

BASIN BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fowler — 215 Washington, and their son Robert, will leave Saturday to spend two weeks at Richardson Springs, nationally known resort near Chico, California. Fowler is manager of the parts department at Balsiger Motor Co.

Pottluck Picnic — Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid will hold a potluck picnic at Moore Park Tuesday, 12:30 noon. Hostesses will be Mrs. Estlin Kiger and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Sr. Those wishing a ride, please contact Mrs. Lloyd, 4743.

Material — of early Oregon historical interest to be included in the DAR museum at Champoege is being sought by the Oregon Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. The state society promises careful marking, cataloging and preservation of such gifts. Please direct letters of inquiry to Mrs. Harvard G. Moore, 1040 Ferry, Eugene, or to Mrs. W. E. Hansen, secretary of the Champoege Board of Governors, 820 Church, Salem.

Korea — Airman Second Class Phillip A. Nichols, 2357 Orchard and graduate of KUHS, was recently transferred to Headquarters, Fifth Air Force in Korea, where he will work as an aircraft mechanic.

Tulelake — Starting October 1, census enumerators will begin collecting information for the regular five-year farm census. Each farmer will be asked about 100 questions, most of them requiring "yes" or "no" answers.

Building Permits — issued during the first six months of 1954 in Klamath Falls show a 54 per cent increase over the last six months in 1953. Dwelling permits show a 10 per cent increase over the last six months in 1953. Figures were released by Equitable Savings & Loan Association's statistical department.

Breeding Swine — return to the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland after a three-year absence. With the swine disease, vesicular exanthema, apparently stamped out in Oregon, the state department of agriculture has given clearance to the swine show. Dates of the P-I are October 19 through 23.

License — of the Town Club, Klamath Falls, will be suspended for seven days beginning August 2, the Oregon Liquor Control Commission announced this week. The suspension is based on charges that the licensee, through an employe, sold alcoholic liquor to a minor and allowed a minor to consume alcoholic beverages on the premises.

An Oregon Author — Mrs. Charles E. O'Neill, an ordained spiritualist minister of Sutherlin, Oregon, is author of Omar's Rubaiyat Re-Written which has just been released by Vantage Press. The author maintains that the Rubaiyat is not a hedonistic and cynical poem, but rather a source of Cosmic symbolism and spiritual message.

Tulelake — Guild meeting at Tulelake Presbyterian Church, August 4, at 1:30 p.m. Dessert luncheon. Meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ghet Stoneycypher. Mrs. N. C. Wilkinson will be in charge of devotions; Mrs. Albert Ryckman, program. Mrs. Wilkinson is co-hostess.

At Fort Lewis — Cadet 1st Lieut. Russell P. Smith, Rocky Point Road, attending ROTO Summer Camp at Fort Lewis, made perfect qualification records with the U.S. 30-calibre M1 rifle.

William F. Toole — 1500 Crescent, a member of the OSC chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, will attend the 24th biennial convention of the fraternity to be held at Casablanca Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida, from August 29 to September 1.

Emergency — March of Dimes will be held August 15-31 to fill an immediate need for $20 million, according to Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Conference — The first annual Pacific Northwest Industrial Health conference is scheduled to be held at the Multnomah Hotel, Portland, September 20-21. It is sponsored by the Portland Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Northwest industries and medical societies.

First Time — The American Forestry Association is scheduled to hold its first Pacific Northwest meeting in Portland in the AFA's 78-year history on September 6-9.

Klamath Indians — and the two pieces of proposed legislation favorably reported out of the House sub committee on Interior and Insular Affairs (a school and orderly termination of the Klamath Indian Reservation) were featured in a recent issue of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, "Commerce."

Annual Picnic — of the Oregon State Beekeepers Association will be held at Champoege Park Sunday, August 8. There will be a potluck dinner at 1 p.m. Ice cream and coffee will be served. John F. Erickson, 1128 SE 51st, Portland, is secretary.

Ashland — Several Klamath Falls cars are expected to be at the Ashland Speedway Saturday night for the first program staged on a "straight stock" and $200 claim basis.

Milk — The July issue of The Oregon Milk News has a page and a half report devoted to Klamath milk producers. The report stated: "Grade A milk producers in Klamath county have their production well fitted to the needs of their market, according to the records of the 15 herds in a survey just completed by OSC."

Oregon State Bar — will hold its annual convention at Gearhart, September 23 to 25. Simon Sobeloff, solicitor general of the United States, will be a featured speaker at this 20th annual meeting.

New Post — Selwyn Eddy, former San Franciscan, assumed his new duties today as general sales manager of Shell Oil Company's West Coast division.

Attended Conference — Four Klamath Basin women who attended the July 19-30 sessions of the Summer Leadership Training School of the Northwest, conducted by the Board of Christian Education, Presbyterian Church in the USA, at Lewis and Clark College, Portland, were Mrs. Brooks Custer, 3428 Shasta Way; Mrs. Lena Buck, Merrill; Mrs. Herbert A. Pilard, 2556 Homedale, president of Women's Association of Peace Memorial Church, and Mrs. Guy Epperly, 3953 Freida, treasurer of the association, Peace Memorial.

IT'S DOORBELL RINGING TIME

Four years ago, the makers of Folger's Coffee developed a new kind of "giveaway" quiz. The Doorbell Ringing Coffee Quiz is unique because it comes out to meet you at your home, and to date nearly fifteen thousand Western homemakers have been awarded over a million dollars worth of Westinghouse prizes, when they have had a tin of Folger's vacuum packed coffee, in use in their homes, and have given the correct answer to the Question-Of-The-Day.

One day soon maybe a Folger Doorbell Ringer will come to YOUR door. You'll recognize him because he wears a large yellow badge on his lapel, with the inscription "I am the Folger's Coffee Question Man." He will further identify himself by name.

He may have for you any one of sixteen wonderful Westinghouse appliances.

All you have to do to be eligible to win a Westinghouse appliance is to show the Doorbell Ringer that you are using Folger's, the West's number one coffee. Then if you answer the Question-Of-The-Day correctly, you will receive your Westinghouse prize, right on the spot.

So listen to Folger's noon news at 12:15 on KFJL for details of the famous Doorbell Ringing Coffee Quiz, And if a Folger's Quiz Man rings your doorbell answer the Question of the Day. Names of winners in this area will be announced daily on these programs.
