"DENNIS THE MENACE"

"I'M ALL RIGHT, SO DON'T SNEAK UP ON ME WITH ANY NOSE DROPS!"

William Bendix Ends 10th Year In 'Life Of Riley'

By HUBBARD KEAVY (For Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — By the time Chester A. Riley becomes a grandfather, he will be able to retire on his cut from "The Life of Riley." But, being an actor, William Bendix will not retire. "Because," explains Bendix, star of the perennial Riley series, "what good is an actor unless he is acting?"

Riley made his bow on radio 10 years ago last January and continued for eight years on the air.

Court Seeks Interpreter

Alfonso Torres, 28-year-old Mexican workman who shot up the Highway House in Bly Sunday and seriously wounded an innocent bystander because he was told to "speak English or shut up," apparently can't speak either English or Spanish.

This appeared to be the situation Wednesday afternoon when he was arraigned before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Two interpreters were unable to converse with Torres.

Finally, Judge Van Vactor gave up trying to conduct the arraignment and ordered Torres to appear again next Monday. In the meantime, District Attorney Frank Alderson was instructed to find someone to act as interpreter who can understand Torres and vice versa.

In the meantime, surgeons at Klamath Valley Hospital were still waging a desperate battle to save the life of Leon E. Jenkins, 32-year-old Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. employee, who was shot in the chest during the barroom battle at Bly.

One of five bullets fired by Torres hit Jenkins as he was standing at the bar talking to a friend, Jimmy Anderson, Sheriff Murray Britton says, who had ordered Torres to speak English, attacked the Mexican with a knife after his gun jammed. Torres slashed and he was also cut about the face and body.

Torres was served with a warrant charging him with assault with a dangerous weapon Wednesday morning at Klamath Valley Hospital. He was then transferred to the county jail where he is held in lieu of $2,500 bond.

'Rain Crew' Awaits Storm

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP) — A "rain crew" took up a vigil promptly at 12:01 a.m. today to record the slightest precipitation in this southwestern Pennsylvania community of 8,000.

The crew, says Attorney John Daily, will stay on duty at the courthouse steps until midnight to-night—if necessary—to keep faith with Waynesburg's tradition.

The tradition goes back to 1877 when someone, for reasons best known to himself, said it would rain on July 29 and it did.

Since then, according to Daily's statistics, it has failed to rain July 29 on only seven occasions.

In many cases, Daily admits, the rain has just been a sprinkle but that was enough to keep the tradition alive. Somewhere along the line Daily became "chief rain prophet."

And, somewhere along the line, the Chamber of Commerce thought it would be a good idea to publicize the tradition. For the past few years Daily has been in the custom of wearing a hat with some celebrity that it would rain. He has quite an accumulation of headgear now. So many, in fact, he doesn't bet hats anymore.

This year's "fall guy" is Bill Corum, sports writer and president of Churchill Downs where betting, especially on Derby Day, is somewhat of a tradition itself.

If it does not rain, Corum has promised to make Daily an honorary Kentucky colonel. If Daily loses, he says Corum will become the unofficial chief rain prophet.

KIDNAP
 TUNIS, Tunisia (AP) — Five French soldiers, presumably kidnaped by terrorists earlier this month, have been found dead with their bodies mutilated, the newspaper Tunisia Press said Thursday.

This week, Riley and his family are completing their 104th TV show.

The series has paid well and will continue to do so. In addition to his salary, Bendix has a 25 percent interest in the show on reruns. Re-plays of the series may well go on for years and years, in TV areas that have not seen the show via network and in other cities and hamlets where stations are yet to be built. And with dubbed voices, they could, and probably will, go on in foreign countries for the next 50 years.

"That is," cautions Bendix, "unless we run smack into color. What then? I don't know. I'm afraid, after TV converts to color, that people won't want to look at black and white any more."

Any actor who looks down his nose at television is off his rocker, Bendix believes. The work is easier and there's more money to be made.

Bendix likes the work because each film requires only three days' work. In the fall, when filming resumes, the company will work six straight days, making two films each week, and then lay off for a week. That, says Bendix, is wonderful.

But not half so wonderful as the job he had for two and a half years as one of the inexplicable Howard Hughes' contract actors. Let Bendix tell it:

"Word suddenly came, 'sien Bendix' and when Howard Hughes gives an order, RKO jumps. I don't know, because I've never talked to Hughes, why he suddenly decided he had to have Bendix. I signed up after a little haggling for a straight four years, and no options, at a big salary. Well, it was $2,000 a week for 208 weeks."

"After a few months I played a small part in a picture. Worked seven days. A few months more and I worked in another picture, for 11 days. Every week I got $2,000 for nothing. Then this TV series got hot. We always were trying to get ahead with 'Rileys' because I never knew when I might get a picture call. After all, I was getting a lot of money and if I was called to work, I had to go. But the strain became too much. I either had to quit Riley or Hughes."

"So after two and a half years and 18 days' work—I got released from the contract. I had collected $260,000—but for what? Isn't that incredible?"

FLOOD
 HONG KONG (AP) — A dozen rivers were pouring flood waters over hundreds of thousands—perhaps millions—of China acres in mid-July, 10-day-old Communist newspapers just received here reported Thursday.
