

WITH HER FATHER, who gave her in marriage, the bride shares the picture and a smile before the ceremony.

Henry-Meeker Vows Said In Peace Memorial Church.

Calla lilies and green fern fronds formed the striking floral background for the recent wedding of Nora Meeker to Charles Henry Jr., in Peace Memorial Church. The Rev. Dwayne L. Proett read the candlelight service at 2 p.m., July 18, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The pretty brunette bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meeker, Midland Road; and Charles (Hank) Henry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Sr., Los Angeles.

Mrs. William Hamilton, organist, accompanied Mrs. Dayton Finchum, soloist.

The bride, escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white nylon net over taffeta, with fitted bodice, long sleeves pointed at the wrists and peplum of lace. Filmy fullness was achieved in the yards of nylon net over the generously gathered underskirt of taffeta. A snug-fitting cap of satin leaves and net—seed-pearl trimmed—held the fingertip veil of illusion. Her bridal bouquet was of Eucharis lilies and stephanotis tied with satin streamers. She also carried for the "something old" an heirloom lace handkerchief made by her great-grandmother.

Mrs. William Meeker, matron of honor, wore a wall-length dress of ice-blue lace over taffeta; and she carried a bouquet of pink pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids, Joyce Johnson and Sharon Finchum were dressed exactly as the matron of honor, except for color. They were in yellow and carried orchid bouquets.

Aaron Boe attended the bridegroom as best man. Tom McGill and Ted Payne, ushers, were also candlelighters.

Mrs. Meeker wore a powder blue linen afternoon dress, accented with a corsage of garnet roses. The senior Mrs. Henry wore gray lace over pink with pink accessories; and her corsage was of white roses.

Wedding guests were received in the Pelican Party Room immediately after the ceremony. Pouring were Mrs. Loren Meeker, Mrs. Ben Star and Mrs. Jack Waybrant. Mrs. Glen Fundenburger and Mrs. Marian Lehman served the cake; and Mrs. A. E. Wood assisted.

Before leaving for the honeymoon trip to Southern California, the new Mrs. Henry changed to a two-piece sea-mist knit dress with tan accessories.

From out of town for the wedding were Mrs. Charles Henry Sr., Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. William Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison, all of Medford.

ATTENDANTS POSE with the bride and bridegroom, after KFLW announcer Charles (Hank) Henry claimed Nora Merle Meeker as his bride in Peace Memorial Church, July 18. From the left, Sharon Finchum, Joyce Johnson, bridesmaids; Mrs. Bill Meeker, matron of honor; bride and bridegroom; Aaron Boe, best man; Tom McGill and Ted Payne, ushers.
