

COMPLETELY CASUAL, three charming lasses look forward to classes in fresh ideas from Town Shop (l to r) are Carrie Heilbronner whose height is perfect for her smart young cotton in the new dark fall colors, navy, turquoise and red. Short cuffed sleeves, four big patch pockets and white pique trim are completely "schoolish." Joan Meador, who enters Emanuel Hospital, Portland, for training this fall wears a straight imported tweed skirt with the new straight British lines. With it she wears slipover cardigan Jantzen sweater set in copper with flirty brown scarf and two-tone flats. A straight and narrow Camel-colored skirt with two kick pleats front and back is topped by 100% copper wool sweater in a novelty fluff, modeled by Deneice Kenyon who will be off to the University of Oregon come September. Her 49er wool jacket in brown, blue and white will be perfect for the first cool fall days.

LITTLE GIRLS WITH FRECKLED NOSES also go to school (next year). Small Glenda Cable who is kindergarten age and will go to Shasta School in 1955 gets a good fit at Van Orman's, headquarters for shoes for all ages. With her are her mother, Mrs. Flora Cable, and sister Carolyn, 14, a freshman at Henley high school who has just been fitted with the traditional white buck saddle oxford by J. O. Svegarden, clerk at Van Orman's.
