Court Martial Defense Of Former Korea POW Planned

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An attorney for Cpl. Claude J. Batchelor said he will tell a general court-martial here today that the Army "promised" Batchelor immunity and then went back on its promise.

Batchelor's trial opens today in a sheet-metal building at Ft. Sam Houston.

Defense Atty. Joel Westbrook of San Antonio said: "He is eager to clear himself with the American people."

Batchelor, 22, of Kermitt, Tex., is charged with collaborating with the enemy and informing on his buddies during his 31 months as a prisoner of war in North Korea.

He was one of 23 American prisoners who decided to stay with the Communists after the Korean armistice. But he changed his mind and came back to the Allied side last Jan. 1.

The only other American of the 23 who came back was Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson of Big Stone Gap, Va. He was convicted by a court-martial last May 4 on charges similar to those brought against Batchelor. Of the other 21, one has been reported dead by the Chinese Reds.

Westbrook said Batchelor and the other Americans were promised immunity by the Army while they were in Indian custody at Panmunjom, Korea, last winter.

Westbrook said he will move for quashing the case on a complaint that the Army "went back on its promise."

But the Army has stated that it promised the reluctant Americans only that they would not be punished for remaining behind after other Allied captives had been repatriated.

The Army has maintained that no immunity was promised for actions of the prisoners while they were in North Korean prison camps.

Westbrook said in an interview yesterday that some of Batchelor's fellow captives in a Korean prison camp will testify in his behalf. He said they "are coming here to testify that Cpl. Batchelor interceded with the Communists to better their living conditions. They will tell how he helped them and how he sat up all night with sick prisoners."

ALL SET TO HIT THE TRAIL FOR HOME, and that's just what these members of the Alturas Tribe Ride were about to do when this picture was snapped. The Tribe, some 24 strong, left Alturas on August 19 for their annual ride and returned on August 22. The trail lead over the hills and down the canyons to Mill Creek where a permanent camp is situated. Some riders went to the top of Eagle Peak, highest spot (just under 10,000 feet) in Modoc County, while others fished, loafed or hiked. This picture was taken at the lower end of the Mill Creek camp just opposite the ford in the creek.

THE ENDLESS EASE

he likes hard work... as long as he doesn't have to do any!

The ENDLESS EASE is an advertising man who likes an ad program that "runs itself" — no matter what direction it runs in.

He won't climb a sales peak... rather flow down hill.

He won't make a quick move... rather take a slow loss.

Fortunately he's a rare creature — almost extinct in today's tough market.

Most ad men today are probing deep. They're carefully weighing one market against the other — for product sales possibilities... for competitive opportunities. And they're finding sales plums they never knew existed.

And they're concentrating their advertising locally in the markets that show the most promise.

Naturally they're turning to newspapers to cover those markets fast and fully. Because just about all the people in each market read the newspaper every day.

Retailers know this, too. That's why they feature so strongly the products of manufacturers who advertise in the local newspaper.

It's a partnership that moves merchandise in volume — and in a hurry! That's why national advertisers upped their investment in newspapers 14.3% last year!

All business is local... and so are all newspapers!

Army Officer's Trial Begins

PT. SHERIDAN, Ill. (AP) — The Army court-martial of Lt. Col. Harry Fleming, first American officer to be charged with treason in the Korean War, starts today.

Eight former prisoners of war, members of the Army and Air Force, will testify against the slightly built, greying, 46-year-old officer.

He is accused of aiding the Reds after his capture at Wonju Oct. 1, 1950, and with committing "acts detrimental to fellow prisoners of war."

The specific charges state that Fleming "willfully stepped on the foot of an enlisted man while they were being taken to a prisoner of war camp in North Korea, reported to the camp commander an argument between two fellow prisoners, led camp discussion groups and made recordings later broadcast by Radio Peiping."

Airman Beaten By Teen-Agers

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A brutally beaten airman remained in serious condition today as Air Force and city officials prepared to take drastic action to halt a series of attacks here by teenagers on military personnel.

Mayor W. A. Gayle and Col. James G. Pratt, wing base commander at Maxwell Air Force Base, scheduled a meeting today with other city officials and officers from Maxwell and Gunter bases.

The meeting was spurred by an attack Saturday morning on Hubert B. Ward of Montgomery, 21-year-old Maxwell airman, who suffered a brain concussion, probable brain hemorrhage and possible fractures of the skull and face bones.

Ned Jones, 17, and Butch Williams, 14, were held without bond on charges of robbing and assaulting Ward. Jones was one of five teen-agers fined $100 each 10 days ago for attacking another airman.

Several high school students have been arrested in a series of recent incidents in which "Yankee" airmen reported they had been attacked for dating local girls. One airman said he had been tortured with lighted cigarettes by a group of teen-agers.
