REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

HERE ARE — a few items held over from last week — they weren't lost or forgotten — just postponed account illness.

MRS. SYDNEY A. PAY "Anna W." — to localities who know her as an annual summer resident at her Rocky Point cabin — has returned to her Burlington home — 918 Capuchino — She and her big yellow "mostly" Persian cat (a la Phil Harris' song) — Mac as the feline is named after THE General has been coming to Rocky Point for 13 years — since he was 6 weeks old. They left just after the John Schaws (who share the cabin) arrived from their Swanton ranch home near Santa Cruz for part of the summer.

THE FIRST THREE — of the 10 days Jennie Hurn spent in Baker with g-d'r Gretchen, spouse Marion and the two young Chandlers Billy and Elizabeth — she just about wore herself out with social activities — but she rested the others and came home bouncing as usual which isn't surprising to those who know her — She's been storing up stamina for some 60 years 'n she's GOT IT!

A NOTE — from Lila Moe Nockleby (Mrs. Bert) — is added support to our reference to "the little KP on the peninsula" — she wrote "Whenever you hear a continuous stream of chatter and laughter, you can be sure that it's a bunch of Klamath folks reminiscing — and just such a gathering congregated at the gracious R. C. Groesbeck's in the patial gardens of their home on Ellenwood Drive in Los Gatos. . . This particular occasion was a picnic lunch on Sunday afternoon, July 25 — and a responsive bunch of ex-Klamathites were there — happily sharing the Groesbeck's hospitality — The Ed Knights, Burk Knights, Bert Nockleby, H. E. Roskamps, E. C. Stuckeys, Glen Houts, Henry Moe, Charles Garcelon, Fred Everly and H. D. Parks — Pearl Wheeler, Martin, Myrtle Reymers, Augusta Hayden, Frances Sample, Julia Van Emmon, Jennie Pella, Marie McMillan and Ruth Olson (furriner from Spokane) — a guest of the Nockleby's. (We love to get these bits of KP news from the Bay or any other area — where Klamath folk still gravitate toward one another for fun.)

DUAL BIRTHDAYS — will be celebrated by Mrs. Laura Hunsaker of KF — and great-g-son Robert Prescott Hunsaker, who was born on her birthday in Corvallis, July 15, to Kathleen and Floyd Hunsaker — This animated birthday present arrived weighing 8 lbs. 2 oz. — His mother is the former Kathleen Angel (Wayne's aunt) — his dad and mom were both graduates of KUHS — his dad from OSC — took his degree at Washington State — is now a physician with the gov't at Albany.

ALSO — still Hunsaker — Edna (Mrs. Lee H) now of Anchorage, Alaska, visited over weekend of July 24 with Alice Hershberger, 514 N. 10th — That address was the gathering place for relatives and friends — Edna, who is teaching in Alaska has been going to summer school at Monmouth (maybe still is) — Earlier in the month her spouse flew from Alaska to Salem where his parents the Ray Hunsakers and other members of the family were assembled for a Hunsaker clan-meet — all except Dr. Dale H — who is still in Houston doing work at Jefferson Davis Hospital for special degree in obstetrics.

HOW LUCKY CAN Y' GET? — Wilbur Arnold came back to his old territory from Medford to do a little vacation fishing in the Williamson. . . brot son Dick with him. . . Wilbur, . . . ardent fisherman, . . . had neglected his favorite sport in recent years . . . but wanted to show Dick "THE fishin' hole of holes" at a certain bend in the river where he had fished so many times years ago. Most men taking their son back to the ole fishin' or swimmin' hole would find just a hole. . . where all that cool green water was. . . not Isaak Walton Wilbur. . . though. . . He was born under the Zodiac sign Pisces. . . and has experience dating from Link River fishing days. . . So. . . with son Dick watching mind you, . . . he not only finds the same ole favorite hole. . . he hauls a 15. . . nearly 16 lb. fish out of it! Gad!

THIS ITEM. . . same family. . . but I'll separate it out from the fish story. . . Lillian Arnold. . . came over for a few days at the end of the week to catch up on some visiting and to go to Lake O' the Woods with son and spouse. . . Where Dick is on the Crater Lake area Boy Scout staff for two weeks. . . he recently returned from Beaver Boys' State. . . selected from Medford HI. . . he's considered an outstanding young citizen in that valley town. . . The Arnolds are both from pioneer families. . . with solid ties of friendship to KF through neighbors and friends.

ANOTHER FISH TALE. . . Ruth (Mrs. J. Frank) Adams has Isaak Walton blood in her. . . to the extent that I almost wrote. . . "Ruth Gone Fishin' Adams". . . Instead the J Frank. . . SHE goes in a trailer and LIVES fishing. . . (of course in THAT trailer. . . livin' ain't BAD!) on a recent trip to Paulina Lake. . . she took grand-daughter Viki Ray with her. . . 9 year old Viki had never fished before. . . but she caught and landed the limit the first two days she'd ever held a rod!

DREAMS. . . come true for Flo Ana Perkins — is the word from Flo Ann sent friends from Paris — a trip to Versailles — THE Moulin Rouge — part of the dream already realized then from there to Madrid, Barcelona, Nice, Rome, Athens, Istanbul, Jerusalem, then to Amsterdam — as the hop-off point for home.

GRANDSON — this should have been in last week — the new grandson for the Lou Draggers — and the Luther Haskins — Gary Richard was born July 28 — at K Valley hoop — to Joan and Doyle Haskins — Tulelake. Whenever the new exalted ruler of the Elks — Lou Drager's name comes with a query as to where he lives — confusion sets in — They live on the Oregon side of Hatfield, their business is in California — and their phone is in the Merrill exchange. Back to Gary Richard — His great-g-parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kothhoff also live in Merrill.

LITTLE NOTE — from a Portland wedding Susan Erickson's — Deniece Kenyon was a bridesmaid — and when Susan tossed her bouquet Deniece and another b-naid Sue Meindl caught it — both with firm grips — too — both surprised that someone else had hold of it — but quick-thinking — resulted in a fair division of the coveted prize.

JUST A FEW DAYS — after

MERRILL

By ROBERTA DEWEE

MERRILL — Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil, Johnny and Tommy, had a successful fishing trip when they went to Winchester Bay; all four caught their limit of salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Nelson enjoyed a five day visit in Portland with relatives. Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Milne, Marsha and George, have returned from a three weeks' vacation trip. They drove up the coast from Crescent City to Astoria, and then down to Portland, where they visited the Riley DeLays, former Merrill residents.

A. K. (Lucky) Felt has returned after an absence of several years, and is again manager of the Merrill Clothing Company, R. A. Merton, former manager, and Mrs. Merton have moved to Florence, Oregon, to reside. Mr. and Mrs. Paschal Hodges and children have returned after a fishing trip which took them to Crescent City and to Elk Lake. Gilbert Batty and Leland Anthony, operators of the Merrill Union Service, are now located in their new place of business on the corner of Main and Front streets. Numerous baskets of flowers were received by the two, and best wishes of the community were extended to them on their opening day, July 31.

Mayor and Mrs. Paul Landry returned from a tour of Alaska — their older daughter and family were brief visitors at the Landry home 331 Pacific Terrace — the W. L. Wassmans — he stayed overnight and returned to work on the Eugene Register-Guard the following morning — she — and their children, Catherine — 4, and Erich, 3, continued to California.

INCLUDED IN — the numerous parties for Rosemary Murray — were a shower — July 17 — Mrs. C. A. Henderson and d'r Jean — Luncheon July 21 at Pelican Cafe — Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore — kitchen shower — Mrs. Harold A. Teale and Mrs. Bryant Williams — on the 22nd — Mr. and Mrs. Dave Liskey — luncheon at the Pelican.

MR. AND MRS. J. M. SUNDKVIST . . . Dorris, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lovetta, to Lawrence A. Johnson, Modesto. An early fall wedding is planned.

Here's a new kind of ice-cream sundae. Peel, halve and core a fresh pear; fill each pear cavity with a small scoop of vanilla ice cream and top with chocolate sauce.

Today's Women

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Just staying home all day doesn't automatically make a woman a good mother, says Helen Grayco, wife of the professionally zany Spike Jones and mother of Spike Jr., 5, and Leslie Ann, 3.

Helen, a decorative and delicate type, accompanies her orchestra-leader husband on all his strenuous one-night-stand tours, does her part in his TV shows, runs a large home in Beverly Hills, cooks the Italian dishes Spike loves, designs her own wardrobe and is a highly successful mother. In her spare time, say between 2 and 4 a.m. some mornings, Mrs. Jones plans the menu for the next family reunion, at which her 10 brothers and sisters and their assorted offspring gather with their parents at the hospitable Jones homestead. Says Helen:

"We usually have these family reunions at our house on Christmas and the Fourth of July. There are 55 in the immediate family, counting 26 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. My parents stay with us, and all my brothers and sisters and their families live nearby."

Helen and Spike take Spike Jr. and Leslie Ann along on all their trips except the one-night stands. Then when they are doing a Hollywood TV show, they sometimes stay at home in Beverly Hills for a couple of months, spending all possible time with the small fry. "I guess we spend more time and thought on the children than if I had nothing to do but stay home and take care of them," says Helen. "At any rate, I'm sure they're perfectly happy and well adjusted and I'm sure they haven't missed any love or companionship from us."
