

Math Teachers To Attend Meet

Four mathematics teacher delegates from Klamath County and one from Lake County will attend the 14th summer meeting of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics to be held at the University of Seattle, August 22-25.

Southern Oregon is one of the few communities outside of the Seattle district to be invited to participate.

The University Puget Sound Council of Teachers of Mathematics will cooperate with the University of Seattle as host organization.

Teacher delegates from here will be included in a sectional meeting sponsored by the Southern Oregon Council of the organization.

Klamath County will be represented by Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, department supervisor, Klamath County school district; Mrs. Beulah Elliott, Altamont Junior High School; Eva Burkhalter, Klamath Union High School, Oregon representative, National Council of Teachers of Mathematics; Stanley Kendall, Henley High School and Mrs. Dora Broasus, Lakeview.

Mrs. Brixner is currently attending a summer session at the University of Seattle.

All of those attending from here will participate on some of the programs.

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP) — French troops and police of French-sponsored Sultan Moulay Mohammed Ben Arais cordoned off two native areas near Rabat Thursday in a search for nationalist agitators.

OSC Meeting Slated For KF

A family night program for students, alumni and friends of Oregon State College and OSC dads and mothers has been scheduled in Klamath Falls for Wednesday, August 25, at 8 p.m. in the YMCA.

Bob Thompson, a 1925 OSC graduate, is chairman of the local committee making arrangements for the meeting. Assisting Thompson on the committee are Paul Deller, president of the OSC Dad's Club and Mrs. J. P. Elmore, president of the OSC Mothers' Club. OSC athletic movies and slides of the campus will be shown as a feature of the program.

The meeting, sponsored by the

Tulelake Legion Picnic Planned

TULELAKE — Paul Rogers, commander of Tulelake Post, No. 184, American Legion, and a large committee are working on the annual picnic for the post members and families to be held Sunday, August 22, 1 p.m. California time at the Malin Park.

The picnic this year is a revival of the custom followed for several years and then abandoned for some time.

There will be free food and beverages.

The post is sponsoring Nancy Young, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson for barley queen to rule over the annual Tulelake-Butte Valley Fair, September 9 and 10.

Jeffries Barn Site For Hotel

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Plans to build a two-story, 100-room hotel on the Jim Jeffries barn site here were disclosed yesterday when the City Planning Board received a request for a zoning variance on the site.

The property houses the famous barn built by the late ex-heavyweight boxing champion. The barn has been unoccupied since March 1953, but before that was used as a training gym for young fighters and a site for amateur matches.

Mexican Newspaper Without Telephone

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Ultimas Noticias, Mexico City's largest afternoon newspaper, complained in a front-page story yesterday that it hasn't had a telephone for two weeks.

The newspaper said it had reported the breakdown to the telephone company and every day had been promised quick action. But two weeks have passed without results, the paper said, and it is having "great difficulty" in covering the news.
