"DENNIS THE MENACE"

"ANYTHING I CAN BEND YOU FROM TEXAS?"

BILL CORNELL, who will begin duties September 1 as social secretary at the YMCA.

Youth Program Planned By YMCA

Youth program planning will get special emphasis on this year's YMCA agenda when the newly employed social secretary gets his hands in operation. The new secretary, Bill Cornell, will officially assume duties September 1 under Paul Campbell, "Y" director.

Cornell came to Klamath Falls from Bellingham, Washington, where he was employed as boys' work secretary at the Bellingham YMCA for three years. He is a native of Boston, Massachusetts, attended Springfield College in Massachusetts four years where he received his bachelor of science degree in group work and community organization.

Cornell's emphasis on youth activities will place concentration on what the YMCA calls its four front clubs: Indian Guides (6 to 9 years age group), Gra - Y (10 to 12 years), Junior Hi Y (12 to 14) and Hi Y (high school).

The complete "Y" program, planned to fit community needs, will be announced after Director Campbell returns Monday evening from YMCA summer school at Seaback, Washington.

Beef Prices Show Decrease

CHICAGO — Live hogs dropped $1.50 to $2.50 per hundred pounds this week in a bearish market. The late top was $22.25, compared with $23.25 Monday.

Lower wholesale prices of fresh pork loins in Chicago and in the East was the main bearish factor in the market.

Sows closed the week steady to 25 cents higher, however. Slaughter steers and heifers were steady to 50 cents lower for the week. Cows mainly were 50 to 75 cents down. Bulls were 50 cents to $1.00 off and vealers held steady to weak. About 20 loads of prime 1,100 to 1,400 pound fed steers sold at $28.75 to $27.00.

Late sales in lambs were about steady with last week's close. Yearlings also were mainly steady but slaughter ewes sold mainly 50 cents higher. Good to prime spring lambs sold at top prices of $18.50 to $21.00 during the week. Good and choice slaughter ewes sold at $4.50 to $5.50.

Oregon Farm Census Planned

WASHINGTON — The Census Bureau has appointed Don C. Mote, Corvallis, Ore., as supervisor of the Corvallis office for the forthcoming Oregon farm census.

The office will take the census for the First, Second and Fourth Oregon congressional districts. E. G. Bates of Junction City, Ore., is to be assistant supervisor of the office.

The Second District census will be supervised from Bend, by Jack L. V. Halbrook, Bend. Frank Hauer, Bend, has been recommended as assistant supervisor of that office.

The positions will last about four months. Supervisors are to be paid at the rate of $5,000 yearly and assistant supervisors at the rate of $4,205.

Body Recovered From Columbia

PORTLAND — The body of Don Lewis, 20, one of five killed in a tugboat accident at Bonneville Dam Aug. 20, was found in the Columbia River Friday.

He and the others drowned when the 47-foot tugboat Mule Duzer was sucked under by the current of water over the dam's spillway. The bodies of three others were recovered earlier. They were Merle Tobias, Portland; George Graham, Klamath; Wash. and Magnus Larsen, Astoria. Still missing is Leonard Boylan, Cathlamet, Wash.

Lewis, a student at the University of Oregon, was the son of Frank A. Lewis, former resident engineer at the dam.

Girls Guilty Of Killing Mother

AUCKLAND, New Zealand — Two teen-age girls, Pauline Yvonne Parker and Juliet Marion Hulme were found guilty today of murdering Pauline's mother by battering her with a brick.

During the closing speech by Prosecutor Alan Brown who described the defendants as "two dirty minded little girls" Juliet sat with her fingers in her ears. As both girls are under 18, their crime is not punishable by death but by imprisonment.

Neither Pauline, 16, nor Juliet, 15, showed any emotion when the verdict was returned after the 13-man jury had deliberated for 90 minutes.

Mrs. Honora Mary Parker's body, which a pathologist said had 48 head, face and hand injuries, was found June 22 in a park near Christ Church. Police said she had been beaten with a brick held in a stocking.
