

Legion Plans Stage Play

An enthusiastic cast is at work on "You Can't Beat Fun", the hilarious comedy revue sponsored by the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights, August 20 and 21, at the Mills School auditorium.

Bill Mills, as Lucky Lamson, master of ceremonies, keeps the show moving at a fast pace as a variety of jokes, skits and specialty acts parade across the stage.

Rex Dye, as Big Bertha, and Jack Otterbein, as Senator I. Kisser, appear in a ventriloquist skit that will have the audience rolling in the aisles. Ted Otterbein, Everett Ball, Bill Alexander and Al Longe as Diamond Lil, Frivolous Sal, Minnie the Mocher and Klondike Kate, join "Big Bertha" in the unusual dance of the Broadway Butterflies.

Tom Pierce, Jim Herbert and Cecil Haggreen are featured as the "favorites" in the Menmen Shaving Derby and a dressing race comes as a surprise to two members of the cast, as well as to the spectators.

A highlight of the evening is the silent movie version of "Frankie and Johnny" with Ronnie Bryan as soloist.

Among the many specialty acts will be Bob Mest and his saxophone, a Hawaiian dance by Anna Marie Eck, Darlene Brophy, Barbara Frances James, and various routines featuring Ronnie Owens, Jerry Ruth Wickersham, Nancy Meador and Judy James.

Joining several of the above mentioned girls in a variety of snappy chorals routines are Sandra Hallinan, Norma Young, Sandra Pemberton, Jeanette Thornton, Dolores Corvate, Linda Williams and Dorothy James.

A group of young ladies from Klamath Falls will model the newest fashions from Whytal's Ladies Apparel Shop. Mrs. Harry Van will be the accompanist for the show.

Tickets for this gala show are available from all members of the Drum and Bugle Corps and at the following stores: Derby's Music Shop, Eastside Electric and Specialized Service.

"You Can't Beat Fun" has been breaking records all over the country as the laugh sensation of the year.

Water Meeting To Be Held

PORTLAND — Water resources and their uses will be discussed at the 79th annual meeting of the American Forestry Association which will be held here September 6 through 9.

An afternoon panel on September 6 on water resources will include Stuart Moir, forest counsel, Western Forestry and Conservation Association, Portland, moderator, and Lyle E. Watts, retired chief of the U. S. Forest Service and chairman of the Oregon Water Resources Committee; Paul B. McKee, president, Pacific Power and Light Company, Portland, and Judge Robert W. Sawyer, retired publisher of the Bend Bulletin.

Following the panel will be a discussion of the Keep Oregon Green program by Albert K. Welschendorfer, executive secretary of the Keep Oregon Green Association and a talk by Marshall N. Dana, assistant to the president of the United States National Bank of Portland, on multiple-use planning.

The following three days of the convention will be devoted to field trips. The field trip September 7 will be to Longview, Washington. Stops are scheduled at the Longview Fibre Company, the Long-Bell plant and the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company plant. September 8 will be devoted to a trip up the scenic Columbia River Highway on the Oregon side, while an all-day trip to the Clatsop and Columbia County tree farms of Crown Zellerbach Corporation will climax the meeting on September 9.
