers in the sixth inning. They continued their barrage on relievers Hoyt Wilhelm, Paul Gle and Al Corwin. Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson collected three hits apiece.

The Giants, who had whipped the Dodgers in their last six meetings, were limited to five hits by Carl Erskine.
