Listoe; Mrs. Robert McKenzie and her mother, Mrs. W. S. Swigart. The mothers are Mrs. W. D. Miller's sisters.

Center circle, bride's brother, Don briefs her on how to use one of his "pet" cameras — which he lent them for their wedding trip pictures. Trio in next picture, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lewis, parents of the bridegroom from Hood River, with usher Robert Copper, The Dalles. Right circle, the bride and bridegroom cut the cake with a beautiful cake knife given them by Mrs. Loren Palmerton — a useful keepsake to be treasured — with an etched design on the blade; and a pink and gold handle of porcelain — Mrs. Palmerton ordered it from England. Lower left, maid of honor, JoAnn Ebinger and Marilyn at one of the gift tables.

Chapter Night WOM Program

MERRILL — The Mooseheart Alumna committee, Mabel Hollander-Chaffman, held a chapter night program at the August 3 meeting of Merrill Women of the Moose Chapter 18.

Rose Spolek reported on a potato festival planning-meeting, held last week. The lodge will have a concession during the festival, and also will be in charge of the check room at the festival dances. Catherine Bailey was appointed chairman in charge of constructing a float for the festival parade.

Senior Regent Blanche Fies, reported on an executive board meeting held in Klamath Falls recently. Hazel Hundley reported on a meeting in the Moose Hall, Friday evening, which was attended by all committee chairmen. Senior Regent Blanche Fies served refreshments following the meeting.

Susan Williams told of the new ambulance to be purchased at Tulelake, to serve the Tulelake, Malin and Merrill areas.

A pie sale was held following the meeting with proceeds used to pay the baby sitter, who is in attendance during the meetings.

Reception In River Setting Follows Nuptials At St. Paul's

All details of the beautiful and impressive wedding of Marilyn Marcia Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller, 640 Conger Avenue, to Phillip Lee Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lewis, Hood River, were planned by the bride.

White gladioli and blue delphinium were used for floral decorations in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, August 7, where the 2 p.m. service was read by the bride's godfather, the Rev. Dr. J. Henry Thomas, former Klamath Falls resident and rector of St. Paul's . . . now rector at St. Clement's, Berkeley.

Janice Larson, organist, accompanied Margaret Gerber, vocal soloist. Both are close friends of the bride. Candelighters were Dee Ann Avilla, and brother, Joel, Marilyn's cousins from Weed.

Recent illness of the bride's father prevented his attending the wedding and acting for him, Marilyn's brother, W. Don Miller, gave her in marriage.

Marilyn's wedding gown was an exquisite creation of filmy imported white nylon organza frosted in matching tulle embroidery. The fitted bodice was made with a low, shallow vee neckline, shirred effect close fitting "top" — with long sleeves of the lace pointed over the hands. The full floor-length skirt was designed with a panel of lace in front; and wide generously gathered ruffles extended in tiers from the waistline across the back, ending in a brief train.

Her circular fingertip veil of illusion was anchored to a wide, snug band of the net, outlined with a tiny pearl-entwined roll of the same material — and secured with seed pearl contour-bands at and pearls sparkling in an irregular wide border, following the scallop detail. The senior Mrs. Lewis wore a smart silk linen, with matching bands of cut-embroidery insertion set in the skirt and outlining the neckline. Both of the mothers wore shoulder corsages of single white and rose-pink orchids, which had been sent from Honolulu by a friend of Phillip's.

The 450 wedding guests were received at the home of the bride's parents. The river setting is perfect for the big roomy house of stone and wood in warm tones that blend into the surroundings. The spacious lawn in back of the house is a sweep of flower-bordered green — sloping to the rushing waters of Link River; and in the shade of the beautiful old trees — were placed the champagne and punch tables. Cool, airy, comfort delighted the guests on the warm August afternoon.

Pouring were Mrs. Mabel Taber, Klamath River; and Mrs. W. S. Swigart, Montague; both Mrs. Miller's sisters. Mrs. Taber's daughter, Mrs. W. S. (Lois) Listoe, Sebastopol California; and Mrs. Swigart's daughter, Mrs. Robert McKenzie, San Francisco, cut the cake. Guest book was carried by Marilyn Gerber.

Serving at the punch table were Mrs. Joe De Avilla, cousin of the bride, Weed; and bridegroom's sister, Mrs. C. E. Burris, Hood River. Assisting were Mrs. Lloyd Lamb, San Francisco; Mrs. Mildred (Stevie) Maguire; Mrs. Wesley McDowell, aunt of the bride from Redmond; and another aunt, Mrs. LeRoy Sly, Klamath, California.

Marilyn attended the University of Oregon for one year; later completing a business and dental assistant course at OTI, and was graduated from there this spring.

Phillip is a senior at U of O, majoring in foreign languages. They will live in Eugene while he continues his studies.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are honeymooning in Victoria, B.C., and for travel, Marilyn wore a charcoal suit with red accessories — and instead of the usual corsage — she wore a lei of white carnations, sent from the islands with the orchids.

Guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Copper, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lewis, Mrs. Karsten Lewis, Robert Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burris, Hood River; Ken Dunham, Mrs. Hilda Dunham, Oakland, California; Mrs. Leona Lewis, Etna, California; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jorgensen, Karen J. J. J. and Martha Jorgensen, San Luis Obispo; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sly, Klamath, California; Dr. and Mrs. Doug Morrison, Redwood City; Mrs. Elizabeth Murray and Jack Adair, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Joe De Avilla, and Dee Ann and Joel, Weed; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Yeoman and Diana, Robert and Rickey, Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brown and Mike, Langell Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Don Rice, and Suzanne and Robert, Dairy; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lamb, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Swigart, William Swigart Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Crawford, and Fenley, David and Verril, Montague; Perle Hogle, Yreka; Lucien Gollins, Corning; Mrs. Mabel Taber, Klamath River; Mr. and Mrs. S. Listoe, Sebastopol; Mrs. Jack Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Owen, Dorris.

ceremony was announced by 6 trumpeters who apparently had just stepped out of a medieval picture and with great flourish and precision marched to the center of the field and trumpeted in unison what sounded like a royal welcome to a mighty king. Pedestals of different heights—3 of 'em were provided for 1st, 2nd and 3rd winners—What Fern shot at first was a boy scout—stood behind the 1st place pedestal and acted as escort to the winner—with others in the background—When she remarked about the noise shown by the "Boy Scouts"—Joe laughed and handed her the binoculars—which revealed considerable 5 p.m. shadow and a sprinkling of mature mus-taches—scout leaders—of course. The medals were usually presented by Lord Alexander—an impressive figure himself—all this with the spectators standing—and the finale was the playing of the national anthem of the winner's native country—entirely new to most of the listeners. All contestants must be British subjects—but that covers a lot of territory—His Royal Highness, Philip, The Duke of Edinburgh was there—along with other personages the Peaks ran into — like Paul Angstead, Len Surlis and Bud Robertson—Bend coach—anti-climax is that on way to games Fern and Joe tried a little salmon fishing—no luck—but went clammin' and had plenty.

TIONESTA REUNION — There should be quite a crowd August 28 at the Lake Redding Park down Redding way — There's a sizable number of ex-Tionestaites around the country — who will be interested in the Sat nite potluck supper.

BEFORE Marilyn Miller's wedding — included in the hostesses who entertained for her — I noticed two mother and daughter events — that is — Mrs. Harold Teale and ditr Patty entertained for M at the Teale home — and Mrs. Berkeley E. Eells and ditr Beverly were hostesses together at the Eells home at Cove Point.

SOMETIMES — it can be a PICNIC to give a luncheon — 'n that's what smart hostess Mrs. Howard Barnhisel did recently — With so many out of town — and some just "in and out" — Bab planned an informal picnic-luncheon for Mary Jane (Mrs. George)

VISITORS — at the 1871 Portland home of Hermie and Mabel (Mr. and Mrs. C. H.) Foster — the James Howards and 2 sprouts Danny and Diana from L.A. — Mrs. H is the former Frances Foster — and tomorrow they go to Lakeview to visit her brother Circuit Judge Charles Foster Jr. (Lake County) appointed by Governor Patterson. Will be a candidate in Nov.
