Red Chinese Play Host To British

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Labor party delegation visiting Communist China followed a busy schedule of sightseeing, talks and socializing today.

British correspondents accompanying former Prime Minister Clement Attlee, left-wing leader Aneurin Bevan and six other leading Laborites reported the party was greeted everywhere in Peking with cordiality and friendliness.

The Britons arrived in the Red Chinese capital by plane Saturday from Moscow. Later this week they go to Mukden for four days of inspecting industrial development in Manchuria, then return to Peking for a meeting with the Red Chinese chief, Mao Tse-tung.

Premier Chou En-lai was the visitors' host at a 5 1/2-hour lunch yesterday. Deryck Winterton, accompanying the party for the Labor party organ, the Daily Herald, reported that Chinese-British relations, including East-West trade, were discussed.

(Efforts by The Associated Press to obtain visas for a reporter to accompany the Attlee party to Red China were unsuccessful.)

Winterton said the visitors also asked questions about the Chinese constitution and trade unions and that "answers" were given.

He said the delegation's requests to visit such Peking points as a prison, schools, hospitals, a mine and a textile plant were all granted. He added that the Chinese people were "cheerful and friendly."

Chou's luncheon yesterday was given at one of the former imperial palaces. The menu included lotus flower roots, bamboo shoots and shrimps. Toasts were drunk in vodka-like malt.

An official banquet for the Laborites was scheduled tonight.

In London, observers speculated that Chou in his talks with Attlee was pressing his new, stepped-up campaign to get Formosa from under the control of Chiang Kai-shek.

FLOODS
TOKYO (AP) — Torrential rains on Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost main island, have flooded 3,500 acres of farmland and more than a thousand houses, Kyodo news service reported today.

Lost Son Found

There in the temple, among the doctors of the law, Joseph and Mary located Jesus, then a lad of twelve. Although so young, His questions and answers astonished all and no wonder Jesus was God the Son and He opened the eyes of those men of the law for He knew God's true intent even though the experts had covered the law with many a man-made rule. That hour there in the temple, Geo. N. Taylor Jesus, as the Son of Man, went back to Nazareth and learned the carpenter's trade. He became the Carpenter of Nazareth and with muscles of iron. At the age of thirty, He went out among the people with miracles that proved Him to be the Son of God. At the end, He took your sins and died under them to set you right with God the Father. Have Him as your eternal Saviour and God gives you eternal life. This space sponsored by a Portland Lumberman and Wife.
