Turk Farm Leaders To Visit Basin

Sixteen agricultural leaders from Turkey will visit in Klamath County from August 13 to 16 as part of their 20-day livestock production and management training course in Oregon.

While here these men will visit important livestock production areas and will study cattle and range management. The first day will be devoted to visiting dryland ranges near Klamath Falls, particularly Nomad alfalfa on the Burleigh farm near Keno and created wheatgrass on the Lee Holiday ranch near Klamath Falls.

The second day of their stay will be spent on the Lloyd Gift ranch in Langell Valley getting as much information as possible from the reclamation of drylands into heavy producing irrigated pastures. Gifts has improved dry hill lands into the carrying capacity has increased from practically nothing to more than an animal per acre throughout the entire pasture season. Methods of reclamation, dam construction, types of grass and clover seed, and general management will be of particular importance to the visitors.

Rotary Tour To Be Held

The second and third day schedules of the annual Rotary Club livestock tour will leave from the Post Office building at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday and Thursday, according to 4-H Club Agent Francis Skinner.

Refreshments of cookies and punch were served by Mrs. Henzel and co-hostesses, Mrs. Emil Totell; schedule, Mrs. Loyal Loveness; entries, Mrs. Jerry Rajanus; classification, Mrs. Marion Monfore; refreshments, Mrs. Edwin Stasny; horticulture, Mrs. Frank Payser; publicity, Mrs. Alden Loveness; conservation, Mrs. Tom Watters; Mrs. Edward Livingston; Mrs. J. Loveness, Orland, California; Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Santa Barbara; Mrs. Jerry Micka; Mrs. Lloyd Micka; Malin; Mrs. Mary Sharp; Mrs. Melvin Bowman, Merrill; and Mrs. Crystal Cheyne, Henley.

Members present were: Mrs. Robert Hall, president, Mrs. Loyal Loveness; Mrs. Alden Loveness; Mrs. Marie Ottoman; Mrs. Jerry Rajanus; Mrs. Emil Totell; Mrs. Walter Stasny; Mrs. Philip Blohm; Mrs. Charles Hamilton; Mrs. Edwin Stasny; Mrs. Walter Browning; Mrs. Howard Henderson; Mrs. Ben Johnson; Mrs. Merle Lovesty; Mrs. Teresa McComb; Mrs. Frank Payser; Mrs. Chester Stonecypher; Mrs. Merle Evans; Mrs. Joe Halousek; Mrs. Marion Monfore; Mrs. Clara Scott; Mrs. Hubert Morelock; and Mrs. J. Preliminary arrangements were completed with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Turkish representatives several weeks ago. At that time it was explained that feed production in Turkey is extremely low, cattle are very small, and a rather poor quality and it is hoped that the study of American livestock management programs will be helpful in greatly increasing the Turkish food supply.

J. C. Moore, Oregon State College Extension Conservation Specialist will accompany the group on their 20 day tour throughout Oregon counties.

On Wednesday Group 1 will visit Henley, starting at Klamath Falls and working south, including Midland. This will not include club members living in Klamath Falls.

Group 2 will visit club members between Mack's Store and Merrill in the morning and in the afternoon will inspect animals between Henley and Mack's Store.

NW Senators' Votes Recorded

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four Pacific Northwest senators voted Monday night for the resolution to refer to a special committee the resolution by Sen. Flanders, and all amendments thereto, to censure Sen. McCarthy. Two voted against it.

Woodring had a hand in having Marshall named Army chief of staff in World War II, but a letter made public yesterday by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) quoted the former Democratic secretary as saying six weeks ago that Marshall "would sell out his grandmother for personal advantage."

Marshall reached at his home in Leesburg, Va., declined comment.

McCarthy offered the letter, dated last June 23, for the Congressional Record during Senate debate on a move by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) to censure him.

Woodring confirmed in Topeka, Kan., that he had written a letter to Robert M. Harris of New York City to thank him for a book about McCarthy. He told newsmen he had lost faith in Marshall because he thought the general "sold out" Chiang Kai-shek on a postwar peace mission to China for former President Truman.

Woodring was secretary of war in 1936-40, but was critical of many of his colleagues in the Franklin D. Roosevelt Cabinet after that. He opposed third and fourth terms for Roosevelt.

McCarthy said he had obtained the letter from another senator who got it from Harris, and that Woodring had no objection to its publication.

As made public by McCarthy, the letter dealt largely with the hearings into McCarthy's row with Secretary of the Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams. Stevens and Adams accused McCarthy and Roy M. Cohn, then chief counsel to his Investigations subcommittee, of using improper pressures to obtain favored treatment for draftee G. David Schine, a former aide. McCarthy and Cohn retorted that Stevens and Adams used Schine as a hostage to try to block McCarthy's search for subversives in the Army.

Since the hearings ended June 17, Cohn has resigned, Adams, returning to the Pentagon yesterday from a vacation, said he had not resigned, "do not plan to resign and have not been asked to do so." There had been reports that Adams was on the way out.

The text of Woodring's letter to Harris, as released by McCarthy: "Dear Bob: "First I want to thank you for the book you had sent, 'McCarthy and His Enemies'—I thought the chapter on Gen. Marshall was very illuminating—but inclined to advance the thought that Marshall acted from judgment; while I think he knew better in the China question and acted under instructions from the State Department and the White House, which to me is not to his credit in anyway (sic). "He is a good enough military strategist to know that he was selling out to the Reds.

"I learned to know him better than most people who have not had the close association and I can tell you that he would sell out his grandmother for personal advantage; that he would sell out his policies, beliefs and standards to maintain his political and military position with the powers that be.

"I never missed a one of the televised hearings of the McCarthy-Stevens controversy. "They came on at 8 a.m. here in Topeka. I would not get up and have breakfast in the library at (sic) they started—at 10:30 recess go to the office and be back in time for lunch in the library at 12 noon.

"I think Schine (sic), Stevens and Adams made very poor witnesses—I would not believe Stevens or Adams under oath after listening to them.

"McCarthy does not have a very good appearance before the television. But I am so strong for McCarthy's objectives and the work he is doing that I found myself defending him every day of the hearings.
