Eastside

By MRS. MERLE O'NEIL
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hampton and Susan, Cynthia Wood and Mary Nobles, Lakeview, were all Sunday dinner guests last week at the home of Mrs. Delphi Nelson and Ivy.

Frank Barnes moved back to his home in Lakeview. His daughter Mrs. Earl Cogburn drove him up on Friday. The Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Myers will stay with Mr. Barnes through the winter months. They are from Fort Bidwell, California.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jelly and Mrs. Homer Handbury, Lakeview, were callers Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Clara Baxter.
Mr. and Mrs. Loy Lamb of the West Side district were visiting friends at the Merle O'Neil home Thursday.

Janice Riley, Tennant, is spending this week visiting Judy Snider. Judy had been visiting for two weeks with Janice.
The Shrine Circus was well attended in Lakeview Saturday. A number of local residents were at the afternoon and evening performances.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vodro, San Francisco, were guests of the Clayton Bradleys for several days this week. They took their son Jeff home with them; he had been spending the summer at the Bradley's ranch. Mrs. Vosso is a sister of Helen Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cogburn and Gary, Klamath Falls, were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cogburn. They returned home Sunday evening.
Little Cynthia Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, Lakeview, spent the weekend with her grandmother, Mrs. Delphi Nelson and Ivy.

Freddie Cornett, son of county agent and Mrs. Elgin Cornett, is visiting his grandparents at Hood River for a few weeks. He accompanied his aunt Moya Riley home after she had been visiting for a week here with the Cornetts.

Visitors in this district Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis, Denver, Colorado, who were visiting with relatives. Mrs. Davis was formerly Ruty Smalley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lige Smalley who are now making their home in Canby, Oregon.
A get-together for a reunion and Sunday dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Harper in Lakeview in honor of the Bill Davis'. Relatives present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Joe John Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ayouth and girls, New Pine Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hampton and girls, Mrs. Delphi Nelson and Ivy, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis and the Harper family. Mrs. Eva Arthur, who is an old friend of the family, was also present for the occasion.

Later in the afternoon the younger people enjoyed swimming in the Harper pool, while the older people were reminiscing of days gone by.
The Davis' were returning home from a vacation trip to Canada where they also visited relatives. On the way home they had visited with other relatives at Portland and Canby.
