Ruth Milne and Del Jones finished the summer bowling season of the Mixed Doubles League by winning the first shift action after last night's action was over.

The Milne-Jones team also walked off with the final evening's scoring events with their 1209 series and 437 pin high game.

In individual action Carl Brown picked up the lead for the men's 521 series and a 195 game, while the women's action was led by Dorothy McBride with a 546 series and a 213 high game.

VI Kenaston picked up half of the evening's splits with her 4-7-10 combination, while Ruth Milne was knocking over the 4-7-5 trio of pins.

Three years ago Branch Rickey invited a group of sports writers to attend the 1954 World Series in Pittsburgh.

The only way Pittsburgh will see the 1954 World Series is by television, but the old master's amazing assortment of greying veterans and fuzzy-cheeked youngsters apparently is going to have a lot to say about where the series will be played.

Jennie and Louie Pastega put on a final night drive to finish in a tie with Clara and Ralph Beard for the lead of the second shift of the Mixed Doubles League last night at Lucky Lanes.

When both teams finished in a deadlock, a rolloff between them was decided, with the Pastegas winning. The Pastega team also walked away with honors last night with a team game of 449 and a series of 1237 to lead last night's action.

In individual action Louie Pastega won the men's honors with his 494 series and a 222 game, while Clara Beard had a 508 series to lead the lady bowlers with Beth Griggs rolling the high women's single game total of 186.

Jennie Pastega picked up two splits during the evening's action by collecting the 6-7-10 and the 6-7 combinations.

The league pay-offs for the winning teams will be made any time after Saturday according to the league secretary, Beverly Evans. Those who have winnings coming to them, can pick them up at Lucky Lanes at that time.

The last-place Pirates own today's longest winning streak in the National League—five games, including a 4-2 triumph last night over the bewildered Brooklyn Dodgers. Pittsburgh had won 9 of its last 11, the best record by a Pirate team since 1949.

The Dodgers had reason to be bewildered. This was their second loss in Forbes Field in seven starts this season. In 1952 and 1953 they lost there only twice.

Pittsburgh's streak became the longest when the Milwaukee Braves were beaten 4-1 by St. Louis, ending a nine-game string. The league-leading New York Giants beat Philadelphia 8-3, putting them two games in front of Brooklyn, 4 1/2 ahead of the Braves.

Max Surkont, one of the pitchers Milwaukee decided it didn't need this season, beat the Dodgers on five hits. Frank Thomas drove in three of the four runs.

Johnny Antonelli, also traded away by the Braves during the winter, won his 18th game against three losses for the Giants. Bobby Hofman drove in four runs with a pair of homers and a single. Willie Mays smashed a triple and three singles in four times up, running his hitting streak to 18 games.

In the American League, the New York Yankees won their eighth in a row, 11-1 over Philadelphia, and again failed to close the three-game gap on the Cleveland Indians, who came from behind in the last of the ninth and nipped Detroit 4-3 for their seven straight.

Both Chicago teams won double-headers. The Cubs whipped Cincinnati 5-0 and 5-1. The White Sox defeated Baltimore 2-0 and 3-1.

Boston edged Washington 4-3 in their private battle for fifth place in the American League.

A single by Bobby Avila with the bases loaded in the ninth brought victory to the Indians after Detroit twice had held one-run leads. Bob Lemon, who won his 17th game, drove in the tying run in the ninth with a single.

Lemon has eight victories in the last four weeks.

The Yankees turned an easy victory into a runaway at Philadelphia with six runs in the ninth inning. Bill Skowron's pinch-hit, grand-slam homer was the big blow.

Billy Pierce and Virgil Trucks combined for the White Sox's Pierce, who struck out five in a row at one point, was lifted after walking two men in the eighth. The Sox beat Bob Kuzava for the second time in a week in the nightcap with an 11-hit attack.

A pinch homer by Joe Frazier with two aboard in the seventh brought Jim Wilson his first defeat. Wilson had won eight for Milwaukee, four of them shutouts and one a no-hitter. Brooks Lawrence won his 11th game since joining the Cardinals in late June.

Brooklyn scored twice in the first inning on a walk, a single by Pee Wee Reese and a double by Walt Moryn. Surkont walked seven in the first five innings but only his first inning pass to Junior Gilliam hurt him. In the fourth he struck out Duke Snider with the bases loaded and two out.
