

Leonard O. Webers At Home In Grants Pass

WITH HER ATTENDANTS . . . the bride poses on her wedding day, August 22; before the 4 p.m. candlelight service. From the left, Lucille Weber, sister of the bridegroom; and Jackie Peugh, bride's sister, bridesmaids; Shirley Peugh, bride of Leonard O. Weber; and Faye Peugh, also sister of the bride, maid of honor. Flower girls in front, Margie Jo Herringshaw and her younger sister, Kathy.

IN WHITE NET OVER SATIN . . . Shirley Peugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Peugh, 5155 Harlan Drive, became the bride of Leonard O. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Weber, Malin, in a candlelight service read by the Rev. Carl De Mott. Peace Memorial Church was filled with friends and relatives of the two families.

— All Weber-Peugh Photos by Ferebee

CONGRATULATIONS . . . are offered again at the reception in the parlor of Klamath Falls Peace Memorial Church by officiating minister, the Rev. Carl De Mott, of the Malin Presbyterian Church, to the new Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O. Weber. Bride is the former Shirley Peugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Peugh; and Leonard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Weber, live in Malin. At the left, Clark Unruh, who served as best man, is interested spectator.

Shirley Peugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Peugh, 5155 Harlan Drive, and Leonard O. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Weber, Malin, were married August 22, in Peace Memorial Church. The Rev. Carl De Mott officiated at the 4 p.m. candlelight service before a background of gladioli, palms and lighted tapers in floor candelabra. Shirley was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. A. F. Herringshaw, organist, accompanied vocal soloists, Vesta Shogren and Ronald Bryan.

Candlelighters were Dean and Dennis Peugh.

Shirley wore a floor length gown of white nylon net over white satin. The full overskirt of net was trimmed with a wide band of lace and a wide ruffle of net was generously gathered at the hemline. The snug bodice was topped with a long sleeved bolero of net and lace, with a stand-up collar of net.

A tiara of pearls and lace flowers held her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a small arrangement of rosebuds and stephanotis flowers tied with ribbon.

Faye Peugh was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a pink nylon net over taffeta, ballerina length; and her bouquet was of orchid gladioli. All of the senior attendants' dresses were made exactly alike.

Jackie Peugh, also sister, wore blue and carried yellow gladioli. The other bridesmaid, Lucille Weber, sister of the bridegroom, wore blue, and her bouquet was of pink gladioli.

There were two little flower girls Margie Jo and Kathy Herringshaw. Both wore pale pink short taffeta dresses with two tiered skirts.

Clark Unruh served as best man. Ushering were Darcie Verley and Jim Stuckey.

Mrs. Peugh chose a burgundy taffeta dress with navy accessories for her daughter's wedding; and the bridegroom's mother wore pink linen with white accessories. Mrs. Peugh's corsage was of yellow rosebuds and Mrs. Weber's was of pink.

The reception was in the church parlor. Pouring were Anita Unruh and Donna Peugh. Grace Peugh, aunt of the bride, cut the cake; and Mrs. Mary Murphy, Goldie Erickson, Ruth Patterson and Pat Welch assisted.

For the wedding trip to Washington, Shirley wore a powder blue linen dress with white accessories. After a visit with the bride's sister, the couple will return to Grants Pass to live. She will teach there; and Leonard will attend Southern Oregon College in Ashland.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Goldie Erickson, Inglewood, California; Mrs. Mary Murphy, Madrid, Nebraska, both aunts of the bride; and Pat Welch, Portland, friend from college.

Very special guests at the wedding were the Boy Scouts in the Malin troop. Leonard is their leader; and they all attended his wedding in a body, and in uniform.

See the World Famous Olivette and Olympia Portable Typewriters at Vaught's School and Office Supply, 629 Main. Free trial & terms.

BRIDE WITH HER MOTHER before the ceremony.

One of September's First Brides Was Kay Johnston Last Saturday

The wedding of Kay Johnston to Warren Wendt of Medford, last Saturday, was the culmination of a college romance on the Oregon State campus.

The Rev. Dale Hewitt officiated at the exchange of vows in First Presbyterian Church in the presence of a host of friends of the pioneer Johnston family; and a large group from Medford, where the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt, are well known, long established residents.

Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Keno Road, and her father gave her in marriage.

White gladioli and yellow button chrysanthemums with greenery formed the background for the candlelight service.

Bride's gown of net and lace was styled with fitted bodice and full skirt. A snug half-cap of lace framed the attractive bride's dark hair and held her fingertip veil of illusion.

She carried a small arrangement of stephanotis flowers tied with satin ribbon and centered with a large white orchid.

Kay's sister, Shirley, maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of silk, styled with a full skirt and semi-fitted bodice with a deep oval neckline and tiny cap sleeves.

Her sister Connie served as bridesmaid, and was dressed in a frock identical to Shirley's in style, but in a lighter shade of blue. Both carried bouquets of yellow and bronze fall flowers.

Celia Kerns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kerns, and cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Harry McLoughlin, Portland, best man, is Warren's fraternity brother in Sigma Nu.

Lon Skinner, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, ushered and was also candlelighter. Warren's cousin, Don Wendt, Medford; and Don Johnston, bride's brother, also ushered.

Mrs. Johnston chose an afternoon dress of dusty rose lace for her daughter's wedding, and her accessories were chocolate brown. The senior Mrs. Wendt wore a silver blue dress with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white orchids.

The reception was in the church parlors. Marilyn Spinger, Portland, cut the cake and Virginia Van Doren assisted in serving at the cake table. Both are Chi Omega sorority sisters of the bride.

Mrs. Lon Skinner, bridegroom's sister Phyllis, was at the coffee service; and Mrs. Don Johnston, bride's sister-in-law, served the punch.

For the wedding trip to California, Kay wore a toast colored suit with green accessories. At her shoulder was the orchid from the bridal bouquet.

The bride was always active in school affairs. She was 4-H Oregon delegate to the national 4-H camp in Washington, D.C., when she was a senior at KUHS. In 1952 she was delegate to the Chi Omega convention in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. In her sophomore year she was a member of Talon honorary society; and in 1953 was president of Home Economics Club at OSC. Also, in 1953, she had the distinction of being chosen Homecoming Queen for OSC. She was graduated last June, and has been with Portland Gas Company as home economist.

Warren, a graduate from OSC in aeronautical engineering, has accepted a position with Boeing in Seattle where they will live until 2nd Lieut. Wendt reports for service in the USAF.

Out of town guests included Mrs. B. E. Kerns, Harbor, Oregon, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Hugh McLoughlin, mother of the best man; and Carol Kooman, sorority sister of Kay's, both of Portland.

BEFORE THE NUPTIALS . . . in First Presbyterian Church last Saturday, Kay Johnston poses with her attendants and her father, Ralph Johnston, who gave her in marriage to Warren Wendt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt.

From the left, Connie Johnston, her sister, bridesmaid; her father, Shirley, also sister, maid of honor; and adoring expression on little flower girl's face is for the bride. The little miss is Celia, Kay's cousin, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kerns.

CLOSE FRIENDS of the bride assisted at her wedding reception, and are shown at the cake table, above. From the left, Mrs. Don Johnston, bride's sister-in-law, Gwen, Mrs. Lon (Phyllis) Skinner, bridegroom's sister; Marilyn Spinger and Virginia Van Doren.

Store Hours: 9:30 to 5:30

LESLIE FAY

Fits you to a "T" if you're 5-feet-5 or less

AS ADVERTISED IN CHARM

fashions, second floor

AS ADVERTISED IN MADEMOISELLE

A. Triple-priced excitement! Such elegance might have come from a Paris salon . . . yet the Leslie Fay price tag is just a trifle! It's a deeply scooped dress dramatized with a sweep-collared jacket . . . of Jarmel — Roth's yarn-dyed taffeta in black, blue, toast, red, or peacock. Brief sizes 10 to 20. 24.95

B. A money-in-the-bank fashion! Leslie Fay's wonderful new wardrobe dress . . . fits perfectly and holds its shape — even to the beautifully pleated skirt — through countless wearings and washings. It's a fabulous Thalspun dooskin jersey of 80% Orlon and 20% wool. Oxford grey, green, red, tobacco, or blue. Brief sizes 10 to 20. 24.95

Miller's

Fashion of the hour . . . the becoming, beautiful

Breton

The litting brim adding new flourish to fall's costumes! From an important group of lush velours in glowing autumn hues . . . elegantly jeweled, feathered.

10.95

Millinery Second Floor

Dick Tenny