

Dodgers Cut Giant Lead With Series Sweep

Braves Edge By Chicago

By JACK HAND

Brooklyn's glee over dumping "them Giants" three in a row is tempered by the knowledge that giddy Milwaukee, on a nine-game spree, shows no signs of running out of firewater.

The Giants' lead, once a bulging seven games, now measures only half a game over the Dodgers. The Braves are 3 1/2 games behind.

If Brooklyn beats the Phillies tonight in the only game scheduled, they'll trail New York by only .002.

Brooklyn bumped off New York yesterday 9-4 for a sweep of their three-game series while Milwaukee squeaked past Chicago 2-1.

St. Louis barely survived, 14-12, over Cincinnati when Gus Bell, Ted Kluszewski and Jim Greenberg hit successive homers in the ninth inning. Pittsburgh won its fourth straight 9-6, its longest streak of the year, at Philadelphia and rallied to tie the second game 6-6 in the eighth when the curfew forced play to be suspended.

Cleveland moved three full games in front of New York in the American League race, as the Indians ran their winning streak to six by downing Baltimore 5-2 and 3-1.

The Yanks scored eight in the first inning on the way to a 14-9 decision over Boston, their seventh straight. Chicago was practically eliminated from the pennant race by losing twice to Detroit 2-1 and 8-7, Johnny Nunez game behind Cleveland. Johnny Schmitz pitched Washington to a 4-1 victory over Philadelphia.

Billy Loes' pitching was a most important factor in Brooklyn's success against New York. The young right-hander calmly set down the Giants with seven hits for his sixth straight triumph. After Jim Hearn's wildness presented the Brooks with three gift runs in the second, the slugger took over. Duke Snider and Gil Hodges homered and Jackie Robinson contributed two doubles. Willie Mays hit No. 37 — his first since July 28 — and Ray Katt, Al Dark and Hank Thompson also hit home runs for New York.

Gene Conley, the Braves' lanky rookie, won his 12th with a seventh-inning shutout. He pitched a scoreless eighth and ninth. Joe Adcock's double and Johnny Logan's single in the fourth proved the winner after Milwaukee scored an unearned run on Vern Morgan's wild throw in the third.

The homers by Bell, Kluszewski and Greenberg tied a record held by many clubs but couldn't save Cincinnati from defeat. Joe Cunningham's homer with two on and Stan Musial's 31st helped the Cards win a wild one.

The Pirates won the opener in Philadelphia with the help of Frank Thomas' homer. The second game was played under protest. Manager Fred Haney claimed Willie Jones threw his glove at a Bob Skinner line drive single in the seventh. A wild pitch by Steve Ridzik allowed the Pirates to tie the score.

Larry Doby and Bobby Avila slammed homers in Cleveland's sweep over Baltimore. Doby hit No. 27 with two on in the sixth inning of the first game after Baltimore scored twice on winner Art Houtteman. Avila's 12th homer got the Indians off on top in the second game, won by Mike Garcia over Lou Kretlow.

Bobo Olson, a 27-year-old ex-Marine now living in Cleveland, has swept his last 10 scraps. This one should be interesting because of Bobo's aggressive, buzz-saw style. The champ likes to move in and swing away. Castellani, on the other hand, prefers to have an opponent come to him and Olson certainly won't disappoint him.

Starting time for the 15-rounder is 9 p.m., EST. NBC will broadcast and telecast the show. San Francisco and a 100-mile area around it will be blacked out of TV.

Unbeaten Frankie Ryff, who meets New Orleans' clever Ralph Dupas, faces veteran Dennis Pat Brady in the 10-round lightweight main event at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena tonight. ABC will handle the telecast at 9 p.m., EST.

In another TV 10-rounder tonight, two imports, Gerry Dreyer of South Africa and El Conscripto of Mexico City, collide at New York's St. Nicholas Arena. Du Mont telecasts at 9 p.m., EST.

The go-ahead touchdown was set up by a blocked Giant punt. The ball rolled out of bounds on the two. Title went over from there. Hardy Brown booted a 13-yard field goal for the insurance points.

Klamath Girls' Team Wins Championship

The Klamath Falls entry in the State Women's Softball Tournament, which was the "champion" this year by whipping Oswego in the championship game yesterday afternoon at Portland by a 6-3 score.

Taking wins from Eugene, Hillsboro and Oswego on Friday and Saturday's action placed the local girls' team in the finals undefeated, but Oswego evened the vital playoff standings with a 5-1 win in the first game yesterday afternoon.

In Saturday evening's game with Oswego, Mickey Hayman and Oswego's Jackie Rice hooked into a pitching duel that went scoreless for 11 innings, then Hayman tripled for the Klamath entry and Maxine Johnson singled her home for the winning run of the game and a 1-0 victory for last year's runner-up.

The score of Saturday evening's game was identical to the score which Oswego posted over the local team last year in the championship game.

In the first game yesterday, three errors and a home run led to the downfall of the Klamath Falls team, as Oswego handed the all-stars from Southern Oregon their first defeat 5-1. Florence Dick homered for Oswego with one team mate on base.

Scoring once in the first and third innings and two run tallies in the fourth and seventh frames gave the local team their needed insurance for the championship win and the state title.

Mary Taylor led the winners at the plate with two safeties, while Margaret Scala and Mickey Hayman combined talents for the title victory on the mound.

Along with the team honors went all-state selection to five members of the Klamath Falls entry in the state meet. Ruth Hagelstein made the all-state team for the third time in a row, by gaining the first base selection, and "Teddy" Walker was named to the all-state catcher's position for the second straight year.

Mickey Hayman, Darlene Gordon and Sandra Barron were all named for the first time to the state all-star team. Hayman gained the first team pitcher's position, Gordon an outfield spot, and Barron the utility infield position.

Gene Conley, the Braves' lanky rookie, won his 12th with a seventh-inning shutout. He pitched a scoreless eighth and ninth.

Starting time for the 15-rounder is 9 p.m., EST. NBC will broadcast and telecast the show. San Francisco and a 100-mile area around it will be blacked out of TV.

Bill's Wins First Game Of Play-off

Bill's Place took over the drivers seat yesterday afternoon by leading Medford 3-0 and take a lead over the valley 6 of 11 all champions in a best of three series to decide which team will enter the state tournament from Southern Oregon.

The Klamath Falls Softball Association champions played errorless softball over the seven inning route, while Bob Smith pitched shutout ball against the Medford nine, while limiting them to three scattered hits. Smith set six Medford hitters down by strikeouts.

Rex Young accounted for all three of Bill's runs as he singled home two runners in the first inning for two tallies and then stole home himself in the top of the third frame for the final run.

Eddie Hall led the Klamath Falls champions with three hits in four times at bat, collecting half of the six hits that Medford's Britsan issued.

Next evening the same two teams meet in a do-or-die game for the Medford nine. Should Bill's win tonight's game at Conger Field, Medford will be out of any further bid for the state championship.

Caj Bonney, Bill's ace pitcher, will be on the mound tonight for the Klamath entry, while Medford will probably counter with the pitching of Lee Flink.

Game time is 8:30, and a small admission will be made to help defray the traveling expenses of the local softball association's entry to the state tournament, should they win tonight's game.

Starting time for the 15-rounder is 9 p.m., EST. NBC will broadcast and telecast the show. San Francisco and a 100-mile area around it will be blacked out of TV.

Late Game Homer Hands 'Jacks' Loss

A last of the ninth home run turned victory into defeat for the El Dorado Lumberjacks yesterday afternoon as the league leading Bend Loggers came from behind to take an 8-6 win from the Klamath Falls entry in the Oregon-California League.

With the score tied at 6-6 and Phil Jantze on second following an error and a sacrifice, Tommy Hunt, the Ex-Bend High School basketball and baseball star, unloosed one of Jojo George's pitches for a two run homer for the Bend win.

Eldorado tallied first in the second inning with two runs on Fran Miller's double and "Wee" Willie Dunster's two-out home run. Bend tied the score in their half of the fifth, but a three run uprising by the Lumberjacks in the top of the seventh inning left the O-C leaders on the short end of the score once again.

Miller started the inning off with a single. Dunster walked and Art Westhouse was safe on an error, filling the bases. Pat Williams singled home two runs and Don Sunitsch smashed out a double scoring Westhouse for the final run of the inning.

Irv Whitt's double combined with two Bend errors on the play furnished the final run of the afternoon for the visiting Lumberjacks.

Bend set the stage for Hunt's game winning blow with a two run eighth inning. Logger pitcher Jim Beck walked after two were out and second baseman Twinkle Peterson homered off Williams.

Ron Owings and Miller led the Eldorado club in hitting with two hits apiece, while Dunster's home run was the big blow for the Klamath Falls club. Phil Jantze collected two of the Bend hits to lead the Loggers.

Next weekend, the Lumberjacks will play the Tulelake semi-pro ballclub in an exhibition contest at Recreation Field starting at 1:30.

Stars' Manager Suspended

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Manager Bobby Bragan of the Hollywood Stars, fireball of the Pacific Coast League, is under indefinite suspension Monday as his team hangs on to a 1 1/2 game lead in the pennant race.

It was the second suspension blow to hit the champions, seeking their third straight title, in four days. Carlos Bernier, the club's leading batter and the league's leading base stealer, was banished for the rest of the season Thursday, for slapping an umpire in a San Diego game the night before.

The league president, Clarence Rowland, suspended Bragan until further notice Sunday for "threatening umpire Frank Walsh, using foul and abusive language and unnecessarily delaying the game." The row occurred Saturday in the last Hollywood-San Diego game of the year when Bragan and third baseman Jack Phillips were ejected for arguing too vociferously on a close play at third. Phillips was fined $50 Sunday.

Rowland agreed to review the Bragan case Monday, declining to move up the hearing. Coach Gordy Maltzberger was in charge as Bragan sat in the grandstand Sunday and watched the Stars split with Sacramento, winning 11-6, opener 5-4 and losing the nightcap 7-3.

Second place San Diego also split as Bill Wight shut out the first Hollywood-San Diego game of the year when Bragan and third baseman Jack Phillips were ejected for arguing too vociferously on a close play at third. Phillips was fined $50 Sunday.

while Burke and Stewart were deadlocked at 258.
While Stewart went for a birdie 4 on the 69th, Burke drove out of bounds and took a 6. Toksi hit a perfect drive, stuck a No. 4 wood 12 feet from the cup and holed the putt for an eagle 3. This tied him with Burke at 264, while Stewart jockeyed ahead with 262.

On the 215-yard 70th, Stewart overtook the green, stubbed a chip shot and finally took a 5. Burke and Toksi parred in 2s.
Stewart, who was behind the other two, parred the 71st and also took a 4 on the 72nd after failing to sink a 13-foot putt for a birdie 3 and took 27s.

Burke and Toksi each took 4 on the 71st.
On the final hole Burke parred with 4, two-putting from 20 feet. Toksi planted his approach eight feet from the pin. He rammed in the putt for a birdie 3 — and it was all over.

All-Stars Meet Portland Team

COACH MARY HOOD will bring his Portland Pennants to Klamath Falls this Thursday night to meet the Klamath Falls All-Stars. The Pennants will be the second major league girls' softball team to make an appearance in Klamath this season. Hood used to coach for Erv Lind and the Florists.

The second major league women's softball team to make an appearance in Klamath Falls will be here Thursday night as the Portland Pennants meet the Klamath Falls All-Stars at Conger Field.

The Pennants are members of the same league as the Erv Lind Florists, who made an appearance against the same team of all-stars last month.

Managed by Dotty Moore, an ex-Lind Florist All-American catcher and the famed battery mate of Betty Evans Grayson for so many years, the Pennants hold victories over many of the teams that have whipped the Florists this season.

Moore has played in the Northwest both amateur and professional leagues for the past 17 years, during the off season from teaching physical education in the Portland City School system.

Pat Carson is the most recent addition to the Pennants team, as she has moved from the Midwest where she has been playing ball with the Chicago Queens in a pro-softball league.

She led the major league team in hitting two years of her service to the Queens. Carson holds a lifetime batting average of .333 for major league competition and is known throughout the country as one of the outstanding outfielders of the game.

The Pennants' ace pitcher, Doris Barrett is another ex-Erv Lind Florist star, and she too has been selected to an All-American team. In 1951 she was picked as the most valuable player in professional softball.

The all-stars will be comprised of the same team that won the state women's softball championship yesterday in Portland by beating Oswego 6-3.

Led by All-Stars Mickey Hayman, Teddy Walker, Ruth Hagelstein, Darlene Gordon and Sandy Barron, the local all-star team could give the Portland traveling softballers some surprises.

Against the Florists, who are two-time World Champions, Hayman pitched very effectively, while the entire club played good ball to hold the Florists to an 8-4 game.

Tickets are on sale at Hal's Sport Shop, sixth and Main streets in Klamath Falls for this Thursday's game. The proceeds of the game will go into the Girl's Softball fund to help defray expenses compiled throughout the season.

and Harold Runnels beat out Dede Courtney and Luther Loper for the number two position.

Bill Chambers in K-6 gave the first hardtop fans a treat in the first race as he came out of the North turn and lost control of his car, which bounced into the barrier in front of the stands and after a few bumps and bounces dropped back onto the track and continued racing.

Matt Christian took the evening's final heat race by holding a lead through the largest share of the race. George Smith was second, Bob Crawley third and Herb Schultz finished fourth.

Morrison's second win came in the trophy dash as he beat out Bud Cook who finished second. Third and fourth places went to Johnny Hilson and Dale Hankins respectively.

Cook, Morrison, Hankins and Hilson all posted wins in the evening's heat races, while Smith, Schultz, Christian, and Pee Wee Roufs finished second.

Next week's races have been moved to Sunday afternoon by Track Manager Jack Lutz, with the time trials starting at 1:30 and the races getting underway at 2:30.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. — Fisherman ($4.50) won the Traverser Stakes.
