REFLECTIONS FROM Milly's Mirror

AFTER SEVERAL DAYS — with her parents the Lee S. McMullens, 5006 South Sixth — Frances Ough and young daughters Frances Lee and Carolyn left a few days ago for home and "papa" C. D. (Tiny) Ough, in Lewiston, Idaho, where he is manager of the Lorenz Lumber operations in that northern Idaho town.

BIRTHDAY PRESENT! — and a BIG one — the senior Charles Drew's left Thursday for a long month's Canadian trip — nice little b-day celebration gesture made by Charles Drew for his wife, Ivy.

NINA SWANEY — who always has a gracious greeting for everyone who enters The Art Center door — had a very special reason for a "very special" greeting early last week when her daughter Emma Jo, son-in-law, Rex Wood, and 9 yr old Rex III (who answers more readily to "Chip") arrived from Arkansas City, Kansas on the 16th — To make good use of the week the Woods were to be in K.F. — she left her town quarters and all were houseguests at spacious home of Hugh and Madelon Swaney on Lakeshore Drive — with their two offspring, Hugh and Jane — The Swaney's were busy committee members for the Saturday and Sunday Yacht Club Rocky Point Resort 5-5-q — so they continued the family visit there Saturday night — The Woods left early Sunday for Arkansas City, where Rex is editor of the "Traveler."

SARA STEWART — daughter of Mrs. Neal (Lous) Stewart — former longtime KP resident and staff member of the H&N — now on the Honolulu Advertiser (and much-feted visitor here last year) That's Lois — now back to dit Sara — who arrives tomorrow via United Air Lines from Portland — During her 2 week visit Sara will visit the Richard Smiths, Ed Gearys, Lane Warrens and a host of other friends — Brother Angus Stewart will meet her — he's been working in Dunsmuir this summer and enters U of O Medical School in the fall. Sara also was on the Honolulu Advertiser (two summers) and wrote a daily column — A pro-swimming in a natural warm water pool . . . That's in Artic Circle Springs about 150 miles from Fairbanks — and the writer was Mrs. Don (Sally) Hitchcock — up there for the summer with the children to be with Don who's a contractor — They also had taken a boat trip up the Yukon — Oh! for the tropical life of the Far North! The way the climatic conditions are chaotically changing — Southern Cal and Northern Alaska will be swapping totem poles and palm trees.

DELAYED TAKE OFF — Mrs. G. G. (Kathryn) Lorenz — slipped, hurt her back in the midst of all the wind - up plans for her trip to Europe — but got away last Saturday by plane for the cross-continent flight to NY — from there to Brussels to join her sister — Mrs. T. G. Ashwell (Anna) of Monrovia, Calif. — They'll continue the tour (Vanderbilts) together — About a month and a half with stops in France, Belgium, Netherlands, Ireland, England, Switzerland, Germany, Italy, Spain — etc.
