Informal

OLD FRIENDS (many of them from college days at the University of Oregon), were included in the guest list for an informal evening at the home of Mrs. Louis Serruys, 601 Pacific Terrace, when she entertained for her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Pixley, from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
About 45 called during the evening to greet the Pixleys, who left for home last Monday.
Ten year old daughter, Lynn, who came west with her parents, is still at the Rafter M-D Ranch near Chiloquin; and will leave shortly with her aunt, Mrs. Serruys, for a stop in San Francisco, where she will board a plane for home.
In the picture, from the left, J. Frank Adams, Mrs. Serruys, Mrs. Pixley and Dr. William W. Campbell. Dr. Campbell, his wife and daughter Joy, from Stockton, were houseguests at the Crystal Springs Ranch home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul W. Sharp. Joy, also a guest at the Rafter M-D, celebrated her tenth birthday while there.
