

NEW MANAGER of the Winema Hotel is Charles W. Malin, San Francisco, who took over the Main Street hotel this week. Prior to coming to Klamath Falls, Malin was executive assistant at the Bellevue Hotel in San Francisco where he had been for the past 15 years. He is a member of the board of directors of Bonifaces, West Coast hotel association, and has served as liaison chairman for the Hotel Greeters of America, Charter Four.

Over the GARDEN DATE

EVERGREEN CLUB JUNIPER BRANCH
On Monday, July 19, about eighteen members and guests of the Evergreen Garden Club and Juniper Branch met at Moore Park for a picnic.

a forestry conservation tour conducted by a member of the Klamath Fire Protective Association, a discussion on compost making and the use of mulches, herbs, and of course, the classes in flower arrangement which are always of value.

Civil Defense Unit Formed

A new mobilized civil defense unit being organized has caught like the proverbial wild fire according to civil defense officials. Vic Douglas is civil defense deputy director in charge of the mobilized unit, which is composed of four wheel drive vehicles.

At the regular meeting of the Juniper Branch to be held on August 19, members of the Evergreen Club are going to assist with a meeting on flower arrangement to be presented to the Klamath County 4-H Flower Club members. Mrs. Joe Schiub, newly appointed junior garden chairman of the Klamath District, will be in charge of the meeting, assisted by Mrs. Charles Thurman. It is planned to design this meeting to help the club members to prepare better exhibits for the coming 4-H Livestock Show.

Special Funds Planned By GE

NEW YORK — The General Electric Co. has announced establishment of two $500,000 funds whose income will be used for educational and scientific purposes.

One fund is in honor of Owen D. Young, GE chairman of the board from 1922 through World War II. The other is in honor of Edwin W. Rice Jr., second president of the company, who served from 1913 to 1922.

Establishment of the funds was announced Monday by Board Chairman Philip D. Reed.

Camp Fire Girl Outing Slated

CHILOQUIN — Swimming, an overnight hike, a picnic at Collier Park has been scheduled for the Camp Fire Girls group led by Mrs. Dwight Kircher and Mrs. Victor Sisson.

Of the 15 girls in the group, 8 have attended a one week session of camp at Lake of the Woods. They were Barbara Sisson, Norma Souers, Sharon Wilder, Klamath Agency; Helen Hescock, Fort Klamath; Diane Kircher, Sally Swanson, Agatha and Doris Ann DiUlio, Sally and Helen each attended on a campship, Helen, for selling 88 boxes of Camp Fire mints this spring, Sally for winning the Bradford award. Ike Greets Boys' Delegation

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower greeted members of the American Legion's Boys Nation at the White House Tuesday and they made him an honorary member.

In addition to a membership pin, the delegation presented a white sport shirt with the Boys Nation emblem on it to the president.

Holding the shirt in front of him, the President laughed and remarked:

"One thing about it—it will fit my grandson if it doesn't fit me."

The delegation has members from each of the states.

Heroic French Nurse Feted

WASHINGTON — French nurse Genevieve de Galard - Terraube flew in Tuesday to thank President Eisenhower and Congress for inviting her to visit this country as an honored guest.

The 29-year-old brunette heroine of Dien Bien Phu was welcomed by representatives of the State Department, Congress, the French

Embassy, the diplomatic corps and the three Indochinese states—Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

She came in from New York aboard a military air transport plane to receive honors for her gallant service to the wounded during and after the siege of the ill-fated French fortress in Indochina.

The key to the city of Washington and a huge bouquet of red roses were presented to her. Afterward she reviewed an honor guard of 12 armed service nurses—four each from the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Navy Pilots Identified

WASHINGTON — The Navy said Tuesday that three U. S. planes, all from the carrier Philippine Sea, took part in the air fight that sent two Communist fighters down near Hainan Island Sunday night.

A brief report from the carrier Tuesday said that two of the pilots were flying Douglas Skyraiders and that the third was piloting a Corsair night fighter. The dispatch said all three pilots and planes were involved in the battle, but did not further specify which one or ones actually shot down the Reds.

Tourists Hurt In Crash

A light panel truck operated by Jack Pinson, 1124 Rochester Road, New Westminster, B.C., crashed into the rear of a Consolidated Freightways truck and trailer near the North Chilouquin Junction on Highway 97 about mid-afternoon Monday, Oregon State Police reported.

Heat Predicted In Midwest Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The weather was due to warm up Tuesday in the Midwest after another day of comfortable temperatures and clear skies in much of the nation.

The Skyraider pilots were identified as Lt. Roy M. Tatham, Del Mar, Calif., and Ensign Richard R. Crooks, Los Angeles, Calif.

The Corsair pilot was Lt. Cmdr. Edgar B. Salsig, Menlo Park, Calif.

The propeller-driven planes, under protective cover by jet fighters, were searching for survivors of the British airliner shot down by Communist fighters near Hainan Island July 23.
