

ENTHUSIASTIC AAUW RUMMAGE SALE PLANS were formulated at a recent "committee breakfast" at the home of Mrs. Eugene Favell, center, 1201 Eldorado; shown with other committee members, Mrs. R. T. Lindley, left; and Mrs. Richard Newman, right.

of University Women, is scheduled for September 10-11 in the Pelican Theater Building, 8th and Klamath. All proceeds to go to the AAUW scholarship fund.

For pick-up, call Mrs. A. V. McVey, 4008; or take to sale headquarters Thursday afternoon, September 9.

— Photo by Kettler

EXTENSIVELY ENTERTAINED... while here from Colorado, were, (three at the right), Betty, Dorothy and Ruth Anderson, all recent houseguests at the Laguna Street home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson.

Picture above was taken with luncheon hostess, Mrs. Melvin Miller, far left, at the Miller residence, 1222 Eldorado. The honored guests live in Boulder, and they returned home via San Francisco.

Luncheon Honors Three

Three sisters, recently vacationing here from Boulder, Colorado, were Dorothy, Ruth and Betty Anderson; houseguests at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, 443 North Laguna.

Included in numerous events inspired by their visit was a luncheon given by Mrs. Melvin Miller at the Miller residence, 1222 Eldorado.

The visitors and other guests were informally entertained during the afternoon by Mrs. Eugene Favell, who sang; and Mrs. Pearl Foster, who played several piano selections for them.

Other guests were Mrs. Junior Wagner, Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Mrs. Marvin Lucas Jr., Mrs. Don Anderson, Mrs. Edward Putnam, Mrs. James Howard, Mrs. Antony Silva and Mrs. George Biehn.

Advertisement for Shaw Stationery Company, featuring 'for YOUR WEDDING INVITATIONS and ANNOUNCEMENTS' and 'Three Day Delivery'.

CIC Meeting

FORT KLAMATH — The regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Club, Friday afternoon, August 6, was conducted by first vice president, Mrs. Harold Wing, Klamath Agency.

The financial report for July was read by Mrs. William A. Page, treasurer, followed by a routine standing committee report, after which plans were made for the annual club bazaar. Scheduled date is Saturday evening, September 18.

The following were named by Mrs. Wing to head the various committees and man the booths: parcel-post sale, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescock and Mrs. Elmer (Dutch) Zumbun; fish pond, Mrs. Harold Wing; fancy-work and apron booth, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Joanna Taylor and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson; candy booth, Mrs. William A. Page and Mrs. Norman Van Wert; auction feature, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley; games, Mrs. Elmore Nicholson and Patti Louise Hescock, who will appoint additional helpers; fortune telling booth, Mrs. Ober Brown; and cashier, Mrs. Eldon M. Bratlain.

Dinner and kitchen detail will be supervised by Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, who will appoint a crew of assistants. They will meet at her home sometime this week to make preliminary plans.

It was decided that the members of Boy Scout Troop 34 will be asked to clean up the grounds of the club property. The boys use the clubhouse for meetings and various activities at all times, and have signified their willingness to clean the yard.

The meeting adjourned and a social hour was enjoyed, with refreshments served at tables made lovely with arrangements of delphinium arranged with other summer blooms. Hostesses were Mrs. Loren L. Miller Sr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson, who served the following: Mrs. Harold Wing and her special guest, Ms. W. Wendell Palmer, wife of the new Agency superintendent, both from Klamath Agency; Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Mrs. James F. Van Wert, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Elmore Nicholson, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Warren More, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hescock, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. William Brewer, and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, all of Fort Klamath.

WSCS Meeting

FORT KLAMATH—Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church met Thursday afternoon, August 12, at the home of Mrs. W. J. (Barney) Cox on Agency Lake for the regular monthly meeting of the group.

The business session was conducted by president, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley. Routine matters were disposed of, and it was reported more work is to be done on the outdoor fireplace and barbecue. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, secretary of missionary education, gave a resume of missionary work; and Mrs. Howard Commons read "The Untold Korean Story," written by Bob Pierce.

GUESTS SURPRISE LUNCHEON HOSTESS WITH SHOWER

A SHOWER OF INFANT ITEMS surprised Mrs. Robert Erlandson when she was hostess to a group of close friends for luncheon at the Yacht Club Friday, August 13. Mrs. Erlandson, (Pat), opens a gift while (l to r) Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. Dennis Babson, and Mrs. James Palmer watch.

Other invited guests at the luncheon were Mrs. James Ivory, Mrs. Melvin Miller, Mrs. Thomas E. Watters, Mrs. George Brosterhaus, Mrs. Wesley Lorenz and Mrs. Robert Byrne. Many friends entertained for Pat and Bob and sons Sig and Niki before they left for Santa Barbara where they will make their home.

— Photo by Kettler

Round of Farewell Parties For Robert Erlandson Family

Farewell parties for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erlandson and sons Sig and Niki have been numerous in the past few weeks. The Erlandsons left Tuesday to make their home in Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Frederick Ehlers was hostess for a charming back yard party at her home on Pacific Terrace, Tuesday, August 3. Punch was served to about 50 guests from a beautiful bowl made of ice and decorated with clusters of cherries. Assisting Mrs. Ehlers were her sister, Mrs. Buford Hargus, Mrs. Ross Ragland, Mrs. Andrew Collier, Phyllis Collier, Mrs. James Kerus, Mrs. A. P. McVey, Mrs. Alred Collier and Mrs. Robert Kent.

Sig, six, and Niki, three and one-half, said goodbye to their friends at a luncheon party given by Paul and Scott Watters, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Watters, at their Shady Pine home last week. Thirty-one children and thirteen mothers were present. Balloons, ice cream cones decorated with faces, and a wading pool entertained the children after lunch.

Honoring Mrs. Robert (Pat) Erlandson, Mrs. Robert Kent entertained with luncheon and bridge at her home on Painter Street recently. Other guests included Mrs. Eugene Favell, Mrs. Denis Babson, Mrs. Roy Whitlitch, Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, Mrs. Robert Erlandson, Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. Wesley Lorenz, Mrs. George Brosterhaus, Mrs. Robert Byrne, Mrs. Thomas E. Watters, Mrs. Melvin Miller and Mrs. James Ivory. Prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. Thomas Watters and Mrs. Robert Byrne.

Small dinner parties were also given by Mr. and Mrs. George Brosterhaus, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, and Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Erlandson for Pat and Bob. Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McVey, Lakeshore Drive, and Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erlandson, 310 North Ninth Street. Their new address is 3530 Los Pinos Drive, Santa Barbara, California.

MRS CLARK BLAIR at the "hanky" shower given for her August 12, by Mrs. Charles Dakin and Mrs. Joe J. Thomas at the Thomas residence, 4641 Laverne.

About 20 guests were invited for dessert and bridge, with high won by Mrs. Blair. In the picture with her, seated, Mrs. Dakin, left, and Mrs. C. E. Chase, right.

In back, Mrs. George Blair, honoree's sister-in-law, visiting here from Seattle at the time; and Mrs. Thomas.

The Blairs are now making their home in Boise, where Clark Blair is assistant manager of Sears Roebuck.

— Photo by Kettler

BRIDE-ELECT Jean Owens, with two of her hostesses at bridal shower given for her, August 12. Mrs. Kenneth Moore and Mrs. R. E. (Gene) Hooker were also hostesses with their daughters at the Moore home, 2045 LeRoy.

From the left, Mary Hooker, Joan Moore, (home on vacation from San Francisco) and Jean. The gift table was set in the patio, lovely with bright bowls of sweet peas. Virginia Van Doren registered the gifts. In the dining room the table was a picture in pink and white. Pink organdy cloth, centered with a beautiful arrangement of white asters and pink roses, centered at the top with a pair of white wedding bells. The cake, also pink and white, was served by Mrs. Harold Teale, whose daughter, Patty, served the punch.

A very striking arrangement of white chrysanthemums and pink roses decorated the living room. Jean, Joan and Mary are all sorority sisters in Alpha Phi from the University of Oregon.

— Photo by Kettler

Large advertisement for Lee Hendrick's 'Northern Stamps' and 'Movie Money'. It features the slogan 'WE GIVE Northern STAMPS AND MOVIE MONEY TAKE YOUR CHOICE!' and 'BUY THE LO-WAY, ON THE HI-WAY'. The ad also mentions 'LEE HENDRICK'S' and 'Your Neighborhood Druggist' at 2212 So. 6th St.