

A RED TAIL HAWK came to grief on a trip to Klamath Falls when it perched on a radio antenna atop the Marion Apartments. The wayward bird (top) is shown after a band on one of its legs became entangled in the antenna wire. Gordon Smith, manager of the apartment house is shown holding the hawk after it had been liberated. It was taken to the home of Jim O'Donahue who is waiting for the owner to claim it. — Photo by Kettler
