

MERRILL

By ROBERTA DEWEY

Lost River Garden Club members and their guests enjoyed a potluck picnic at the Malin park, July 27, the regular meeting date.

The group met at 10 a.m. and toured the gardens of Mrs. Den West, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. James Hammond, Mrs. Lawson Kandra, Mrs. C. E. Sharp, and Mrs. Randall Pope in Merrill, and also Mrs. Valery Bauerberg's garden in Malin. The club meets next on August 24, at the home of Mrs. George Chin. "Roses and Delphinium" will be the topic discussed. Mr. and Mrs. John Giacomini, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Eagle, and Mrs. Dale West drove a group of Merrill students to Ashland Tuesday evening to attend the first performance of "The Merry Wives of Windsor" at the Shakespearean theater there. The play was of special interest to them as they had heard a review of it the night before given by Anthony Giacomini. Students going to Ashland Tuesday were, Sara West, Margaret Ann

Qualls, Doris Raines, Peggy Carson, Mary Jo Hendrickson, Wilene Black, Barbara Hodges, Joyce Haslam, Betty Ienbice, Nancy Dewey, Robert Wilson, George Hodges and Jim Robinette. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lemler and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barry will take

students over for the second presentation of the same play. Those planning to go are Katherine Ahern, Danny and Jackie Berry, Chris and Loretta Lemler, and Jim Cheyne. Mrs. Robert Selby and children, Dawn and Mitchell, Medford, are spending the week at the home of her mother Mrs. George Williams. Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevens, Tulelake, and grandson Danny, who is visiting them from Roseburg, came up to visit for the day. Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Williams are sisters.

SWEETNESS
Adding a quarter cup of perfection's sugar to a cup of cream that is to be whipped, gives an amount of sweetness that is generally liked. And adding a dash salt will point up the sweetness.
