

Giants Invade Ebbets Field For Important Battle

Braves Cop Sixth Straight

By Ben Pilegar
AP Sports Writer

The New York Giants may find out tonight whether luck is still on their side.

They invade Brooklyn for three games with the second place Dodgers and the way both teams have been playing, luck will go a long way in determining the outcome.

Neither New York nor Brooklyn has been a ball of fire in recent weeks. They've stayed 1-2 in the National League pennant chase mainly by default.

Now the Milwaukee Braves are creeping up. Many more mistakes by either of the first two clubs could prove fatal.

So far the Giants have held most of the trumps in their showdowns with their metropolitan rivals. They've won of the 13 games and lead the Dodgers by 3 1/2 lengths. Six of the remaining nine games will be played in Brooklyn, three in the last week of the season.

Fans have been gauging up on the Brooklyn box office but the managers remain strangely silent. Neither Leo Durocher nor Walt Alton has gone so far as to predict a sweep.

Durocher even has been hesitant in picking a pitcher. For two seasons Sal Maglie has been the automatic choice to open any series with Brooklyn. But the aging right-hander was whipped in the Giants' last trip across the river and Leo has notions of using Ruben Gomez tonight with Maglie waiting for tomorrow's sunshine. Carl Erskine definitely will go for the Dodgers tonight.

The clubs should be rested. They both had the day off yesterday. Milwaukee took advantage of their idleness and moved within 6 1/2 games of the top and within three games of Brooklyn by beating, St. Louis 3-1. Cincinnati whipped Chicago 8-0 in the only other National League action.

The New York Yankees picked up half a game on Cleveland by winning a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athletics 6-4 and 7-1. But the Indians trounced Detroit 10-1 and still lead by 2 1/2 games. Boston and Washington split. The Senators won the first game 9-5 but were shut out by Frank Sullivan in the second 5-0. Baltimore and Chicago weren't scheduled.

Philadelphia made the Yanks work for the first game, coming from behind twice to tie before Mickey Mantle decided matters in the eighth with his 25th home run.

Four runs in the first inning, including a lead off homer by Hank Bauer, sewed up the nightcap in a hurry.

The Indians pounded three Detroit pitchers for 13 hits including Al Rosen's three-run homer, his first into the seats this month. Rosen, deep in a slump, has hit safely only three times in his last 44 at bats. Bob Lemon coasted to his 18th victory.

Jackie Jensen hit his 19th homer for the Red Sox in their first game loss to Washington and was the batting star of the Boston victory in the second game as he drove in two runs and scored a pair.

Lefty Warren Spahn, who has had trouble winning this season, was in top form for the Braves against the Cardinals. He threw a six-hitter, struck out seven and walked nobody. In winning their sixth straight and their 17th in their last 19 outings, the Braves bunched all of their runs in the fourth inning on an error, two singles, a double by Andy Pafko and a long foul fly. The loss was the fifth in a row for St. Louis.

Cincinnati moved within its second straight power victory over the Cubs. The Redlegs ran their home run total to eight in two days with blasts by Ted Kluszewski, Jim Greengrass and Wally Post. A triple by Kluszewski drove in the winning runs.

Stengel Has Likes For A's

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel doesn't care where they move the Philadelphia franchise as long as it's the same old feeble, futile and cooperative Athletics.

It is weren't for manager Eddie Joost's woeful looking cellar-dweller, Stengel's defending champion New York Yankees might have been out of the race long ago. Thanks to the A's, the Yankees today are on a modest four-game winning streak that has boosted them to within 2 1/2 games of Cleveland's league leaders.

Wise old Casey was discreet enough not to say anything that might sound disparaging about the Philadelphia club after yesterday's 5-4 and 7-1 doubleheader sweep. But he couldn't refrain from expressing gratification that his club still has nine more games to play with the A's.

"We've got a break in the schedule," Stengel admitted. "In that we play Philadelphia nine more games while Cleveland plays them only four more. Also we've got only three more with Chicago and five with Detroit while them other fellas (the Indians) have six with Chicago and 10 with Detroit."

The sweep of the four-game series made the Yankees' season record against the A's 11 victories against two defeats.

The Yanks have 40 games left to play and 27 are against the second division teams as compared to Cleveland's 43 games, and only 21 against second division clubs.

Pel Grid Season Gets Early Start

Coach John McGinnis received good news this week from the Oregon Schools Activities Association that will get the KUHS football season underway about two weeks earlier than previously planned.

Earlier in the year the association stated that football practice for high schools could not be held before September 1, but the group nullified the state high school coaches that the ruling will not be effective until September 1 of this year.

With this news, McGinnis, who is making his debut this season as head football coach, issued a call for all Pelican grid candidates to report to Modoc Field for their physicals Monday, August 23, at 9:30.

Equipment will be issued that afternoon at 1:30 and the first practice session will get underway Tuesday, August 24, according to McGinnis.

Out Of Doors With The Sportsman

By CLAYTON HANNON

Fly fishing and trolling took over the spotlight last Saturday and Sunday for most local anglers, and this weekend should be another good time for these two types of fishing.

The Little Deschutes near Crescent and North, towards Bend, should be good this weekend, with Basin anglers have had good luck on the orange with black spots Jensen Lure with the gold back. The Daredevil with the copper backing, the Thomas Lures and Flat Fish have also been fairly good this past week, but not like they have in the earlier part of the season.

Bait fishing on the Williamson has been good also. Dale Gallagher the grey patterns working to the best for the fly fisherman. Spring Creek should also produce fair for the late evening fisherman with either the grey or yellow hackle.

Both Forks of the Sprague River have been good to excellent on flies throughout the last couple of weeks. The Black Drake and the Coachman flies have been doing very well according to the reports received from anglers fishing these waters.

One other possibility for the fly pole artist is the high lakes. Burt, Harriet or Como lakes have been good on flies in the last couple of weeks. A small fly should work the best on these waters, probably the number 12 or 14 Mosquito would fit the bill.

Trolling at the mouth of Williamson River and Agency Lake has been good and this area should again be good this weekend and next. The waters below the Williamson River Store has been the best for the trolling fisherman.

The Lucky Lady lure, the fairly new guaranteed fishing lure, has been very hot for most anglers near the mouth of the river. Roy Spoons, number four or five, along with the same size Andy Reeker seems to be another top flight lure. The Daredevil has also produced some good catches for trollers.

Also in this same area, spin fishing has been fair to good, with the Silver Wobble-Rite working the best during the morning the early afternoon hours, and the Copper producing better in the late afternoon fishing hours.

Besides these two lures, several

Tam O'Shanter In Fantastic Opening

CHICAGO (AP) — The "world" championship at Tam O'Shanter, paying the winner $50,000 in cash and a guaranteed $50,000 exhibition contract, today was off to one of the most fantastic starts in golf tournament history.

With Earl Stewart Jr.'s 65 the best effort, 54 of the 96 pros matched or bettered Tam's standard 36-36-72 in yesterday's first round. It was one of the biggest uprisings against par ever recorded in a major golf tournament.

"Let 'em shoot for it," said Matt Niesen, president of Tam O'Shanter and chairman of the rules committee. "Let 'em have fun."

In yesterday's opening action the bigshots hit the warpath with a wild gleam.

At the present rate Byron Nelson's 72-hole Tam record of 269-19 under par—set in 1945 appeared in jeopardy and the $10,000 extra prize for breaking Lloyd Mangrum's course record of 63 carved in 1948 may even go down the drain.

Stewart, of Dallas, whose last tourney victory was in the Ardmore Open 16 months ago, appeared like an innocent bystander in a terrific jam as he set out to protect his lead. The red-haired, former National Intercollegiate champion from Louisiana State, posted his dazzling 30-35-65 early as the barrier was sprung yesterday, then dared anyone to come close.

Walter Burkemo, the 1953 National PGA champion and runner-up this year, blazed home in 66. Johnny Palmer, Bob Toski and Dutch Harrison caught the money in the National Intercollegiate champion from Louisiana State, posted his dazzling 30-35-65 early as the barrier was sprung yesterday, then dared anyone to come close.

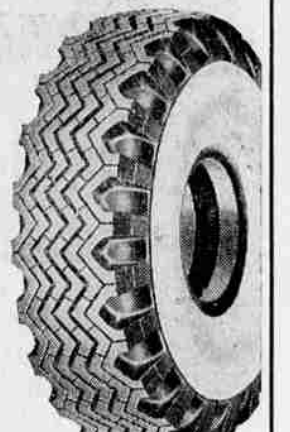

On the track at 69 were Porky

Oliver, Jack Burke, Belgian Flory Van Donck and such unheralded sharpshooters as Mike Souchnak and Bill Ogden.

Grouped at 70 were 11 marksmen, including Doug Ford, Tam's All-American champion Jerry Barber, Lloyd Mangrum and Cary Middlecott.

Even the women were having a picnic with par. Patty Berg took aim in the $12,000 women's pro bracket with a blistering 69 to match Babe Zaharias' competitive course record set last week in the Tam All-American.

HELLO FRIENDS:
I would personally recommend this 1951 Dodge Coronet, 4 door. It is a one owner car and has only 29,842 actual miles on it, 4 new Firestone white wall tires and has lots of accessories. Inside and out this car is exceptionally clean, it sells for $1195.00 and I consider it an exceptional buy.
