Merrill Lions Hold Dinner

MERRILL—The possibility of incorporating the Merrill Lions Club was discussed at their regular dinner meeting Monday evening. W. O. Brickner reported on the pros and cons of such a move, and the final decision will be decided by the board of directors.

Howard Dewey, reported that more funds were needed to complete the summer recreation program, and members voted to allot $200 of Potato Festival funds to carry on the program.

Plans for the 18th annual Klamath Basin Potato Festival, October 22 and 23, were discussed, and a meeting to promote plans for the annual event will be held soon. Mrs. Halbert Wilson has volunteered to write and direct a program of entertainment for the festival.

Attend Meet—Dr. and Mrs. E.M. Causey and Marlin returned Sunday from Glorietta, New Mexico, where they attended the Sunday School Conference at the Southern Baptist Assembly. Dr. Causey left Monday for Tacoma where he will lead in a revival meeting for two weeks.

Camp Fire—office is now open. Mary Ison, office secretary has returned from vacation. Naomi French, executive director is still on vacation and will return to the office, Monday, August 23.

Home—Mrs. Bert Johnson, her son Bert and Larry Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Haynes, all of Tulelake, have returned from Bakersfield where they spent several days. They were accompanied home by Geraldine Johnson and Marietta Milligan who spent two weeks at the Joe Foster home in Bakersfield. Bert Johnson and Foster are in the potato buying and shipping business. The Tulelake group also visited in San Francisco and other points of the bay area.

Ten Pinettes—Bowling League is being organized. Those wishing to bowl call Beverly Evans, phone 6651. League play will be on Sunday afternoon, 2 p.m. this season. A meeting will be held September 1, 7 p.m. at Lucky Lanes.

Three building permits were issued: Tom Cole, drying shed; VFW construction of lodge hall; and to C. E. Sharp for a new garage. Attending the session were Mayor Walker, Attorney W. O. Brickner, City Judge George Williams, and councilmen, Howard Dewey, Paul Lewis and L. E. Stewart.

Lava Beds Tour To Continue

TULELAKE—Historical tours at the Lava Beds National Monument will continue through August, starting each Sunday at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, August 22, Dr. Keith Murray, historian will demonstrate the making of arrowheads as part of the tour. Those planning to go should meet at the north entrance.

Between 16-35 visitors are attending each tour, according to monument official Ray Knox. There will be a visit to the petroglyphs Sunday, August 22, starting at 9:30 a.m.

A slide show of mammals in the monument is scheduled for Mushroom Cave from 3 to 5 p.m. California time. A recent visitor to the Lava Beds was O. C. Applegate Jr., son of the famous Captain Applegate of early history in Klamath County. Mr. and Mrs. Applegate now live in San Francisco where Applegate is affiliated with the Standard Oil Company.

Merrill Council Meeting Held

MERRILL—Mayor Robert Walker presided at a regular meeting of Merrill City Council, Thursday evening, August 12, at the fire hall. Council members voted to pay $15 per month as part of the duty of Brian's salary, and also okayed salary raises for the recorder, watermaster, and supervisor; all of which were included in the new city budget. Also approved was the moving of the city office from the recreation building to the city recorder's office on Front Street.

City recorder Otis Thompson reminds all residents, living within the city limits, that the voter's registration book for city elections is at his office, and those not already registered may do so.
