Over the GARDEN GATE

By MRS. DAVE CAMPBELL

Plans for the annual flower show sponsored by the Bly Garden Club to be held August 19, were made at the last regular meeting July 22 at the home of Mrs. Joe Kendall. The show in the Bly Methodist Church will be conducted under standard show regulations. Exhibitors may be centered by anyone regardless of affiliation with a garden club.

Theme of the show will be "Summer Fantasy".

Members and guests took many flower arrangements to the meeting which were criticized by Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, of the Klamath Falls Garden Club. She was assisted by Mrs. Crystal Cheyne of the Mt. Laki Garden Club. Mrs. O'Connor also made arrangements from driftwood, pine boughs and cones. A lively discussion was had by Mrs. O'Connor on conducting a flower show.

Judges for the Bly show will be Mrs. Ted Fish and Mrs. Earl McFall of the Tulelake Garden Club.

A silver tea will be held the afternoon of the show.

Chairmen are as follows: general chairman, Mrs. D. O. Hyde; schedule, Mrs. Win Bates; registration, Mrs. Albert Pearce; conservation, Mrs. Emil Johnson; horticulture, Mrs. D. O. Hyde and Paul Robin; house plants, Mrs. Monte Cline; arrangements, Mrs. William Hais; junior division, Mrs. Ted Hyde; hospitably, Mrs. Dave Campbell; Mrs. Ed Patoke; Mrs. William Tucker; refreshments, Mrs. Max Cline.

It Happened This Way in New Pine Creek

By IRVIN FARIS

This was an eventful weekend. Forty-five or more vets and members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of California drifted into our little village last Saturday from nearly 12 different Northern California posts and enjoyed a round of merriment and entertainment at the Warren Welch Veterans' Hall that night.

This bust was a prelude for the 19th district meeting of the two groups which was held here Sunday, August 1. The vets met at their hall and the ladies convened at the Grange Hall where a big turkey banquet was held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, prepared by the ladies of the auxiliary, local hostesses and with the cooperation of the local VFW post as hosts.

Ferd Flores, of Westwood, California, the newly elected district commander, presided at the vet's meeting at which also was present the past district commander, Samuel Tate.

The new district president of the District Auxiliary, Leone Simmons, also of Westwood, was the officer presiding over the ladies' group. Notable among other guests were Mrs. Thelma Tate, past District president of the auxiliary and Meta Erbeck who has brought honor to the 19th district by her election to the district office of Department Guard.

During the enjoyment of the sumptuous turkey dinner with all the trimmings, a drawing for the quilt was held. Mrs. Katie Dick led the lucky number and was awarded the beautiful handwoven quilt to the post by Mrs. Faye Keller Rose. As she had specified as donor, all proceeds from the quilt which amounted to $85.15, will go towards paying off the building indebtedness. A Dutch Raffle was also held at the banquet table with the prize—a piece of Twin Pine Cone ceramic—going to Mrs. Faye Rose. This beautiful piece of ceramics was donated by Mrs. Mary Snider. After the big dinner was over, those present at the district office of Department Guard.

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE
On August 3, 1954, at the hour of 10 a.m. at the front door of the Court House in Klamath Falls, Oregon, I will sell at auction to the highest bidder for cash the following described real property located in Klamath County, Oregon, to-wit:

Tract 100 of Pleasant Home Tracts No. 2, less and excepting the parcels hereinafter described, to-wit: a 1/2 acre parcel, recorded plat thereof on file in the office of the county clerk of Klamath County, Oregon, No. 21.

Said sale is made under execution against the debt of the State of Oregon for Klamath County to me directed in the case of Dagny M. Hoffman and Loren L. Hoffman, Defendants, vs. James J. Hoffman and Loren L. Hoffman, Plaintiffs, and the State of Oregon, Intervenor, as set forth in the complaint filed in the County of Klamath, Oregon, in Case No. 21, and the order of the Court in said case, dated August 3, 1954.

James Wadlow and his brother-in-law, Fletcher Sheff are lucky to be alive. Last Friday at about 10:30 p.m. the two men were headed for the MC Ranch, riding on Sheff's '53 station wagon along the Adel Road. Of a sudden a reported light green colored car swirled around a bend in the road and veered its rear end over into the left front fender. The contact was severe enough to knock them over a 15-foot embankment. The harem-scramer driver did not slacken his pace appreciably, nor did he stop and render assistance as required by law.

Sheff painfully crawled out of the wreckage and looked for him but — ploey! no see 'im. He found his brother-in-law, James, who had been thrown out of the station wagon which had rolled over his body. There was no tell, but at that moment just how badly he was hurt. For sure he could not walk for he could not even get up. Sheff had a bad gash in his leg that later required 12 stitches to close up and he was bleeding from a deep cut between his eyes. Nevertheless he walked eleven miles on to the Adel store where Jim Dyke assisted in bringing the two unfortunate men back into Lakeview where their wounds were treated at the hospital. The hit and run driver had not yet been run down or identified the men said.

Jim Cleyburn, son of Mrs. Gladys Cleyburn who runs the Garden Cafe, left Monday for his base at Fort Ord after being home on a 15 day furlough. He thinks he will be going overseas soon after his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Taylor and family arrived from Baldwin Park, California, last Sunday and will visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lightle for two weeks. Al plans to do a little fishing while here.

Mrs. Lydia Smith, age nearly 91, died at the Lakeview hospital last Sunday night. Funeral services were held here Wednesday afternoon, August 4, at the First Baptist Church. Mr. Bill Partin one of her sons who had been here previously with his family received the body last Thursday from South Prairie, Washington. They were notified along with the other children and relatives of Mrs. Smith's critical condition.

Mrs. Zella Burton received word last Monday, August 2, that George Burton, aged 78, of Durham, California, had passed away at about 9 o'clock that morning. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Burton who had preceded him in death about a year ago. He was raised in Davis Creek and Alturas where he was well known. He had been poorly for sometime. Mrs. Burton said, Mrs. Burton left for Durham that evening to attend the funeral rites. She went with Kenneth Burton and family.

The Youth Club went on a swimming party Monday night and had a lot of fun. They also held their regular meeting last Wednesday night. Those present were: Mike Cook, Billy Churchfield, Barbara Porter, Sylvia McManus, Carol Foster, LaDene Swanner, Carol McCain, Sam Tuxhorn, Richard Lawson, David Cooper, Pat Webb, Guy Andrews, Mickey McClain, Don Smith, Polly Cain, Judy Snider, Chaperones were Amy Cloud, Carol Cloud, Billy Ayres and Maurine Guany.

Coming in late were: Billy Millap, Eugene Lawson and Robert Perry. Visitors were Neil Perry, Charles Pover, I. L. Nichols, Betty Cain, Joy Scarborough, Janet Paris, Woody Smith, Ray Cloud, Danny McManus, Eddie Reed, Jerry Bucher, Margaret Stewart, Lenda Story and Johnny Murphy.

The Happy Hour Club picnic was held a week ago last Tuesday at the ranch home of Mrs. Pelletia Woodard at the mouth of Kelly Creek Canyon. There were around 50 persons present who played softball along with other games and amusements.

Word was received last week that Nettie Vinyard, age 80, of Burbank, California, passed away on July 25 at her home. Her twin sister, Etie preceded her in death by a little less than a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Orland K. Johnston were to have left Klamath Falls by plane Wednesday afternoon for Johnstown, Pennsylvania, en route to Seward, Pennsylvania, where Mrs. Lizzie Johnston, Kay's mother, is suffering from a stroke. Their departure was postponed two or three days due to the death of Kay's Uncle George. Word was received about his mother last Friday morning after which the Johnstons began making plans to fly back as soon as possible in a telephone call Tuesday, Kay learned that his mother's vision had improved and that she was feeling quite a lot better. The Johnstons planned to be gone about two weeks.

KF Student Wins Award

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene - Bruno Morosin, Klamath Falls, has been awarded the $400 Orin Fletcher Bliffard Scholarship in chemistry for 1954-55 for a junior major in chemistry.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Morosin, 2111 White Ave., Klamath Falls.

The award, given in memory of the late Orin Fletcher Stafford, a member of the faculty of the department of chemistry from 1902 until his death in 1941, is based on a superior scholastic record and aptitude for advanced work in chemistry.

The $400 award is for the junior year. If the scholastic record is maintained, the student receives a $600 award for his senior year. Gerald H. Olsen, Springfield, who held the junior award for the past year, has been named for the senior year award.

Prisoners Held By Red Germans

BERLIN (AP)—An estimated 23,000 political prisoners are imprisoned in Communist-ruled East Germany, the West Berlin Fighting Group against Inhumanity said today.

The organization said approximately 70,000 secret informers are working for the Red police in the Soviet zone.

Basin Barley Meet Planned

A meeting for Klamath Basin barley growers Thursday afternoon at 7 p.m. at the recreation building in Merrill has been arranged jointly by the Klamath County agents office and Tulelake's farm adviser.

The afternoon session starting at 1 p.m. standard time, is primarily a barley grading school to be conducted by Bert Whitlock and personnel from the Portland grain inspection office.

The evening session starting at 7:30 standard time will include discussion on the outlook for marketing of this year's Hamacher crop.

Speakers scheduled for the evening session include: Ornie Kellert, Great Western Maltine Company of Vancouver, George Alcorn, extension chemist at the University of Colorado, and Ray Teal, grain marketing specialist at Oregon State College.

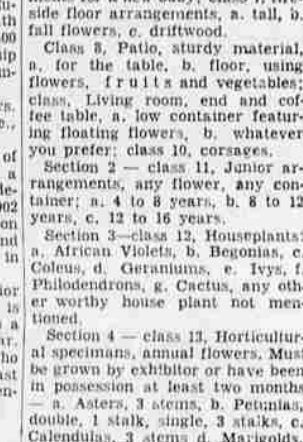

Aphids Found In Spud Fields

Aphids are being found new in all Klamath County potato fields. Populations in some fields are quite high.

County Agent Wail Jendziewski reports that the only fields in which it is difficult to find aphids are those fields which have been sprayed for aphid control.

The agent, entomologist and field men report that this season is as bad if not a worse aphid year than any since 1948.
