Bride is the former Janice Lee Woolever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Woolever, China Lake; and Vernon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Alexander, 4415 Peck Drive. The couple will live in China Lake while Vernon is stationed there with the Navy.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the wedding August 15, in Reno, Nevada, of Jerri Bittle and Carol Kandra. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Conner of Medford, Oregon, and Carol is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Kandra, Merrill.

Attendants for the two were Walt Fotheringham of Merrill and Doris Porterfield, Dorris. The service was at 12:30 p.m. in the Federated Presbyterian Church.

Following a honeymoon trip to Salt Lake City, and Yellowstone Park; the young couple is at home in Alturas, where the bridegroom has farming interests.

Class of '13 CWCE Reunion

TULELAKE — A reunion of classmates who attended Central Washington College of Education at Ellensburg, Washington, and who were graduated in 1913, was held Saturday, August 28, at the home of Mrs. Grace Shrader, Yakima.

Attending from Tulelake was Mrs. J. Merton (Vera) Brown, one of 22 young women who lived together in a campus club house. There were no sorority houses on the campus at that time.

Of the original 22 girls, 12 attended the one o'clock reunion luncheon. Telegrams were received from two others. Mrs. Kenneth Healey, world traveler, came from London, England.

Mrs. Brown has corresponded with several of the graduates for 41 years. She was accompanied to Yakima by her husband.

SURPRISE PARTY

CHILOQUIN — Dona Clark and Sue Seasholtz, each thinking she was attending a surprise party for the other, were honor guests at a clever party given recently at the Adams residence by Mrs. Joe Adams, Mrs. Lewis Jones, Mrs. Allen Cline, Mrs. Earl Adkins and Mrs. William Wampler.

Invited guests included Mrs. Callie Clark, Mrs. Anton Zedina, Mrs. Don Potter, Mrs. Roger Wright, Mrs. Wayne Niehaus, Mrs. Bob David, Mrs. George Reed, Mrs. Walter Pohl, Mrs. W. T. Oates, Mrs. Gene Gentry, Twyla Knight, Frieda Kirk, Linda Pope, Karen Miller, Mary MacDonald, Susan Ravizza and Sharon Zedina.

Dona and Sue were each given a gift by the hostesses.

THETA RHO AT MERRILL

Summer news roundup for Merrill Theta Rho includes a swimming and potluck picnic party at Malin Community Park, July 26; meeting on August 5; initiation practice, August 17; and initiation ceremony August 19, when Nancy O'Neil and Patsy Ralston were initiated.

Flowers were sent to Yvonne Testerman and Mrs. H. J. Hendrickson by the sick committee; who also sent a gift to Mrs. Joan Haskins, when she was released from the hospital.

It was decided to submit entries in all state assembly contests. A contest in the local Theta Rho was to determine aprons selected for the state contest.

Members have begun work on the Obligation. The following have given it: Frances Barber, Katharine Barnes, Myrtle Barnes, Marlene Beasley, Donna O'Connor, Emma Drago, Darlene Frisvold, Joy Haskins, Loretta Lemier, Rae Dean Marks, Beverly Moore, Kathy Moore, Margaret Qualls, Mary Lou Qualls, Doris Raines and Connie Reeves.

Members helped O. J. (Red) Harris clean up the cemetery; reporting for duty at 8 a.m., August 31.

A gift was sent to Mrs. Lee Haskins' son, who was ill.

Guests at the August 19 meeting were state assembly president, Roberta Wade, and her mother, Mrs. Elmer Wade, from Klamath Falls.

A tap dance routine by Geraldine Johnson, and a skit "Would You Like to be Queen for a Day?" by Dolores Conner, Donna Conner, Arlene Johnson and Sheryl Robinson were humorous highlights of the program; and Sheryl also read a poem she composed and dedicated to the Merrill High School graduating class last year.

ALOHA SOCIAL CLUB

Members of the Aloha Social Club met in the parlors of the Masonic Temple Friday, September 3, for their first fall meeting. Hostesses, Charlotte Osborn, Alma Cofer and Olive Klach served a delightful desert luncheon which was followed by the business meeting.

Acting president, Rhoda Harnden, welcomed Louise Humphrey, Rita Fuller and Bertha Morgan who had not been able to attend for some time.

Edna Jones announced that the annual rummage sale would be held Friday and Saturday, the 17 and 18 in the Masonic Hall.

Following the business meeting, cards were played with high in bridge going to Sylvia Woods; and high in canasta to Rena Oldham. A special prize was awarded Bertha Morgan.

The next meeting will be held in the Masonic Temple on Friday, October 1, 1:45 p.m.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN AVERMAN EMERY... married in First Christian Church, August 22. Bride is the former Francis Lorraine Bailey, daughter of Alvin E. Bailey, Lakeshore Drive.

Emery-Bailey Nuptial Vows Exchanged in Candlelight Service in First Christian

In a lovely candlelight ceremony, Sunday afternoon, August 22, Francis Lorraine Bailey, daughter of Alvin E. Bailey and the late Mrs. Bailey, Lakeshore Drive; became the bride of John Averman Emery, son of Walter Emery, San Jose; and Mrs. Louise Marlowe, Palo Alto.

The Rev. George Alder officiated at the ceremony in First Christian Church.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of satin and lace made on train. A cap of matching lace held her shoulder length veil of illusion; and she carried a large, single white orchid on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Stanley Kendall, organist, accompanied vocal soloists, Harry Headrick, San Jose; and Dean Stephens.

Candlelighters were Elaine Kendall, Klamath Falls; and Joan Ballinger, San Jose. Both wore white length gowns of taffeta in pink and aqua.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Don Porter, San Jose, wore a pink waist length dress with lace bodice, and full net skirt over taffeta.

She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and stock.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Harry Headrick, San Jose; and Shirley Jo Hulbert, Playa del Rey, California, wore green frocks made exactly as the matron of honor's. The bride and her senior attendants were all dormitory mates at San Jose Bible College.

Carolyn Alder, flower girl, wore a white length dress of green taffeta.

Ring bearers were Barbara Alder in pink taffeta, and Mark Bailey, brother of the bride.

George Caldwell of San Jose was best man; and ushering were Don Porter and Harry Headrick, also San Jose.

The reception was in the church basement immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Frances Schneck was acting hostess; Shirley Mattoon and Marilyn Kendall were at the punch bowl; Pat Prather and Ruth Mock served the ornate cake made by Mrs. Roy Arnold; and Mrs. Robert Childers registered the guests.

Francis is a graduate of San Jose Bible School class of '54; and John, a fourth-year student, will continue his studies there this fall; and she returns to the college as secretary to the business manager.

After a short honeymoon in the Bay Area, the new Mr. and Mrs. Emery will be at home, 98 South Thirteenth Street, San Jose.

CIC PLANS ANNUAL BAZAAR

PORT KLAMATH — At the last regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Club, September 3, conducted by president, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer; it was decided to change the next meeting date to September 16, instead of September 17, because of the annual bazaar scheduled for September 18.
