W. Virginia Solon Wins Vote Easily

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Matthew M. Neely, a giant in West Virginia politics for more than 40 of his 78 years, was renominated by the Democrats yesterday to a fifth term in the U. S. Senate.

The veteran of nearly 34 years in Congress easily outdistanced three opponents in a tame primary election. He didn't make a campaign speech.

With 1,851 of 2,825 precincts reporting, Neely had 109,252 votes; Sam B. Chilton, Charleston, 22,829; Roy A. Warden, War, 7,125; and Homer H. May, St. Marys, 7,084.

Thomas B. Sweeney, former Wheeling insurance executive, is the Republican who will meet Neely in November. Sweeney seeking his third nomination, bested Latelle M. LaFollette, Charleston attorney and businessman, in the GOP primary.

Returns from 1,834 precincts gave Sweeney 50,273 and LaFollette 24,447.

Rep. Will E. Neal, only Republican in the six-member delegation to the House of Representatives, was renominated in the 4th District without a fight. So was Democrat Harley O. Staggers in the 2nd.

The other Democrats, Representatives Robert B. McMillan, 1st District; Cleveland M. Bailey, 3rd; Mrs. Elizabeth Kee, 5th; and Robert C. Byrd, 6th, won handily.

Former Rep. M. G. Burnside of Huntington was named by the Democrats to challenge Neal in November.

Republicans also nominated Arch A. Moore Jr. of Moundsville in the 1st District and Fred O. Blue of Princeton in the 5th without opposition.

In GOP congressional contests Albert M. Morgan, son of a former governor, held a widening lead over Mrs. David Elkins, wife of a former U. S. senator, in the 2nd District; Joseph B. Lightburn held a slim lead over Myron R. Henick and two others in the 3rd; and Pat B. Withrow Jr. of Charleston was comfortably ahead of John M. Orth of Dunbar.

Unofficial results from 393 of the district's 508 precincts gave Lightburn 5,136 and Henick 5,123. Frank T. Amos of Elizabeth was running third with 4,271 and M. A. Holliday Sr. of Garton trailed with 1,287.

Studio Suspend Victor Mature

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Victor Mature's studio has suspended him and replaced him in the cast of a picture for failure to appear for warlike tests.

The suspension was ordered yesterday by 20th Century-Fox and was followed immediately by the assignment of Richard Egan to Mature's role in "Untamed," with Tyrone Power and Susan Hayward. Mature was reported golfing at Del Mar.

Jobless Man Now Owns Gas Well

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—Eight months ago August Jurgens, 49, was laid off his job. Bad? Jurgens says certainly not, for now he owns a gas well as a result.

When he couldn't find work in town Jurgens decided to try farming at which he once worked. Wanting only some land so he could "have a place to work," he swapped two houses for the land. It wasn't long before an oil company asked if it could drill on his land. The company brought in the gas well.
