

AL FRESCO COOKING POPULAR WITH KF MEN

The out of doors, open fire, cool of the evening, informal cooking has captured the interest of Klamath Falls amateur male "chefs" — and it's the men who exchange recipes — these summer days. Here we show one of them in the group of pictures below, demonstrating his skill with the salad course.

ANOTHER CANDID SHOT of the evening pre-nuptial patio-party for Rosemary Murray and John Young, includes his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Young (in the dark dress with the crisp white trim); and Lloyd Young is possibly in it, too; but not identified at press time. Guests were invited for 7 p.m., and the group, (right of fireplace), clustered around, and hiding, the host, apparently came equipped with zestful appetites. — Photo by Guderian

"TAKE A LESSON" from the maestro. With the savoir-faire of a seasoned chef, the enterprising host capably demonstrates to his anticipatory audience the mechanic procedure involved in achieving a Caesar salad... one of his favorites.

Entranced with the last flourish of fresh ground pepper, are from the left, his daughter-in-law, Marcella, (Mrs. Rodney Bell); John Young, Rosemary and Rodney Bell. On the other side of the busy host, is other son, Ray.

Rodney Bell and John Young are both 2nd Lieutenants in the USAF. Rod Bell is a ground officer attached to the jet air base at Bangor, Maine; and he and his wife, Marcella, flew home for the wedding, arriving in time for the pre-nuptial party. Ray Bell had just come home from summer session at Lewis and Clark; and was about to take off for a tour of the Orient as a player on his alma mater's (the University of Oregon) basketball team. — Photo by Guderian

A PATIO PARTY at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell, 1935 Portland, July 26, was the occasion for this picture. The evening, planned in honor of Rosemary Murray and John Young, who were married August 1; coincidentally was the first time the entire group had been together, and the picture has the appearance of a family reunion party.
Standing, from the left, Percy Murray, Rosemary's father; her brother, Rodney; her fiance, John Young; Paul McDuffee, Ed Bell's sister's husband, their daughter, Gail; the hostess and host; and sons Ray and Rod.
In chairs, same order, Mrs. Paul McDuffee, Medford; Mrs. Percy Murray and Rosemary.

in our new collection of Juliette dresses

LEFT
The star is you, and what better way to dress the part than in this superbly shaped sheath. The high fashion look of Minifit tissue faille makes the perfect background for its dramatic simplicity. And the hero of the hour is the price—so earth bound you'll have to look twice to believe it. Sizes 10 to 20. Black coffee brown, nutria, charcoal grey or royal sapphire. 32.95

RIGHT
Proof positive that you have more taste than money—when you choose this for Fall. So versatile, it never stops going, keeps you as smartly turned out by day as by night. The rayon worsted is Juliette's exclusive Coquette, crease resistant English yarn weave, with a million dollar look to it. Another Fall sign: shining satin ascot and detachable cuffs. Back charcoal, gunmetal, coffee brown or cafe blue. Sizes 12 to 20. 32.95

Stalnaker-Tidrick Rites In Langell Valley Church

LANGELL VALLEY — A lovely summer wedding was solemnized at the Lorella Full Gospel Church in Langell Valley 8:30 a.m., July 25, when Jean Tidrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tidrick of Bonanza, and Mervin Stalnaker, U.S. Navy, son of Mrs. Rose Stalnaker of Langell Valley and Clarence Stalnaker of Toketee Falls were united in marriage. The Rev. Eugene Olp read the service before an altar banked with summer flowers.
The beautiful bride wore traditional white satin, with a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of pink and white asters. Jean was given in marriage by her father.
Pauline Noble played the wedding march. She also sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Willard Noble.
Rosemary Stalnaker was the bride's only attendant. Her dress was pink taffeta ballerina length, and her bouquet was also pink and white asters. David Tidrick was best man. Gary Cunningham and Lee Campbell ushered.
Mrs. Tidrick chose a grey suit worn with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage for her daughters wedding. Mrs. Stalnaker wore a blue suit with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.
A reception was held at the Stalnaker home following the wedding. The beautiful cake was made by Helen Noble and decorated by Velma Evans. The young couple cut the first piece of cake, which was served by Mrs. James Baldock. Mrs. Bruce Bieler was at the coffee service, and Mrs. George Fernlund and Mrs. Orville DeVal served the punch. Mrs. Dick Smith registered the guests.
The new Mr. and Mrs. Stalnaker left at noon for Vallejo where he will be stationed for the next six months.
