Interesting Artifacts Found In Fort Rock Cave

FORT ROCK — Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Tiller, 1509 North First Street, Hermiston, who were hunting for arrow heads and Indian relics, found an ancient mat while they were digging in a cave near Burns. The cave was about 20 miles south of Crane between Princeton and Malheur Cave.

The mat was very evenly woven and had juniper bark tied around it. They also found a small square about four inches across close by. The weave on the smaller piece was tighter and probably was a remnant of a water jug. The mat was partially scorched by fire and was found wedged between some rocks.

Mrs. Tiller is the librarian at Hermiston.

STOLE HIS SMOKES

Geo. N. Taylor

Siam, Asia — The small boy said his brother of 17 stole his cigarettes. All that day they argued back and forth and argued morning, until the chief of the tribe ordered the "Rice Test." Each boy was to chew a mouthful of rice and then empty his mouth. The younger boy's rice was wet with saliva and he went free. The other's was dry which proved that he was upset. So they judged him guilty. He was lashed and told not to steal again. Later he confessed to the theft. The Lord Jesus died for the sins of this petty thief and all others who ever sinned.

Geo. N. Taylor

And you? — Have you faith to believe that God so loved you that he gave Christ to die for your every sin? Then Christ as your Lord and Saviour and God gives you eternal life. — "Whosoever's name was written in the Book of Life was cast into the Lake of Fire. This is the Second Death. See Rev. 12:15. This space sponsored by a Portland Lumberman and Wife. Adv.
