FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIMER

Mrs. Robert E. Gorden arrived in Fort Klamath Sunday evening from Klamath Falls, where she had returned by plane from a weeks visit at Tillamook with her son Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Gorden. He is affiliated there with the Mountain States Power Company. Accompanying Mrs. Gorden on the plane trip to Portland the preceding week were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jockisch, Gorden and Bobbie, who had spent two weeks visiting relatives and friends here and in Klamath Falls from Peoria, Illinois. At Portland the Jockisch family boarded a plane for the return trip to Peoria, and Mrs. Gorden went on to visit at Tillamook.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Nicholson were her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Monks and Kathleen, Lapwai, Idaho; her brother, Jerry Monks, who is attending Gonzaga University in Spokane, another brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monks, Yakima, and a third brother and his fiancée, John Monks and Marion Sullivan, San Francisco.

Thomas O. Dyché spent the Labor Day weekend here from his place of employment at Hampton Siding, near Bend, where he is working for the Warren Northwest Construction Co. Accompanying him to his home in the Agency Lake district was William E. Davis, formerly of Fort Klamath, who is also employed at Hampton Siding.

Joan Loosley left Sunday for Portland, where she will teach a third grade class in an elementary school, her first contract since graduating this spring from Oregon State College. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley of Fort Klamath.

Mrs. Warren More and Karen left last week for Sonoma, California, where Karen will resume her school studies for the coming term. They have been at their summer home on Wood River since late spring, and on weekends were joined by Dr. More, practicing dentist of Sonoma. The family plans to spend several more weekends here before winter.

Arriving Tuesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strahan were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Snell, Sharp's Park, California, who were joined Friday by Strahan's cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Blankenship and two children, also of Sharp's Park. Before coming here, the Californians had visited relatives in the Rogue River Valley. Spots visited while in Oregon included the Oregon Caves, Crater and Diamond lakes.

Don Wimer was released Thursday noon from Klamath Valley hospital where he underwent a tonsillectomy early Wednesday morning, following a month's illness resulting from a serious throat infection.

Audrey Varnum spent the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Varnum; she is employed in the Southern Pacific railroad office at Portland.

To be on hand for the opening day of the state fair at Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Warren (Lefty Wild Eagle) Wilder and three young sons left last Wednesday. Again this year the colorful Indian family will have a concession booth at the fair, featuring Indian novelties which are hand made by Lefty and his wife. Joining them at Salem the latter part of the week was her nephew, Steve Collins, Fraser, Montana, who has been visiting during the summer at the Wilder home. During the Wilder's absence at the fair, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Francis will have charge of their business.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell (Mike) Beaulieu moved to Klamath Falls, where he is employed by Kalpine. Beaulieu had been employed here by the Modoc Lumber Co. Mrs. Beaulieu was, until recently, in partnership with Edward (Bud) Strong in the management of the Fort Klamath Hotel dining room and kitchen.

Mrs. Rose Reese has returned to Whittier, California, after enjoying an extended stay with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Reese, at their Fort Creek motel.

Spending the Labor Day weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Neil Neilson and Karmen Kay were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Young and Mrs. Eva Pritchett, Prineville.

While his wife went to Crater Lake Sunday with a party of relatives, Hugh Routly stopped off in Fort Klamath, spending the time visiting old friends. He and Mrs. Routly are former local residents now living in Klamath Falls. Accompanying them were his nephew, Howard MacDonald, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Routly's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin, visiting in Klamath Falls from their home at Vancouver, B.C.

By MRS. MERLE O'NEIL
Weekend visitors at the Fred Longfellow ranch were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Carroll, Oroville, California. They were accompanied by his brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Jess Carroll also of Oroville. The Carrolls visited with other relatives at Lakeview during the rodeo weekend.

Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Tragitt, Alturas, were dinner guests Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longfellow. The Tragitts have recently moved to Alturas where he is the new pastor of the Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McGuffin on a drive through Warner Valley Sunday afternoon. They went by way of Hogback Mountain and returned by Adel.

Out of town guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cogburn for the three day weekend were the Cogburn sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cogburn, Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cogburn and Gary, Klamath Falls. The Donald Cogburns were on an extended vacation trip and from here they planned to visit several scenic points of interest before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clays and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter Wednesday evening.

Gloria Ayout has returned to New Pine Creek after spending the summer months helping out at the Bradley ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Benham, Coquille, were calling on relatives Sunday at the home of Mrs. John O'Neil.

Several relatives were guests of the Denny Watsons over the Labor Day weekend. Denny's sisters Dean and husband, Pittsburg, California, and the Jess Walkers, Klamath Falls, they left Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Benne and daughters of Oregon City were renewing friendships in Lake County over the Labor Day weekend. While here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Snider and family. Also visiting at the Snider home Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mahan and family, Marlitz, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Rawlins and family have recently moved from the Defer ranch to the Bayes place. Both of these ranches are owned by Neal Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Adamson, Lakeview, were calling on friends Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longfellow.

Those from here who attended the funeral of Manuel Yribarren at the Catholic church in Alturas Monday morning, were Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil and Mr. and Mrs. Merle O'Neil. Mrs. Yribarren is a niece of John O'Neil.

Barnette Carroll called on Barbara Snider Saturday. She was accompanied by her parents Fred and Gussie Longfellow.
