Portuguese Offer Plan

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India agreed Tuesday to Portugal's proposal for a six-nation on-the-spot investigation into the two nations' bitter dispute over Goa and the other two Portuguese colonies on the Indian West Coast.

The Lisbon government suggested Monday that each country ask three neutral nations to send four observers each to look into a situation which Foreign Minister Dr. Paulo Cunha warned "may lead to much bloodshed and war."

Prime Minister Nehru's government handed a reply to the Portuguese minister here Tuesday, asking Lisbon to nominate its choices immediately for such an investigation.

Under the proposal, the observers would "investigate freely" both in Portuguese and Indian territory. The six nations would be chosen from countries with which both India and Portugal maintain diplomatic relations.

Tension in the little Portuguese pockets has mounted in recent weeks as the Indians have pressed to bring Goa, Damao and the little island of Diu under the Indian flag. The territories, totaling about 1,500 square miles and 640,000 people, have been Portuguese for more than 400 years and Lisbon has refused to give them up.
