MR. AND MRS. FRANK L. FOSTER HONEYMOONING IN BAY AREA

Eileen Teresa Brosman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brosnan, Meelin, Newmarket, County Cork, Ireland, became the bride of Frank Lawing Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Foster, Lakeview, August 7, in Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The Rev. T. P. Casey officiated at the 9:30 a.m. Nuptial Mass and papal blessing. John Ely was organist for the wedding, which was a candlelight service, before a background of white gladioli, with touches of yellow and green daisies, a perfect foil for the bride's traditional white gown of Chantilly lace. The sculptured bodice and slim-fitted waistline were accentuated by the grand sweep of the cathedral train. A seed-pearl crown of the same Chantilly lace held her full circular veil of pure silk imported illusion. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white, yellow-throated orchid tied with streamers and Stephanotis flowers.

Her uncle, Ben T. Murphy, Merrill, gave her in marriage. Maid of honor was Nora Murphy, cousin of the bride, and Ellen Murphy, also cousin, was bridesmaid. Both wore Nile green ballerina-length frocks of organza over taffeta; small bandeaus of nymph-green net and matching slippers. Their bouquets were yellow and white colonial arrangements. James Scroggins served as best man; and ushering were Derward Merrill, Lakeview; and David Landrum.

Mrs. Brosnan, bride's mother, was unable to come from Ireland for her daughter's wedding. Bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue ensemble and a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds.

Guests were received in the Sacred Heart parish hall immediately after the reception. Mrs. Fay Durbin and Mrs. Violet Palm presided at the coffee service. Mrs. A. L. Rainwater and Mrs. James Scroggins cut the cake.

Birthday Party

Farewell Party For Two Couples

MERRILL — Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick were the honored guests at a farewell party Sunday evening August 8, in the Presbyterian Church social parlor. Seventy-five friends of the two couples enjoyed the potluck supper and musical entertainment which followed. The Rev. George Milne made the gift presentation, and Jed Murphy was master of ceremonies.

The musical program during the evening included a vocal solo by Carol Poe; piano solos, Lillian Thomas; vocal trio, Phyllis Rankin, Carol Wynant and Jerry Murphy; and several quartet numbers by "The Foreborders," Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Jed Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond and two young daughters are moving to Klamath Falls, and the Kilpatricks will live in Eugene. Both couples have been active in church and civic affairs during their residence here.

Host of Friends At Shower For Mrs. Robert Magnuson

FORT KLAMATH — At eight o'clock Wednesday evening, August 4, the C.I. Clubhouse was the setting for a beautifully arranged shower given in honor of Mrs. Robert Magnuson, (nee Joyce Copeland), bride of July 8. Hostesses were Mrs. William C. Martin, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescocck, Mrs. Donald W. Wimer, Mrs. Daniel Brown, Mrs. Richard O. Varnum and Mrs. Harold L. Wimer.

Delphinium in all shades of blue, combined with white Shasta daisies and other summer blooms, from the garden of Mrs. Seth Dixon and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Sr., were used in profusion about the rooms and on the tables. A white satin ribbon-covered arch, beneath which stood miniature figurines of a bride and bridegroom, small pink bells and tall lighted tapers accented the wedding motif, of which the predominating decorating colors were pink, blue and white.

Guests were entertained by a mock wedding ceremony. "The Rev. Petunia Twiddlebottom," (Mrs. Harold L. Wimer) was officiating minister. The "bride" was Patti Lou Hescocck, and the unwilling "bridegroom" was her sister, Sharon. "Bridesmaid" was Gladys Kendall, and "matron of honor," Mrs. William C. Martin. "Mother" of the bride, "Father" of the kids was Mrs. W. B. Hescocck. In full cowboy regalia and wearing toy six-shooters, little

B-days Shared For 15th Year

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Dee Chandler and Gloria came over from Lakeview Monday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Les Leavitt. Cora and Dee celebrated their birthdays as they have for the past 15 years, either at Lakeview or Langell Valley.

Joining them later in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and family; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pepple, Michelle and Pamela; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Harris and Howard Pepple and daughter Gladys. Kirkland, Washington joined them for a pleasant evening.

Host of Friends At Shower For Mrs. Robert Magnuson

Harold Charles Redden and his brother Leslie acted as "train bearer" and ring bearer, respectively, the former carrying a real toy train. The unusual wedding party entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, with Mrs. Jack Taylor at the piano.

Following the mock wedding, gifts were opened by the young bride, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Alvin Q. (Myrtle) Copeland. Mrs. Daniel Brown recorded the gift list.

Refreshments were served in the club dining room from a lace-covered buffet table decked with summer blooms and lighted pink tapers. Guests were seated in the main room at long tables, also with flower and lighted taper decorations.

Punch and coffee were served from large crystal punch bowls and silver coffee services placed at either end of the refreshment table; which was centered with a large white and silver decorated cake, made especially for the occasion by Mrs. W. T. Oates Jr.

Gifts were opened from the following: Mrs. Fred Zumbun and Mrs. F. J. Danforth, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Myrtle Denton, Ashland; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Beymer; and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beymer, all of Eugene; Mrs. Roy Deffenbacher, Mrs. Norman Wimer, Mrs. Albert Rossi and Mrs. Lena Johnson, Chiloquin; Mrs. Carroll Pittman, of Ashland and Fort Klamath; the bride's mother, Mrs. Harry Enzie, bride's paternal aunt, cousins, Mrs. Weston Engle and Mrs. Clifford Engle, all of Fort Klamath; Mrs. Walter J. Wright and Mrs. Frank Kendall.

Mrs. Wesley J. Smith, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer, Mrs. Francis D. Brown, Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain, Mrs. Blaine Brattain, Mrs. Jack Taylor, Lou Hescocck, Patsy Nicholson, Marie Nicholson, Audrey Varnum, Linda Pope and Karen More, all of Fort Klamath.

Bonanza IOOF Hosts Picnic

BONANZA—The IOOF Lodge of Bonanza was host at a picnic for Odd Fellows and Rebekah's from Merrill, Lakeview and Klamath Falls, Sunday, August 8, at the Sprague River Park. A delicious picnic lunch was served at noon. Coffee and water-melons were furnished by the Bonanza Lodge to the large crowd. Fishing, swimming and pinocle were part of the day's diversion for all ages.
