Mr. and Mrs. Jerry E. Overen At New Home in Grants Pass

Jo Ann Buswell, vivacious brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Buswell, 155 East Main Street, became the bride of Jerry E. Overen, Grants Pass, former resident of Klamath Falls, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Overen, 3703 Summers Lane, August 15, in the Zion Lutheran Church. The Rev. Richard Graef officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony, during which the bridal couple received Holy Communion.

Pink, white and touches of orchid were featured colors in the church flowers, bridal attendants' frocks and bouquets.

Large arrangements of pink and white gladioli with greenery at the altar were illuminated with candlelight.

Mrs. Richard Graef at the organ accompanied Maurice (Bud) Delier, vocal soloist.

Jo Ann, escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle. The long-sleeved lace bodice was made with a round-necked yoke; and the nipped-in waistline flared into a full hip-length pleated skirt of lace over the generously gathered floor-length net skirt which flared into a brief misty train of the same nylon tulle.

Her three-quarter length veil of nylon tulle billowed from a seed-pearl encrusted bodice; she carried white roses with stephanotis on a white Bible; and an heirloom lace handkerchief carried by her grandmother in 1902 at her wedding.

Maid of honor, Joan McLaughlin, wore a floor length gown of pink net with lace bodice and bolero. Her nosegay was of orchid gladioli.

Mrs. Gene Overen, bridegroom's sister-in-law, wore a pink net floor length frock trimmed with orchid net; and she carried a nosegay of pink gladioli. Beverly Overen, sister of the bridegroom, was dressed exactly as the other bridesmaid; and her nosegay was identical.

Flower girl, Deanna Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Carr, also wore a floor length gown of pink net. LeRoy Overen served his brother as best man; and Gene Overen, also brother; and their cousin, William O. (Bill) Johnson, from Wittenberg, Wisconsin, ushered and also served as candlelighters.

Mrs. Buswell wore a pink faille sheath dress with scoop neck and pocket; detail outlined in pearl embroidery. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Overen chose a blue nylon accented with a corsage of pink roses.

The reception was held in the church parlors for the many local out-of-town guests. Mrs. A. E. Dye poured; Mrs. Clinton Hollisworth, Lodi, California friend of the Buswell family, cut the cake; and assisting were Mrs. Ehardt Blind, Mrs. Earl Burwell and Mrs. Ruth Braatz.

The tablecloth on the reception table was used by the bride's grandmother at her own wedding reception in 1902; and the cake ornament was used at Jo Ann's

HER FIRST AIRPLANE TRIP . . . was the occasion for an informal "bon voyage" party honoring Mrs. H. F. (Effie) Tolle, seated.

She was 80 July 22, and left August 18, for Cleveland, Ohio, to spend the winter with her daughter, May (Mrs. John Larson Jr.).

With her, are daughters, Mrs. Paul D. Lewis, (Audrey) Merrill, and Gertrude Tolle, pictured at the latter's home, 2018 Auburn, during the open house — when about 50 friends called.

She was accompanied on the trip east by her grandson, John Larson 3rd, who had spent the summer in Oregon; part of it with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and his aunt, Gertrude.

BRIDE-ELECT ELNA FITZHUGH HONORED AT LARGE SHOWER

LANGELL VALLEY — A very lovely bridal shower was given at the parish hall in Langell Valley the afternoon of August 18, in honor of Elna Fitzhugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Fitzhugh. She will become the bride of Kayo Robinette of Henley September 5.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Bill Novotny, Mrs. Mae Gale, Mrs. Chris Hood, Mrs. Willard Noble and Mrs. Marion Lindsay.

The hall was decorated with summer and fall flowers, and gifts were on tables at one end of the large room.

Two contests were enjoyed with Patsy Totell and Billie Harris winning the prizes and Pauline Noble played two accordion solos.

Ruth Galloway, cousin of Elna helped her open her many gifts.

A beautiful cake baked and decorated by Violet Harris centered the refreshment table, and was cut and served by Ruth Galloway. Mrs. Ray Davis was at the coffee urn; and Mrs. Evelyn Galloway served the punch. Both are aunts of Elna.

Those honoring Elna were Mrs. Louis Randall, Mrs. Frank Grohn, Mrs. Raymond Evatt, Mrs. Walter Smith Jr., Mrs. Johnnie Helleson, Mrs. Charles Steber, Mrs. Clyde Woolen, Mrs. Frank DeBel, Mrs. Herbie Snell, Mrs. Sandra Romfred, Mrs. Charles Schmidt, Mrs. Bud Harris, Mrs. Mike Dearborn and Mrs. Paul Monroe.
