

Midsummer Bride

ELEGANT SIMPLICITY . . . describes the beautiful gown and all appointments for the wedding of Rosemary Murray to John Alan Young in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, August 1. Rosemary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray, 812 Pacific Terrace; and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Young, 1951 Erie.

All principals in Young-Murray wedding were "family" — Five couples, all related, preceded guests out of church after ceremony.

WITH HER FATHER

"SWEET BUNCH OF DAISIES" . . . was the nostalgic phrase brought to the minds of many wedding guests last Sunday — occasioned by emphasis placed upon them in bouquets, church and reception decorations. The typically summer flower, bride's favorite, was effectively employed to decorate the wedding cake. At the top of the page, from the left, Mrs. Rodney Murray, bride's sister-in-law; Mrs. Murray, mother of the bride; Rosemary, and next to her, her sister, Marcella, Mrs. Rodney Bell. Pasture Party

By Milly Ramsby

"PASTURE PARTY" . . . is exactly what it was — when Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds entertained for daughter, Marcell, and new son-in-law, Raymond (Ray) Nelson, at their ranch on the Merrill Highway, Monday evening from 5 to 7:30 p.m. The Reynolds are now living in Boise, where he is chamber of commerce manager — the same title he had with the local chamber for many years. Their ranch house is occupied — so the Reynolds "camp" in a tiny cabin on the place. An indoor party was impossible — so the host and hostess planned a "pasture party" — with all outdoors to accommodate the host of friends who received penny postcard invitations with a sketch of a cow indicative of the "strictly informal" event.
