

Milwaukee Braves Move Into Second Place

Indians Increase AL Lead

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

There's a new team in second place in the National League.

The amazing Milwaukee Braves edged ahead of Brooklyn, yesterday on the strength of a nine-game winning streak and Brooklyn's first double-header loss to Pittsburgh in 3½ seasons.

The New York Giants were six games ahead of Brooklyn and 8½ in front of Milwaukee going into Sunday's action. But they now lead Milwaukee by only four lengths and Brooklyn by five. The Giants and Brooklyn both lost two out of three. Milwaukee won four.

Cleveland picked up a full game on New York Sunday in the American League, stayed even yesterday and now leads the New York Yankees by 4½ games. The Indians won two out of three, running their season's winning total to 98 games. No Cleveland team ever has won more. The Yankees lost two out of three.

There's a new leader in the American League batting race. Bobby Avila, Cleveland's hustling second baseman, caught Irv Noren of the Yankees with four hits Sunday and passed him with four more yesterday. He's hitting .337 to Noren's .333.

In yesterday's games Milwaukee defeated Chicago 13-2 and 8-1. Pittsburgh beat Brooklyn 9-6 in 12 innings and 9-7. The Giants whipped Philadelphia 8-4 but Robbin Roberts came back to win his 20th game in the nightcap 5-4 in 11 innings. St. Louis bumped Cincinnati 8-1 in a single game.

Bob Lemon of the Indians became the first pitcher in either league to win 21 games, beating Baltimore 6-1 in the first game. Then the Orioles came back to nip the Indians 3-2 in 10 innings.

The Yankees came from behind to edge Boston 6-3 in the first game, but blew a 7-0 lead and lost the nightcap 8-7.

Detroit won two from Chicago 6-1 and 3-2, the second game going 10 innings.

Washington defeated Philadelphia 8-1 and the Athletics shelled the Senators 2-0 for a split.

Eddie Mathews, now fully recovered after being sidelined for almost two weeks by injuries, sparked in the Milwaukee triumphs. He hit his 35th home run, a double and six singles and walked once before finally being retired in his last time at bat.

The onrushing Braves drew the day's largest crowd—43,207—and ran their season's total attendance to 2,001,091, tops in both leagues. Only the Yankees and Indians ever have drawn more than two million fans in a year.

Roberts, the Phillies' strong, armed right-hander, became the first pitcher since Carl Hubbell to reach the 20-game mark in five consecutive seasons. He made it when fleet-footed Richie Ashburn scampered home from second base on an infield single by Grady Hamner.

Trailing by five runs early in the game, the Pirates beat the Dodgers in the first contest when Billy Loes walked two men in the 12th with the bases loaded and Curt Roberts laid down a squeeze bunt which scored a third man.

Five runs in the first inning against Don Newcombe put the Pirates in the winning trail in the second game and the Dodgers couldn't catch up despite home runs by Roy Campanella, Jackie Robinson and Sandy Amoros.

At Baltimore, Lemon's hitting support in the first game came mainly from Al Smith, who batted two doubles and two singles. Dick Kryhoski's bases-loaded single in the 10th inning of the nightcap prevented a Cleveland sweep.

Andy Carey's bases-loaded single in the last of the ninth climaxed the Yankees' uphill climb against Boston in the opener at Yankee Stadium. Jimmy Piersall's two-run homer in the eighth gave the Red Sox the runs they needed to capture the second game. Ted Williams collected four straight hits in the nightcap and six during the afternoon.

Ned Garver held the White Sox to four hits in Detroit's first victory. Harvey Kuenn singled home the winning run in the 10th inning of the second game after Minnie Minoso had tied the score in the ninth with a homer.

Harvey Haddix of the Cardinals won his first game since July 30 and his 16th of the season in beating Cincinnati on eight hits. Ted Kluszewski, the majors' leading a swollen ankle.

Mickey Vernon drove in five runs with a home run, a triple and a single in Washington's victory.

Moose Lodge Slates Smoker

The Moose Lodge will hold their second smoker of the season tomorrow night at the local lodge for all members and their wives.

Some of the top boxing talent in the basin is expected to be on hand for the show including Billy Duane McDaniels and Bobby Barney, all of whom have waged good battles in armory ring battles before.

A special feature will probably steal the spotlight from any match on the program as Sheriff Murray "Red" Brittain meets Lew Jones, the Clifton City Police Chief in what should prove to be an interesting battle.

Edwards, Redkey Led Pels In '40s

Editor's Note: This is the fourth of a series of five articles on past football seasons at Klamath Union High School since 1930. The information used in these stories has been taken from past issues of the Herald and News.

By CLAYTON HANNON

Tommy Edwards, Bob Redkey, Gary Dawes and Gaynor Huck sparked the KUHS Pelican football teams from 1945 until 1949 as the local high school gridder entered in the state playoffs two of the five years, as the teams of Paul Angstead, Ed Ryan and Bob Henderson established a record of 30 wins, 12 losses and three ties.

In 1945 Edwards and Redkey made outstanding showings to spearhead the KU attack to win over Grant by a 20-7 score. Salem 38-7, Ashland 13-6, Grants Pass 13-12 and Bend 39-0, while the four losses of the year came at the hands of Medford by a convincing 51-0 count, Eureka 25-0, and Eugene 19-13.

Besides the fine running of Redkey and Edwards, the Pels were helped through the season by the fine playing of Leroy Coleman and Bill Sari to give Angstead a 4-4-0 season.

In 1946, Ed Ryan took over the coaching duties of the Pelicans and registered a 5-4 season record as Edwards, Redkey, Irv Whit, Dick Young, Bill Mosby, Joe Zarosinski and Jerry Schubert led the KU squad through the season.

Wins were taken from Prineville 43-0, Ashland 20-7, Grants Pass 47-6, The Dalles by a monstrous 60-26 margin and 25-0 over Bend. Medford again downed the Pels by a close 7-6 score, then Eugene and Salem handed the KU gridder defeats by 34-0 and 13-6 scoreboard totals. The other loss came at the hands of Grant by a 19-14 count as Pat Duff, later to become a star back for USC, led the Generals' attack.

In Ryan's second year, Len Heston joined Schubert, Edwards, Redkey and Gary Dawes in leading the Pelicans to a 6-0-3 record and into the state tournament where they dropped a heartbreaking 13-13 game to The Dalles.

At the end of the game, the score was tied, as was the first downs. When the yardage was taken into consideration, The Dalles was given the nod over Ryan's boys.

Lakeview was the first win for the Pels by a 14-0 score, then Salem followed by a 16-0 total and Ashland proved to be the third victory for the KU gridder by a 21-14 margin. Boise took a 49-19 whipping from the Pels while Bend was nosed out by a close 13-12 decision and in a regular season game the Pels tripped The Dalles by a 26-12 score. The tie games were registered with Grant 20-20, Medford 6-0 and The Dalles 13-13 in the playoffs.

Bob Henderson took over as the head football mentor in 1948 for a successful future in high school football, as Dawes, Jack Lust and Dick Jackstead along with Joe Demetrakos and Schubert led the local footballers through a season of seven wins, two losses and no ties.

Grant edged the Pels 13-12 behind the fine playing of George Shaw, the All-American from the loss came at the hands of Medford by a 27-7 score.

A trio of small but fiery gridder pepped the Pelicans through the 1949 season into the state quarterfinals as Huck, Dale Carr and Dick Petzoldt teamed with Joe Nicholas, Demetrakos and Bob Mc-

Pearson to lead the Pels to a 8-2-0 season record.

Grant still maintained a spell over the Pels as they edged out a 7-0 win and La Grande handed the Pels their second loss of the season, this one coming in the state playoffs by a 31-3 margin.
