Austrian Girl Flies To KF

A traveler from Vienna, Austria, seeking knowledge in the United States, will arrive here by United Airlines Wednesday morning, July 28.

She is Johanna Spazil, 19, grand-niece of Mrs. K. M. Moty, 1411 Canby Street, whom Mrs. Moty has never seen.

The young girl, admitted to this country by the U.S. Bureau of Immigration for the period of time it will take to complete her education through high school, has worked for five years in a small grocery under Russian rule.

Prior to Russian occupation of Vienna she lived under the Nazi regime and has never known actual freedom. She was permitted to attend night school one night a week.

She will register at Sacred Heart Academy for the fall term and by special tutoring hopes to complete her qualifications for graduation in two years. Later she plans to study nursing, in this country if granted a longer stay by immigration authorities.

To qualify for her registration at Sacred Heart, the school had to be registered in Vienna. She cannot attend any other.

Mr. and Mrs. Moty have been trying since last October to arrange for her entry into this country and two days before word arrived that she was leaving, they had given up hope. Arrangements were made for the trip by air through the local World Wide Travel Bureau office. Johanna left Vienna Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Moty are pioneers of Klamath Falls.

Police Kill Los Angeles Kidnaper

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A gunman who kidnaped a physician and his wife, demanding $200 on threat of death, was slain early Tuesday by detectives summoned while the wife coolly talked to him for a half hour.

Mrs. Pauline Anton, 38, was alone with the gunman for the nerve-racking half hour. Her husband, Dr. Albert N. Anton, 48, Beverly Hills obstetrician, went to a drug store to try to cash a $200 check while the gunman kept Mrs. Anton in their car.

Dr. Anton called the police. Detectives surrounded the car. Dr. Anton returned, started driving again, then rolled from the car as the officers closed in. He was wounded in the left arm by the gunman before the latter was slain in a gun battle with the detectives.

At one point, the Antons said, their assailant thought that the druggist was a policeman following the Anton car.

Mrs. Anton said that, talking fast, she convinced the kidnaper, Jack B. Lyons that he was not. She also persuaded Lyons to let her out of the car and go back to tell the following driver to go away.

It was after Mrs. Anton left the car and was in the clear that Dr. Anton rolled from the vehicle and the shooting began.

"I was so nervous I didn't know what else to do so I just kept talking," Mrs. Anton related. "We had a nice little chit-chat. He seemed well educated and was very calm. He said over and over that he wouldn't hesitate to kill us if the cops showed up."

Voters Reject City's Budget

UMATILLA (AP)—Voters here Monday rejected, for the second time, the city's proposed budget which exceeded the 6 per cent limitation. The vote was 108-91 against it.

Earlier this month voters said "no" 69-30 to a budget $10,682 over the limit. It was pared to only $5,192 over the limit for a total of $23,243 in the Monday vote.

There was no apparent major issue although the City Council was told before the vote that if the voters failed to approve it, the police force would have to be cut from three men to one. There has been some local sentiment that three policemen are not needed here.

Show Gambler Forfeits Bail

A Kansas City gambler, who police said was of the "never give a sucker an even break school," forfeited $250 by failing to appear before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor Tuesday to answer to a charge of operating a game of chance.

The defendant, Robert Alfred Vogt, 31, was accused of "taking" Charles Potrel, 69-year-old retired Klamath Falls livestock dealer, for $1,000 with a "wheel of fortune."

The victim's son, Robert Potrel, food store operator signed the complaint against Vogt who was attached to the Ross United Shows, a carnival that left town Monday. Potrel said he watched the wheel operator "trim" his father.

According to District Attorney Frank Alderson, he has been deluged with complaints from persons who claimed they were beaten by the "Aducated wheel." He said another formal complaint charging operation of a gambling game has been issued.

Deputy Sheriff Dal Reed Tuesday was attempting to track down the manager of the carnival to issue a warrant on him.

Sergeant Faces Court Martial

PT. DIX, N.J. (AP)—Sgt. I.C. Richard J. Witbeck of Wellington, Ohio, will be tried by special court martial Wednesday on Army charges of ordering "cruel and unusual mass punishment" for 235 trainees.

The 24-year-old non-commissioned officer is alleged to have forced members of Company "L," 272nd Infantry Regiment, to stand at attention in 82-degree heat for almost an hour on June 21.

His superior, 1st Lt. Robert S. Morgan, 28, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was cleared last Friday of charges of "dereliction of duty" growing out of the incident. Morgan said he had nothing to do with issuing the order for the formation.

Salvation Army Camp Planned

There are still openings for boys to register for the Salvation Army camp August 2 through 8, according to Lt. Dallas Madsen.

The camp, which is held annually at Lake of the Woods, is for boys from the ages of 7 to 14. Any boys who are interested are asked to contact Lt. Madsen for further details.

Lt. Madsen is in charge of the camp, and is assisted by a corps of qualified instructors.

The camp will feature crafts and recreation—swimming, fishing and boating.

Columbia Flood Bill Passed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill authorizing future expenditure of $180,000,000 for flood control in the Columbia River basin was passed by the House Monday.

The measure also provides for contemplated expenditure of more than $21,000 for 15 Washington and Oregon navigation projects.

The Oregon projects would total $12,357,700; those in Washington $8,765,000.

23 Years Ago

Monday, July 27, 1931—Thomas Massey, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Massey, celebrated his 20th birthday, July 8th, by inviting a group of friends to the Massey summer home at Yesam Lodge. A swimming party and picnic luncheon were enjoyed.

Tuesday, July 28, 1931—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. H. E. Momyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penrod and son, Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Perry, Mrs. Gertrude Moore and children, Muriel and Arthur, motored to Medicine Lake Sunday. The party drove down by way of Glass Mountain, and returned by Mammoth Cave.

Wednesday, July 29, 1931—Ten entries have been made in the Waldorf pool hall snooker tournament for the championship of the county. Among the entries in the tournament: Blackie Goucher, who has beaten Lefty Johnson who holds the county title; Walter Peterson, P. M. Baty, "Checkers" Burns, Percy Flem, "Alkali" Stanford Smith, Ben Reed, Lester Peirson and Harry Molatore. Harry Molatore won over Reed 42 to 18 in the opening game.

Thursday, July 30, 1931—Dr. and Mrs. Merrymann and son, John, returned Tuesday morning from Seattle, where they spent about two weeks. Dr. Merrymann attended a clinic at the University of Washington.

Friday, July 31, 1931—One of the biggest transfers of Main street business properties was closed yesterday, when Fred K. Houston, well known business man, bought Roy Durbin's interest in the corner of Main and Ninth. The property is now occupied by the Central Meat Market and Cole's Market, and is one of the best retail corners on Main Street.

Saturday, August 1, 1931—A beautiful six room house, located at 79 High Street, was purchased by Burge W. Mason, according to an announcement made Thursday by the Chilcote and Smith's realty office. The home, built about three years ago, is situated in Ewauna Heights and affords a wonderful view of Lake Ewauna. Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., plan to establish their home there in the near future.
