TULELAKE—Death following a long illness, came to Francis P. Hannon, prominent Tulelake rancher, at mid-afternoon Wednesday, August 18, at Hillside Hospital. He suffered a heart attack several days before.

Ellen Hannon, Klamath Falls, pioneers who came in 1909. He was graduated from the Klamath Falls High School in 1917. He was a veteran of World War I, training at St. Mary's Officers' College, Oakland.

Counterfeiter Prints Billions

TRONDHEIM, Norway (AP)—A crackpot counterfeiter who made more than five billion kroner in fake Norwegian currency was behind bars today because he wanted to make music too.

Police refused to name him, saying he was mentally deranged and they would ask a court to commit him to a mental institution.

The money-maker was arrested yesterday in the nearby village of Selbu after he mailed an order for a harmonica to an Oslo dealer in musical instruments. He enclosed a 5-kroner note from his own press.

The sheriff at Selbu rounded up the culprit and also his printing production. When police finally finished counting last night, the total came to 5,004,074,610 kroner—$714,656,388 worth had it been real.

Skelton Injured In Rehearsal

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A breakaway door that didn't break laid comedian Red Skelton low yesterday during a rehearsal for his CBS television show half an hour before the program was due to go on the air for the Eastern audience, the network reported.

Skelton suffered a brain concussion and a severe neck sprain. According to the script he was to walk through the stage prop door yesterday, carrying on his head a chunk of balsa wood painted to resemble a block of concrete.

The breakaway door, supposed to shatter when he banged into it, didn't.

Members of his family were at his bedside at the time of his death. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Isabel Hannon, Tulelake; three sons, Dr. John P. Hannon, medical scientist at the University of California, Attorney William T. Hannon, Emoryville, California and Lt. Robert E. Hannon attached to Camp Pendleton California; three brothers, Richard K. Hannon, Klamath Falls, Walter P. Hannon, Eugene and Murray Hannon, San Raphael; two sisters, Mrs. M. M. Fisher and Miss Bernardine Hannon, Klamath Falls; an uncle E.J. Murray, Klamath Falls; also five grandchildren. His mother died August 22, 1953.

Funeral services will be announced by Ward's Klamath Funeral Home.

Church Radio Programs Slated

ABC Radio public affairs department is scheduling three programs in connection with the second assembly of the World Council of Churches which is now in session. These programs will be heard over station KFLW Saturday, from 6:30 to 6:45 p.m., August 21, 28 and September 4.

The programs will feature discussions which have taken place during the previous week. They will feature prominent American and foreign representatives to the assembly. Title will be "World Council of Churches Report."

The August 21 program will feature Bishop Gerald Kennedy, Methodist Church of Los Angeles area, the Rev. John C. Bennett of the Union Theological Seminary of New York City, Philippe Maury, general secretary of the World Students Christian Federation of Geneva, Switzerland.

Tentatively scheduled for the programs of the next two Saturdays are Charles F. Taft, lawyer and lay delegate to the assembly and brother of the late Senator Taft, Bishop Hans Lilje of Hanover, Germany, Canon Theodore Wadell of the College of Preachers, Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Elsie Chamberlain of Hampton, England.

CONGRESSMAN SAM COON is congratulated by President Eisenhower on a recent trip to the White House. The Eastern Oregon Republican has actively supported the President's program nationally, and last week he had the unusual performance of getting three bills for his own district passed in a single day by the house of Representatives.

Schedule Delays Threaten McCarthy Investigations

By G. MILTON KELLY WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Senate investigations involving Sen. McCarthy were threatened with schedule-upsetting delays today, but apparently not because of disputes over the controversial Wisconsin Republican.

Leaders of both Senate groups said the stumbling block was unexpectedly difficult work. The Senate Investigations subcommittee, which conducted the 36 days of McCarthy-Army hearings, just about gave up hope of reaching a verdict by the end of this week — the date Chairman Mundt (R-SD) had set.

And a special Senate committee headed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) to study a proposed resolution of censure against McCarthy indicated it may have to postpone the start of public hearings beyond the scheduled premiere Aug. 30.

Dirksen said one delaying factor has been that the two-million-word official record of the McCarthy-Army hearings consists of "about two thirds surplusage — testimony entirely irrelevant to the charges." At issue were accusations by Secretary of Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams that McCarthy and Roy M. Cohn then chief counsel to the subcommittee, had exerted improper pressures to get special favors for Pvt. G. David Schine, a former subcommittee staff aide. For their part, McCarthy and Cohn accused Stevens and Adams of using blackmail tactics in an effort to halt McCarthy's search for Reds in the Army.
