Chiloquin

By DARLENE WOLFF

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvey Riddle and five younger children left Saturday afternoon for a week's camping trip on the Oregon Coast. Riddle is employed by the State Highway Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Brower returned Sunday morning from a 10 day trip to Seattle and Victoria. Brower is custodian of the Chiloquin grade school.

A number of families have spent the summer months painting and remodeling their homes. These include Mr. and Mrs. Bert Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Don Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ravizza, Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvey Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. William Wampler and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Crawford have moved two buildings on their Williamson River property which they are remodeling into living quarters.

Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, who operate a foster home for children and teenagers, are remodeling a building on their lakeshore property. Mike McCauley, 15, who is studying to be a carpenter is assisting with the project. Lonnie Adams is building an addition to his home in southeast Chiloquin.

Leonard Swanson and his son George are returning to Chiloquin Saturday from Astoria where he has been for the summer. He is improving daily and can operate his wheelchair. The two younger children, Selly and Bill, have been spending the summer in Hillsboro with relatives and will return here before school starts.

The Rev. Edmund Stanton plans to move the Swansons from Ashland.

George Hobbs, high school instructor, completed summer school in Ashland a week ago and is now helping John Mathis, high school principal with some construction work. Mr. and Mrs. Mathis have spent the summer improving the home they purchased last spring.

Danny Mathis, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mathis, narrowly escaped serious injury recently when he managed to turn on the key and start the car his father had left in gear. Fortunately the slow moving car was stopped before doing any damage. Last Friday two Chiloquin high school instructors completed summer school work at the University of Oregon, James Huff and Charles Hale.

September 7 is the opening date for the Panther Den, a short order and fountain business which will be operated by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cline. The Luderman building next door to the post office is the location.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Prinz and daughters, Redwood City, were guests last week of the Rev. and Mrs. Edmund Stanton.

Guests from Seattle last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jaderholm were Mr. and Mrs.

Richard Ellis and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott, who moved from Chiloquin to Laguna Beach a number of years ago have returned here. Elliott is working with his father in the operation of their cattle ranch on Crooked Creek. Mrs. Elliott is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Hall Sr.

Mrs. Curtis Jester and family have been visiting relatives in Medford recently. Jester works for Bonneville in Washington.

Earl Hall, Lyle and Janet returned Friday from a camping and fishing trip to East Lake.

BONANZA

K. I. Bold, Mrs. Ivan Bold and Gary spent several days in Portland last week.

Mrs. Elliott House of Langell Valley was a luncheon guest of Mrs. Richard Hoefler. In the afternoon they went to Malin to visit Mrs. Hoefler's daughter, Mrs. Gary Freitag.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier entertained with a birthday dinner August 14 in honor of Mrs. Anna King. Other guests were Mrs. Mary Smith and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hynes and Debbie and Joan have left for Santa Barbara to make their home. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Givans.

Jim and Rex Porterfield and Joe Hoefler spent last weekend at Canby where they attended the wedding of Bill Schoonover, coach of Bonanza High last year, and Claire Kylo. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schmor were also there. Bob has been attending school at Eugene this summer.

Tex Hinson is spending a few days at Rogue River with relatives.

Irving Ellstrom has been here for several weeks from Seattle visiting his aunt, Mrs. Louis Randall and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fulkerson and C. T. Fulkerson have been here from Portland to visit Don Phillips and his mother Mrs. Eva Phillips. C. T. Fulkerson was born in Langell Valley in 1869, and left there for Olympia when he was 16 years old. After returning he moved to Portland to make his home with his son and family. This is the first time back here since he left in 1889. They all made a trip around the valley one day and he visited his birthplace, the ranch now is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin. Needless to say he saw a great many changes.

Everyone is reminded of the big square dance at the Bonanza Big Springs Park. It is the third birthday of the park and a pot-luck supper is planned to start at 6 p.m. There will be a big birthday cake. All proceeds will go to the park fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pepple (Ruth Peyton) are home from a weeks honeymoon at the coast, and are living in one of the Puddy apartments. Mrs. Pepple will teach the
