Carolyn Dickson Bride Of Wilbur C. Harnsberger

MT. LAKE — In one of the prettiest weddings of the summer, Carolyn Louise Dickson chose her parents' 28th wedding anniversary to become the bride of Wilbur C. Harnsberger on August 22 at 7 p.m. in a double-ring ceremony, read by the Rev. William Ainley, in the Mt. Laki Community Church.

Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson, and Wilbur is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Harnsberger, both families of Mt. Laki District.

The bride was escorted by her father, down the aisle to the flower-banked, candle-lighted altar. Baskets of white gladioli stood on either side of the steps leading to the altar, and a large fan-shaped bouquet of the same flowers was on the table directly in front of where the couple exchanged their vows.

Carolyn was lovely in her ballerina styled gown of white chantilly lace over satin. The full skirt was styled with a lace pelum. The bodice was strapless with a snug fitting lace bolero with long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist and buttoned with tiny covered buttons. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown trimmed with small rhinestones.

She carried a white Bible with a bouquet of white gladioli and stephanotis, a penny in her shoe, and she wore a lace garter given to her by a sorority sister. For something old, she carried an heirloom handkerchief which Mrs. Cal Peyton's mother carried at her wedding and which has been carried down the aisle many times since. It was also carried by Carolyn's two sisters when they were married.

Mrs. Albert Herringshaw at the organ, played the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Dean Blackman, soloist, sang "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Marion Jack, matron of honor, wore a blue ballerina style dress, and carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Donna Tillman, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and her dress was identical to the maid of honor with the exception of color, hers was pink. Her bouquets was also the same.

Flower girl was little Ann Orem, five year old niece of the bride. Her gown was ballerina length and of watermelon pink, with full gathered skirt, and she wore a halo of rosebuds, matching her dress. She carried a tiny basket of rose petals which she scattered down the aisle.

Ringbearer was seven year old Gary Orem, nephew of the bride. He carried the rings on a small white satin pillow.

Best man was Stanley Harnsberger, brother of the bridegroom.

Wayne Buck, cousin of the bride, was attendant, and ushering were Richard Hill, Roger Klahn and Wayne Buck.

Sharon Finchum and Winifred Guber were candlelighters.

Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Harnsberger were both attractively dressed in navy blue, with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, where about 250 guests gathered to congratulate the couple.

The bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of their beautiful four tiered cake decorated with frosting lattice, miniature doves, bells and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Kelly Robinette, Mrs. Earl Mack Jr. and Mrs. William Clement finished cutting and served the cake.

Flowers for the punch and coffee were Mrs. Harry Orem, Mrs. W. H. Summers, Mrs. Calvin Peyton, Mrs. Stewart Hayes, Mrs. Eldon Tillman, Donna Dixon and Mrs. Norman Karr.

Eleanor Jackson and Patty Buck registered the guests.

Out of town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rice of Whit-

Mrs. A. E. Arthur and the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lewis, all of Medford, Oregon; Mrs. Stewart Hayes, Mrs. Walter Elliott, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harnsberger, Salem; and Mr. E. A. Harnsberger, Independence, Oregon.

For traveling, the bride chose a costume suit of autumn brown in a raised plaid effect. Her accessories were brown; and her shoulder corsage was white.

They will spend a few days on the coast and plan to live in Ashland where they both will attend Southern Oregon College this fall.

Two deep pockets will hold all the "gadgets" that must go along with you, four snap-fasteners at the front closing will keep you snug. Ribbed cuffs in the sleeves will keep out the chilly breezes. If you know of anyone whose bike might be there, have them call at city police headquarters, Judge Blackbert says one should bring proof of identification.
